AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of August 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Charles Yorke to be One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, sworn One of Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of August, 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Island of Saint Lucia has been conquered by His Majesty's Forces, and the Territory and Forts of the same are delivered up to His Majesty, and the said Island is now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Island of Saint Lucia, subject nevertheless to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in the West Indies, is or shall be subject by Law; and His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Island of St. Lucia, being in His Majesty's Possession, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Islands in the West Indies. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, August 20, 1803.

The King has been pleased to grant the Dignity of a Baronet of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto David Wedderburn, of Baintindean, in the County of Perth, Esq; and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, with Remainder to the Heirs Male of the Body of Sir Alexander Wedderburn, of Blacknesh, deceased.

St. James's, August 17, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Gentry, Clergy, Citizens, and other Inhabitants of your ancient City of Lincoln, humbly request Permission to approach your Majesty at the present momentous Crisis, and at the Foot of your Throne to offer up this Address in Testimony of our Loyalty and sincere Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, most readily and zealously step forward to support and defend your Majesty's sacred Person, our Laws, our Religion, and Liberties against the daring, rapacious, and invidious Attack with which our Country is threatened by an ambitious and sanguinary Foe.

Dated at Lincoln, the Sixth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, beg Leave, at this present important Crisis, to express to your Majesty our sincere Attachment and Loyalty to your sacred Person and our excellent Constitution, which it is our fixed Determination to use our utmost Endeavours to support.

Conscious of the Happiness this Country has enjoyed under that Constitution which has been handed down to us by our Ancestors, it will be our Glory to transmit it unimpaired to our Posterity; and we are convinced Britons can never think any Exertion or Sacrifice too great to defend their Country from the Danger of foreign Conquest.

We are fully convinced it is the great and leading Duty of every Individual to support and maintain the true Principles of the Constitution of the Church and State, and that these are the unanimous Sentiments of our Fellow Countrymen. We therefore view without Dismay, the Threats and Menaces of our Enemy, trusting, under Divine Providence, and our own manly and vigorous Exertions, we shall frustrate their hostile Intentions, and bring to an honorable Termination, that Contest on which the Liberty and Property of every Englishman depends.

Signed on the Behalf of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, assembled at the County Hall, the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Henry Nelthorpe, Sheriff.

[Presented by Henry Nelthorpe, Esq; attended by Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart. and Charles Chaplin, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty at a Period when this Country is threatened with Invasion by a powerful and implacable Foe, to express our Sentiments of Attachment to your Royal Person, and our unanimous Determination to adopt and pursue every Means within our Power to ensure the Security, to assert the Independence, and to defend the Rights of your Majesty, of ourselves, and of our Fellow Subjects.

We are fully aware that in a Contest of such Magnitude, for Purposes so important, great and unusual Sacrifices must be made by us, and we are prepared, readily and cheerfully, to make them; feeling that it is only by the vigorous, persevering, and united Exertions of the whole Country against such an unprovoked Aggression on the Part of France that we can arrive at that State of Peace and Tranquillity which we are sensible it is your Majesty's most earnest Wish to procure for us.

Thos. Rawlings, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Lord Lieutenant of the County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the County of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Season of peculiar Difficulty and Alarm, when the wild Ambition and inveterate Enmity of a foreign Power have placed the British Realm in Circumstances of new and extraordinary Danger, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Heritors, Freeholders, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Linlithgow, humbly desire to approach the Throne with the dutiful Expression of our hearty Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and with the solemn Assurance of our Resolution to maintain, by the utmost Efforts which so interesting a Crisis may require, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberties and Independence of our Country.

Knowing, Sire, the Spirit of Moderation on the Part of your Majesty, in which the Terms of the Treaty of Amiens were arranged, we were willing to indulge the Hope that those large Concessions towards the Tranquillity of Europe had not been made in vain; and that the Ruler of France might sincerely be disposed to indulge that enslaved and unhappy People in their earnest Wishes for a Period of Repose, after the long Series of Agonies and Miseries they had undergone.

But, convinced as we now are, by the uniform Train of Injury and Insult with which that relentless Person has since met the numerous Testimonies of your Majesty's friendly Dispositions, that this Treaty was nothing more than a delusive Truce, devised only in order to provide the Means of more effectually accomplishing the Destruction of a People whom he alike hates and envies, and that the great Struggles in which we are engaged could not have been prevented, nor even delayed, but by the Surrender of all that ennobles the British Name and Character, or ensures the Safety, Freedom, and Prosperity, of these fortunate Kingdoms; we feel that every Thing which any of us poffels, or hold dear, is at Hazard on the Ifue of this mighty Contelt; and taught by the Mifery and Debafe-ment of the many furrouring Nations who have trufted to the Mercy, the Faith, or the Gratitude of our falfe and cruel Foe, we will make with Cheer-fulnefs all Sacrifices and Exertions, how large and unufual foever, which are called for on fo high an Occafion, and will feek our Deliverance from this great Peril in the Energy and Courage only of a free, a loyal, and an united People; and in humble Reliance on the Favour and Protection of the Almighty Difpofor of Events, a Reliance grounded on the Confciousnefs of the Juftice and Goodnefs of our Caufe.

Signed in our Prefence, and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, this Third Day of Auguft One thoufand eight hundred and three,

Johnftone Hopetoun, His Majesty's Lieutenant for the County of Linlithgow.

[Presented by Colonel Sir A. Hope, Representative in Parliament for the faid County.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, beg Leave at the prefent awful Crifis of public Affairs to exprefs our fucere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's facred Perfon and Government. We have heard with Indignation and Abhorrence the Menaces of an Insolent and haughty Enemy, who, in open Contempt of every Principle of Juftice, and in Violation of the moft folemn Acts of Faith, has again compelled us to ftand forth in Oppofition to its refllefs and infatiable Ambition; and we hafteu to affure your Majesty of our Determination to employ every Means which Divine Providence hath afforded us of ftrengthening the Hands of your mild and equitable Government, and of maintaining with unre-mitted Exertions, the Caufe of Truth, of Liberty and Juftice againft that of Perfidy, Tyranny, and Ufurpation.

The fpirited Acts of Authority for the Sup- preffion of Vice and Immerality by which your Reign has been diftinguifhed, and the Solitude which your Majesty has invariably difcovered for the Maintenance of true Religion and Piety in thefe Dominions, afford us the moft fatisfactory Affurance that the Mind of our beloved Sovereign is deeply impreffed with a Perfuaftion, that it is Righteoufnefs which exalteth a Nation, and therefore we rely with implicit Confidence on your Majesty's continuing the Adoption of fuch Meafures as will moft effectually tend to feure to us the Protection and Favour of Almighty God. It is this Consideration, Sire, which imparts an Energy to our Efforts for the Defence of your Majesty's Perfon, and for the Pre- fervation of our Church and Civil Conftitution; it is this which animates us with a lively Hope, that the Conflict in which we are involved will terminate, under the Divine Bleffing, with Succels, and ferves to unite us in one common Refolution to facrifice our Fortune and our Lives in refifting to the utter- moft, the fanguinary Attempts of our rapacious and inveterate Foes.

Thos. Kynnerfley, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Kynafton Powell, Representative in Parliament for the faid County.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Effex, at all Times defirous to manifeft the moft zealous Attachment to your illuftrious Family, feel it an indifpenfable Duty, at this Crifis, cheerfully to devote our Perfons and Properties for the Maintenance of your Majesty's Crown and Government againft the outrageous Attack with which they are threatened by a defolating and implacable Foe.

We feel, however, with Pride and Gratitude, that, while the unfortunate People of other Nations have been degraded into Slavery by a criminal Sub- miffion to the Will of an ufurping Tyrant, the happy Subjects of thefe Realms continue to enjoy the enviable Bleffings of Freedom under the Pro- tection of a mild and merciful Sovereign.

We have learnt with the utmoft Indignation that the common Difurber of human Repofe, adding Infuld to Aggreffion, now prefumes to menace a perfonal Deicent upon this Ifland. If, from its Contiguity, he fhould be induced to adventure upon our Coaft, we do affure your Majesty, with a Con- fidence which Loyalty inspires, that the Inhabitants of this extenfive County will be found at their Pofts, firmly united, and ready to oppofe themfelves as a Barrier againft the Progreffs of this inveterate Enemy: We know that a Warfare muft then be waged for all that is facred in civilized Life, and that every Thing dear to us muft be rifked in the Support of a Monarch fo defervedly beloved, and in the Defence of a Conftitution which we are not dif- pofed to furvive.

Signed on Behalf of the County at large,

S. F. Gillum, Sheriff.

[Presented by Stephen Fryer Gillum, Esq; Sheriff.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham.

Moft Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inha- bitants of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave, at this important Conjunction, to renew our Affu- rances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Perfon and Government.

We have feen, with the utmoft Regret, the refl- efs and infatiable Ambition of the Firft Conful of France once more interrupt that Peace, which the benignant Efforts of your Majesty had reftored to fuffering Europe; and we obferve with Indignation the hostile Preparations with which he threatens to infuld our Shores: But, Sire, be affured that Bri- tons are not to be difmayed by his Menaces or his Projects. Called upon by your Majesty to come forward in the Defence of our Country, we cheer- fully obey the Summons; and we hereby pledge ourfelves, with that Zeal and Unanimity which a generous Confidence will always inspire, to make the greateft Sacrifices, and to employ the moft active Exertions for the Protection of your Majesty's Per- fon, the Maintenance of the Honor and Independ- ence of the Nation, and the Prefervation of thofe Liberties which have been hitherto so well secured by our glorious Constitution.

Animated by these Sentiments, and relying upon the Justice of our Cause, we trust that, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, we shall enable your Majesty to frustrate the Attempts of all your Enemies, and to restore to this Country that unrivalled Prosperity which it has ever enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Signed on Behalf of the County,
W. C. Sherbrooke, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, and to express our Zeal to promote those Measures, which, with the Advice of your Parliament, your Majesty has adopted for the Defence of these Realms.

Great and awful as is the Crisis of the present Moment, we look forward to its Issue with cheerful Confidence, sensible, at the same Time, that it involves in it the Fate of every Thing that is most dear to us, the Maintenance of your Majesty's Throne and Dignity, the Defence of our Religion, our Laws, and Liberties; these shall never be surrendered to that implacable Enemy, who thirsts for our Destruction. The Judgment of an enlightened People can feel no Hesitation between the mild Sway of a rightful Sovereign, governing by Laws founded in the Wisdom of Parliament, and the arrogant Pretensions of an Usurper, acknowledging no Right but that of Arms, no Law, but his capricious Will.

Done at a General Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, convened by the High Sheriff, and held in the Shire-House in the Castle of Norwich, on Wednesday the Tenth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and signed at the Request of the Meeting,

Thos. Hare, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Jacob Henry Ashley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E!

WE, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and determined Resolution to resist, with all our Power, the menaced Attack of an insidious, vindictive, and haughty Foe for the Subversion of our constitutional Liberty, and Destruction of those social Institutions, which, contributing to our Happiness and Prosperity, render Life desirable.

Impressed with Sentiments of Veneration for your Majesty's Person, and grateful to Divine Providence for the Protection of our Freedom, enjoyed by ourselves and Ancestors for a long Series of Years, but more particularly under your Majesty's paternal Government; proud of our National Independence, and scorning Submission to an implacable and ambitious Enemy, we cheerfully stand forward with a Tender of our Services, personal and pecuniary, to be disposed of as the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may suggest in Support of our Country.

Geo. Jones, Sheriff.

[Presented by Charles Morgan, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave, at this most awful Crisis, again to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our warmest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

From our Situation, as a maritime County, it is probable we may be amongst the first of your Majesty's Subjects who may be destined to resist the threatened Attempt of our most inveterate Enemy; and we trust that, when the Hour of Contest shall arrive, we shall not be appalled by the Danger, but be found ready and willing to make every Sacrifice that may be required of us in Defence of our King, our Country, and our Constitution in Church and State; and that, under Divine Providence, we may be able to repel the desperate Invader, and preserve to our Posterity those inestimable Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most beneficent Reign.

Signed by Desire of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, assembled at Stowmarket the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

H. Parker, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir P. Charles Bunbury, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of East Lothian, in a General Meeting assembled, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Duty imposed upon us and every British Subject at this momentous Crisis, feel ourselves called upon to assure your Majesty of our ardent Love for our Country, of our earnest Desire for the Preservation of its matchless Constitution, of our unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and your mild and paternal Government.

We are threatened with Invasion by a most implacable and faithless Enemy, whose first Wish is the Destruction of the British Empire, as a Step towards universal Dominion, by an Enemy who has made some of the greatest Nations tremble before his Arms, and bow to his Dictates; by an Enemy regardless of those Laws that regulate the Connection of independent States, and whom the most solemn Treaties are too weak to bind.

Although we desire not to conceal the just Sense we entertain of the Dangers that surround your Majesty and your faithful People, yet do we disclaim and deprecate every Idea of Depression or Alarm.

The peculiar Circumstances of the Times are so far from terrifying us, that we look forward to the Issue of this mighty Contest with Hope and Confidence, relying on the Loyalty, Firmness, and spirited Exertions of a gallant, united, and exasperated People, and on the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament; but above all, humbly trusting in the Protection of that Almighty Being, who will ever prosper the Efforts of Men enlisted in the Cause of Religion and Order.

We presume further to assure your Majesty, that, so far from considering the Burdens imposed upon us as vexatious, we do most sincerely and unanimously concur in Opinion, that they are absolutely necessary, and declare that we will cheerfully submit to whatever Privations the Wisdom of the Legislature may think fit to subject us to.

We reflect with Grief and Indignation on the late horrid Insurrection in another Part of the United Kingdom, accompanied as it was, by Circumstances of peculiar Atrocity. We feel ourselves called upon to express our Detestation of its Iniquity, and our Hope, that as, since the Commencement of the present arduous, just, and necessary Contest, it has been the first Symptom of Disaffection in your Majesty's Dominions, so it may be the last.

Finally, we do most solemnly bind ourselves to pay the utmost Attention to our respective Duties, to carry into Effect with the greatest Expedition, every Act of Parliament for the Defence of our Country, to obey with Zeal and Alacrity all your Majesty's Commands tending to that important End; to do all that in us lies to encourage and direct that truly British Spirit which pervades all Ranks in this County, and to infuse into the Mind of every Individual belonging to it those Sentiments of Loyalty, Reverence, and Affection that it becomes a free and grateful Nation to cherish towards a Sovereign who has ever proved himself the Father of his People.

Signed by the Right Honorable the Earl of Haddington, as Preses of the Meeting, in their Name, and by their Authority, this Eleventh Day of August Eighteen hundred and three Years. Haddington, P.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, animated by the purest Affection for your Majesty's Person, and by the most ardent Zeal for the Safety and Protection of our Country, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne at this momentous Crisis.

We view with Sensations of deep Regret, the Necessity that involves us again in a state of Warfare, and we deplore the Evils to which it inevitably tends, but we see in the Character and Conduct of our Enemy the sole Cause of those Evils which we deplore. For our Defence and Security, under Providence, we rely upon the continued Exertions of your Majesty's Government, upon the Zeal and Spirit which pervade every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, and upon the well known Valour and Perseverance of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and upon the general Exertions of the Country.

fidence and Fortitude to the Torrent which has overwhelmed the Continent, and look forward with Confidence in the Justice of the Cause for a happy Restoration of Peace.

With these Sentiments and every other Feeling of affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to our happy Constitution in Church and State. We beg Leave again to declare, that we shall use our utmost Exertions to support your Majesty and your Government in this just and unavoidable War.

[Presented by Sir Robert Williams, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries, beg Leave, at the present important and unexampled Crisis, humbly to express our entire Approbation of the Measures lately pursued by your Majesty in commencing Hostilities against our insidious and inveterate Enemy, who, under the deceitful Mask of Peace, was preparing for, and plotting the, Subversion of your Majesty's Government, the Overthrow of the Constitution by which, under Divine Providence, the civil and religious Rights transmitted to us from our Forefathers are secured and protected, and the final Subjection of this Country; and we, at the same Time, take this Opportunity to profess and testify our unvaried Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our firm and unalterable Resolution to support your Government, and defend our Country, with our Lives and Fortunes.

We feel with Indignation the insolent Menaces held out by our determined Foe, who has long contemplated with Envy and Malevolence the Prosperity of your Majesty's Kingdoms, convinced that Britain alone presents an invincible Obstacle to his daring and ambitious Schemes, and sensible that our free Government is a continual Reproach to the System of Tyranny, founded on Usurpation, which he has established through every Part of Europe where he has gained the Ascendancy.

The Fate of France affords an instructive Lesson to all Nations, and an awful Warning against the adopting of Innovations, without duly reflecting on the Consequences; after renouncing Allegiance to their Sovereign, and abjuring Christianity, the insatuated and wretched Inhabitants of that Kingdom have groaned under the Yoke of a Succession of sanguinary Tyrants, and are now become the Slaves of a despotic Ruler, who governs them with the Iron Hand of Power, whilst your Majesty's happy Subjects, under your mild and auspicious Government, enjoy the Blessings derived from a Constitution whose Basis is Liberty, founded upon Law. Animated by a just Sense of our enviable Situation, when compared with that of other Nations, permit us again, Royal Sir, to assure your Majesty that we will lose our best Blood in defending our Country, repelling our Enemies, and averting the Calamities with which we are threatened, persuaded, as we are, that Britions, unanimous, true to themselves, and actuated by the gallant Spirit of their Ancestors, are greatly superior to any Attempts of Invasion that can be made by a foreign Enemy.

Subscribed in the Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting,
John Murray, Preses.
Dumfries, July 26, 1803.

[Presented by Lieutenant-General Sir Robert Laurie, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave, humbly to approach the Throne at this important Crisis, to renew our Assurances of Loyalty and of Affection to your Majesty's Person, and to express, in the strongest Manner, our confident Reliance on the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Government.

We see with Regret and Indignation, that your Majesty's anxious and uniform Endeavours to preserve to your People the Blessings of Peace have been rendered ineffectual by the violent Spirit of Animosity and the inordinate Ambition of an inveterate Foe, whose declared Purpose is to invade, plunder, and subdue this United Kingdom, and to destroy its Existence as an independent State. We are, however, happy in being able to assure your Majesty of the unanimous Resolution of the Inhabitants of this County to unite, with their Fellow Subjects, in supporting with their Persons and Properties, those Measures, which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt, to defeat the Attacks and chastise the Insolence of our Enemies.

Trusting to those Measures and to the Justice of our Cause, we shall enter, without Dismay, on the great Contest for every Thing we hold dear to us as Men and as Britons, in the fullest Confidence that this Nation, with the Divine Aid, will be enabled to confound the Designs of the Enemy, to secure to your Majesty and your Heirs the Independence of your Imperial Crown, and to transmit to our Posterity the Religion, Laws, and Liberty which we received as our Birthright, and which we at present enjoy in the fullest Manner under your Majesty's mild and truly paternal Government.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by their Preses, the Earl of Kintore, Lord Lieutenant of the County, this Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.
Kintore.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Scarborough, humbly beg Leave to repeat our most cordial and sincere Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and unalterable Attachment to the unrivalled Constitution of this Empire, at once the Source and Protection of our Freedom and Happiness.

While we contemplate the boasted Preparations of the Enemy, who vainly anticipates the Subjugation of this United Kingdom, and the Annihilation of our Rank among the Nations of the Earth, we trust that the irresistible Efforts of a brave and free People, contending for all that is dear to their Existence, will, under the protecting Arm of Divine Providence, prove an insuperable Barrier to a Host of Foes, lured by the Hope of Plunder, to fight the Battles of lawless and inordinate Ambition.

In this momentous Crisis we are equally impelled by Inclination and Duty, solemnly to pledge to your Majesty, our most strenuous and persevering Exertions, in support of every Measure, which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt for the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and for the Defence of the British Empire, which has gloriously resisted the rude Attacks of the Spoiler, and still retains, unimpaired, its Religion, Liberty, and Laws, amidst the awful Wreck of the desolated States of Europe.

Signed at the Town-Hall, on Behalf of the Meeting, the Fifth Day of August, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

John Woodall, John Hall, Bailiffs.

[Presented by Major General the Honorable Edmund Phipps and the Right Honorable Lord Robert Manners, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to address your Majesty. We do sincerely regret that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours to preserve the Blessings of Peace to your Subjects and to Europe have been ineffectual; and that by the political and ambitious Views of the Leaders of France, we are again involved in War—a War for the Preservation of our Liberties, our Properties, and for the Support of the Constitution of these Realms. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to step forward at this important Juncture, and to do all in our Power to repel the Enemy, to support the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and for the Defence of the Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Major Allan.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Tregony, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the utmost Affection for your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Convinced, as we are, that we have been forced into the present War by the restless Ambition of an implacable Enemy, we feel it our Duty voluntarily to arm for the Defence of every Thing that is dear to us as Englishmen, and we do humbly assure your Majesty that we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of our Sovereign, our Liberties, and our Country.

[Presented by the Marquis of Blandford and Charles Cockerell, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, and the Inhabitants of Saint Martins Stamford Baron, feel the greatest Indignation at the insulting Language and false Calumnies that the First Consul of France has uttered and propagated against your Majesty, whose Virtues are above all human Praise, and whose Courage, founded on religious Principles, is firm enough to meet and resist all the Attacks that may be made by our perfidious Enemies; and we are resolved to employ our best Endeavours to repel the threatened Invasion by the destructive Armies of our implacable Foes, being fully sensible that every Exertion and Sacrifice should be made at this awful Crisis, to protect every Thing that is dear to us in this World, and to secure to our Progeny the Blessings annexed to our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

Actuated by such Sentiments we humbly offer to risk our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of our beloved Sovereign and our unrivalled Constitution, and shall be ready to come forward and act whenever your Majesty may think proper to call for our Services.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Stamford aforesaid, and under our Hands, at the Town-Hall, in the said Borough, the Thirteenth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Harper, Mayor.

[Presented by General Leland, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Recorder, and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the Borough of Evesham, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne in this momentous Crisis of threatened Invasion and public Danger.

We are truly sensible that your Majesty has lately used your utmost Exertions in endeavouring to preserve to us the Blessings of Peace, and that they have only failed of their desired Effect through the insatiable Ambition, and implacable Malice of a Man, the avowed Enemy of all your Majesty's Subjects, and the Destroyer of the Rights and Liberties of Europe.

Animated by the honest Warmth of Patriotism, and proud of the many enviable Distinctions of just Laws, of unsullied Honor, and of genuine Freedom handed down to us from our Ancestors, we are anxious to preserve them in their original Purity, and to transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity. For this Purpose we are desirous of embracing every Means, which your Majesty's Government may in their Wisdom afford us of co-operating with our Fellow Britons in resisting all Attempts of an invading Foe.

Given under our Hands, and the Seal of the said Borough, at the Guild-Hall thereof, this Twenty-sixth Day of July. One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Northwick ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this very important Period with the most zealous Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your sacred Person and Government, impressed with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that unprincipled and implacable Enemy, who, elated with Conquests abounding in Wickedness, and intoxicated with Ambition, threatens, and certainly meditates the total Destruction of every Thing that is or ought to be dear to us as Men, as Englishmen, and as Christians.

We are fully convinced that the Preservation of our Liberty, the Safety of our Persons and Property, the Existence of our happy Government, and the Maintenance of true Religion and Virtue depend upon the Success of the present eventful Contest; when such Evils are to be obviated, and such Blessings contended for, no Vigilance can be too strict, no Preparations too great, no Exertions too strenuous. Judging from our own Feelings, we trust that one Principle of Loyalty and Attachment to your august Person and our glorious Constitution pervades every Rank and Individual of your Majesty's Subjects, and that the only, but the noble Strife amongst us will be, who shall serve their King and Country with the most Sincerity, disinterested Zeal, and uncorrupted Fidelity.

It is our earnest Prayer that every Blessing may attend and prosper your Majesty's Exertions for the Welfare of your People, and may the Lord of Hosts, the God of Battles, inspire your Commanders with Wisdom, your Troops with Bravery, and crown that Wisdom and Bravery with Success.

Given under the Seal of the Borough of Lancaster, the Third Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by J. Dent, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough, attended by J. L. Hubbersty, Esq; the Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and zealous Expressions of the most hearty Duty and Attachment.

In a Crisis like the present, when your Majesty is engaged in a most just and necessary War for the Defence of your Crown and People, and their Protection from an invading Foe, whose ferocious Ambition having desolated the fairest Part of the Continent, meditates the Subversion of our Laws, our Liberties, our Religion, and dearest Rights, and the Devastation of that Country, which, from its Pre-eminence in Valour and Virtue, has always been the Terror of Tyrants, and the Refuge of the oppressed, we should be unworthy of the Name of Britons did we not pledge our Lives and Fortunes in your Majesty's Support.

Sensible that, under the Blessings of our envied Constitution, the Protection of your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and the bright Example of your domestic Virtues, we have attained a Degree of Power and Happiness unknown to foreign Nations, and unexampled in our own Annals, we confide in the Wisdom of your Majesty, in the Valour of Britons, and in the Protection of the Almighty, for the Defence of your Crown, and the Preservation of your People.

By Desire, and on Behalf of the Meeting,
Edw. Burton, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir William Pulteney, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this anxious and important Season to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Fidelity and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Threatened by a foreign and implacable Enemy with Invasion, and Privation of every Thing which is justly held dear to us in this Country, we cheerfully obey the Summons to unite with Hearts and Hands, under the Wisdom and Direction of your Majesty's Councils, to repel any Attack which may be made on this Island, firmly and confidently relying (under the Favour of Divine Providence) on the Justness of our Cause, and the Spirit and Unanimity of Britons, for the Protection of their Religion and Laws, and the Defence of a most beloved and revered Sovereign.

Given under our Common-Seal the Eleventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ruthin, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's sacred Person upon the alarming Threats of Invasion by our Enemy. While we have to regret the Calamity of War, we most cordially and cheerfully come forward, individually and collectively, to support your Majesty in a War that is become so necessary and unavoidable for the Defence of our Lives, Properties, and most blessed Constitution against any Attempt of a foreign Foe, who, not content with usurping the Power of Royalty in France, is determined on an Attempt to invade our happy Island, for the Purpose of overthrowing our Religion, our Laws, and Constitution, we therefore, being determined to repel most vigorously any such Attempts, do most humbly implore that your Majesty will graciously receive the unfeigned Assurances of our firm Support of your Majesty's Crown, and our Country, to the utmost Exertion of our humble Means, and as ancient Britons, to conquer or die in the common Cause.

At the Request, and on the Behalf of the whole Meeting,

Rich. Hughes and W. Ellis, Aldermen.

[Presented by the Honorable Frederick West, Representative in Parliament for Denbigh.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Macclesfield, humbly request Permission to approach your Throne in this Moment of Alarm with the warmest Assurances of Affection to the Person of your Majesty, of unshaken Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State, and with a firm Determination to spend our Fortunes, and to shed our Blood, rather than not to transmit to our Children, undiminished and untarnished, those precious Laws, that pure Religion, and that honorable Name among the Nations of Europe, which we have received from our brave and loyal Ancestors.

We lament the stern Necessity which calls us to this dreadful Conflict; but, confident of the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Government, and of the public Spirit, Unanimity, and Valour of our Fellow-Subjects, we doubt not, with the Blessing of Almighty God, to defeat the Attempts of our Enemies, and not only to preserve inviolate the Palladium of British Liberty, but to hold out her saving Hand to the Nations on the Continent.

That the Almighty may shed his choicest Blessings on your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and long preserve you to sway the Sceptre of a brave and loyal People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most affectionate Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of this Meeting,
Nathaniel Higginbotham, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by Thomas Cholmondeley, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Cheshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Town of Margate, and Parish of St. John the Baptist, in the Isle of Thanet, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Although we cannot regard with Indifference the haughty Menaces of our inveterate Foe, the general Disturber of the Universe; yet so impressed are we with a due Sense of the Protection which this Country hath for Ages experienced from the especial Favour of the Almighty, the supreme Disposer of all human Events, that we cannot but look forward with Confidence to the Support of the same Being to carry us with Honor through the arduous Conflict in which we are engaged, for the Defence of every Thing dear to us as Christians, as Men, and as Britons.

In this Confidence therefore, and in the perfect Conviction that we have been forced into the Contest by an unprincipled Enemy, actuated by Views of boundless Ambition, to which he considers this Nation as the only Bar, we will be bold to assure your Majesty that we are not degenerated from our Ancestors, and that your Majesty may safely rely on the Courage and zealous Affection of your Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting,
August 11, 1803. Frs. Cobb, Deputy.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Pitt.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Denbigh, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this awful and momentous Crisis, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned and sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, your illustrious Family, and the glorious Constitution of this happy Country.

We lament that your Majesty's Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace and Tranquillity have proved ineffectual. All Europe can bear Testimony to the Moderation, Candour, and Consistency of your Majesty's Demands, and must attribute the Renewal of a deadly and destructive War to that mad System of Fanaticism, inordinate Ambition, and Spirit of Aggrandisement which has so long characterised the Government of France. We acknowledge with Gratitude the parental Anxiety and unremitting Solitude manifested by your Majesty for the Defence, Prosperity, and Security of the United Kingdom against the Attack of a sanguinary and implacable Enemy whose Footsteps are marked with Blood and Massacre, who seems determined at all Hazards to pursue his hostile Designs against the Happiness and Safety of your Majesty's Dominions, and even threatens to put an End to our Existence as a free and independent People.

Thus circumstanced, and attached to your Majesty by every Principle of Duty and Gratitude, sensible that our present Safety and future Tranquillity depend upon our Courage and Firmness, trusting in that Divine Protection which has always hitherto been extended to us, we pledge ourselves to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in support of your Majesty's Throne, in Defence of the Lives and Property of your Majesty's People, the Government, Constitution, Honour, and Independence of the British Empire; and, rather than witness the Disgrace and Downfall of our Country, to perish with our Religion, our Liberties, and our Laws.

Signed and passed under our Common Seal, this Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. By Order of the Court,
John Copner Williams, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Honorable Frederick West, Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and others the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Bodmin, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne humbly to offer our Sentiments of Attachment and Gratitude at this momentous Crisis.

We are truly sensible of your Majesty's constant Attention to the Peace and true Interests of your Subjects; and gratefully acknowledge ourselves bound in your Example and Protection, we cannot, therefore, be too ardent in professing our Readiness to come forward with all that is dear to us in Defence of so gracious a Sovereign and his Dominions, feeling, at the same Time, that our Lives and Fortunes are at Stake from the Designs of the most insidious and unprincipled Enemy that ever a civilized Country had to deal with. We lay our Cause before God, who, we doubt not, will support your Majesty, and save your People from the utter Destruction with which they are threatened.

[Presented by ——— Sargent, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Portreeve and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Ashburton, animated by an ardent Desire to assist in frustrating the Designs of a daring Enemy, humbly presume to approach your Majesty's Throne with a zealous Offer of our most vigorous Exertions in Defence of your Majesty, our Constitution, and our Country.

With the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, we have heard with Indignation the proud Threats of an insolent Foe, who has dared to reproach us with Cowardice; but if he invade your Majesty's Dominions, he will feel that the Swords of our Ancestors have not lost their Edge, and that the strongest Fortification to oppose his Designs is, a living Rampart of Britons contending for Freedom and Independence.

Your Majesty must see with Satisfaction the Unanimity of Englishmen in Defence of their Country, and from that Unanimity anticipate a happy Result.

May your Majesty and your illustrious House long continue the Guardians and Protectors of our Rights and Liberties, which, while they give Happiness to the Subject, reflect a Lustre on the Crown.

[Presented by Sir Hugh Inglis, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Whitchurch, in the County of Salop, beg Leave at the present momentous Period most humbly to approach your Majesty with the Assurance of our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Royal House, and our invaluable Constitution.

We cannot avoid returning your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the anxious Solitude so lately manifested in your Endeavours to procure for and secure to your Majesty's faithful Subjects the Blessings of Peace, but which the Ambition of our determined and implacable Foe has rendered entirely abortive, and in whose Conduct alone we see just Cause for the present War.

As Britons, and the Subjects of a much beloved Sovereign, we shall, under the Blessing of Providence, ever consider it our bounden Duty to guard the sacred Person of your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and to defend our most excellent Constitution, which has ever been, and, under the benign Influence of your Majesty's Reign, still is the Delight and Veneration of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and the Envy and Admiration of all the World.

SIR,
I HEREWITH enclose a Letter I have this Day received from Captain Mundy, of His Majesty's Ship Hydra, giving an Account of the Capture of the French Armed Lugger Le Favori, by the Boats of the Ship under his Command, highly creditable to the Steadiness and Bravery of Lieutenant Tracey, and the Officers and Men employed on that Service, and which I request you will please to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I am, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

Hydra, off Havre de Grace, August 1, 1803.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honor of informing you, I this Day succeeded in preventing the Entrance of a French Lugger into Havre, but being hauled close to the Beach, about Two Miles to the Westward of Tongues, I found it necessary to send the Boats, under the Command of Mr. Tracey, the Second Lieutenant, with Messrs. Barclay and French, Midshipmen, to endeavour to bring her off; on the near Approach of our Boats, the Crew precipitately quitted her, and ranged themselves (in Concert with a Party of Military) behind the Sand Bank a-breadth of their Vessel, not Half Musket-Shot from her, and kept up a heavy and constant Fire upon our People, which the Marines returned with great Steadiness and Soldierlike Conduct, and every Officer and Man doing his Duty, they succeeded in bearing off their Prize.

The Lugger is called Le Favori, pierced for Four Guns, but none mounted, supposed to have been thrown overboard, and appears to be a Government Transport, commanded by a Lieutenant de Vaisseau. I have to regret the Loss of Matthew Morfitt (Seaman), who was killed in the Barge.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

G. MUNDY.

To Sir James Saumarez, Bart. and K. B.
&c. &c. &c. Guernsey.

Admiralty-Office, August 20, 1803.

Copy of another Letter from Sir James Saumarez, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, to Sir Ewan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Diomedé, at Guernsey, August 17, 1803.

SIR,
I BEG you will please to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Cerberus made an Attack on the Enemy's Vessels in Concalle-Bay, under the Orders of Lieutenant Mansel, of that Ship, but the Coast being alarmed, they succeeded in only carrying off One large Fishing Vessel, leaving a Sloop which they had boarded, but which, unfortunately touched the Ground. The same Officer succeeded better with Two Boats of the Cerberus, in cutting out Seven Fishing Vessels, from Sixteen to Eighteen Tons each, out of St. Cas Bay, which arrived here Yesterday, except one of the Boats, which unfortunately overset, with the Loss of Two Men belonging to the Cerberus.

I am, &c. J. A. SAUMAREZ.
