THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, assembled at the Assizes, held in the Moot-Hall, in the Town of Newcastle, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

This Declaration of our Duty and our Affection we feel it peculiarly incumbent on us to repeat at this Crisis, when we are threatened with Invasion by a dangerous and powerful Enemy.

To defeat any such Attempt, and to maintain the Independence, the Laws, and the Liberties of these United Kingdoms, we are prepared to make every Sacrifice which the Nature of the Contest may require, humbly trusting in your Majesty's paternal Care, that, by a wise Economy, and well-directed Exertions, the utmost Effect will be given to the powerful Means which are cordially offered for the Common Defence by an unanimous and zealous People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

Sbafto Crafter, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Richard Beaumont, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach the Throne with those Sentiments of sincere and inviolable Attachment to our beloved Sovereign, which we have ever wished to cherish in our Breasts, and deem it our indispensable Duty to express in the most public and solemn Manner at the present momentous Period.

Threatened with an immediate Attack on our Country by a ferocious and implacable Enemy, whose Object is to spread Desolation and Terror as far as his Arms can prevail; although we cannot fail to join with our Fellow-Subjects in deploring the Miseries of War, and the Pressure of those Burdens that must inevitably attend the arduous Conflict in which we are now engaged: we yet feel that Confidence and Hope of final Success, which, under the Blessing of Heaven, is so justly inspired by the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, and not less supported by the well-known Valour and Intrepidity of your Forces both by Sea and Land.

These, we trust, will at last bring the Contest, however severe it may prove, to a favourable Issue; and as we know that it cannot terminate according to our Wishes without exposing your faithful People to many Hardships and Inconveniences, which must be patiently endured, we can assure your Majesty, that we are fully prepared to perform every Duty, to submit to every Sacrifice, and encourage every Exertion that may be necessary for vindicating the Honor of your Majesty's Government, and obtaining that Security against future Violence and Aggression, without which we can neither hope to enjoy lasting Peace, nor preserve our National Independence.

May that Almighty Ruler, whose watchful Providence has guarded your Throne from every Danger, still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and give their full Effect to those salutary
