From Tuesday August 23, to Saturday August 27, 1803.

St. James's, August 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, feel ourselves not less called upon by Duty than by Attachment to express to your Majesty the Abhorrence and Indignation with which we view the Designs avowed against this Country by our ambitious and insatiable Enemy.

Of the Dangers of the present Moment we are fully aware; but we are likewise aware of the Means of Resistance which the Blessing of Divine Providence has placed within our Power: We confide in the Wisdom and Magnanimity of your Majesty that these will be to the utmost employed; and that we shall not desist from this great Contest until it is brought to a successful and glorious Issue.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty, that there is no Sacrifice which we will not submit to, no Burthen which we will not bear, no Danger which we will not encounter with Cheerfulness, in Defence of the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of this Kingdom, and of your Majesty's Person and Government.

By Desire of a Meeting of the County of Montgomery,
Da. Mytton, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Heiiters, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Heiiters, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk, humbly request that your Majesty will, at this important Crisis, be pleased to accept of the unanimous Expression of our Loyalty and Zeal for your Service.

As we ascribe, under God, the Blessings and Security which we enjoy to your Majesty's paternal Government, so, with God's Assistance, we are ready to devote our Lives and our Fortunes to its Support. We make this Pledge with the greater Confidence, because we know that we express not only our own Feelings but those of a respectable and high-spirited Yeomanry, of a hardy and virtuous Peasantry, and, as we hope and believe, of every Individual within the County of Selkirk, who is capable of distinguishing betwixt Good and Evil.

Should the inveterate and determined Foe of the British Name attempt to carry into Execution the Threats of Invasion, which his Presumption has dictated, we trust the Inhabitants of this County have neither so far degenerated from the Valour of their Ancestors as to hesitate in choosing betwixt Death and Thralldom, nor so far forgotten their Father's Religion, as to doubt that the Blessing of God will be with the righteous Cause of our King and our native Land.

Signed in Presence of the Meeting, at Selkirk, this Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. Napier, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with the renewed Assurance of our unfeigned Regard and Fidelity to your Person, and firm Attachment to the Laws and Religion of that happy and established Constitution, by which true Liberty, personal Property, and every Blessing consistent with the Order and Well-being of civil Society, is so amply secured to us. We pledge ourselves to every Exertion, and even the Sacrifice of our Lives and Fortunes, for defeating the avowed Intentions of an implacable Enemy, who, actuated by Envy and boundless Ambition, now threatens not only the Invasion of our Coast, but to subvert our Constitution, and fix the Gallic Yoke on Britain's Neck.

Long may your Majesty, confident in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, defy the Advance of such a Foe; and for Ages to come may England's Sons transmit to their Posterity what they have inherited from their Predecessors, the Freedom and Happiness of a British Constitution.

Brooke and Warwick, Chairman.

Warwick, August 19, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, sensible that we should be unworthy the Happiness which, as British Subjects, we enjoy did we not feel anxious on every proper Occasion to lay at the Foot of the Throne the most ample Assurances of our sincere and respectful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Your Majesty, therefore, will not be surprized that this Disposition should operate with more than usual Force on our Minds at a Period when we see surrounding Nations languishing under the despotic Tyranny of an ambitious and unprincipled Usurper, who, not content with having plundered and enslaved great Part of Europe, is eager to satiate his Vengeance with the Blood and Treasure of this free and fortunate Country.

We cannot but observe with singular Satisfaction your Majesty's Subjects in every Part of this United Kingdom attached to your Majesty by every Motive that can actuate a prosperous, enlightened, and loyal Nation, preparing, by the most vigorous Exertions, to give to this desperate and profligate Invader such a Reception as we are confident will, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, successfully repel his threatened Attacks, overwhelm him with Destruction, render him an Object of Ridicule and Contempt; and should any of the Enemy's Force escape the vigilant Attention of your Majesty's Fleet, give him an additional Proof that British Valour is as invincible by Land as it is on the Sea.

Animated by these Sentiments, in common with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, we are ready to make every Sacrifice of Life and Fortune we may be called on to do in so glorious a Cause. The best Reward we can wish for in Return is a long Continuance of the unbounded Blessings we possess under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign.

Signed in pursuance of a Resolution made at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, held in pursuance of public Advertisement from the High-Sheriff, in the Council-Chamber at New Sarum, on Wednesday the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Henry Hele Phipps, Sheriff of the said County of Wilts.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Malmesbury, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Heritors and Justices of the Peace of the County of Roxburgh, in a General Meeting held at Jedburgh, on Monday the Fifteenth of August

One thousand eight hundred and three, in consequence of an Advertisement in the Newspapers from the Sheriff Depute, humbly approach your Majesty with those Sentiments of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of ardent Zeal for the Honour and Security of our Country, which never fail, in Moments like the present, to inspire the Breasts of a free and loyal People, and we entreat your Majesty to accept our heartfelt Acknowledgments for all the Blessings which your paternal Reign has uniformly dispensed to us and to ours.

We have seen with equal Concern and Indignation the unjust Attack, which, in Hatred of us, our inveterate Enemy has made on your Majesty's Continental Dominions, and we are deeply affected by that generous Devotion to the Interests of your People, with which we now behold your Majesty and some august Members of your Family, stand foremost in making the first great and signal Sacrifices to the public Good.

This exalted and endearing Example, while it yields new Motives of loyal and grateful Affection for our beloved Monarch and his illustrious House, will, we are assured, be reflected in the Energy and Constancy of your faithful Subjects, when they are called upon in their Turn, to act or to suffer in the same Cause.

We revere and cherish as our best and dearest Patrimony, that venerable and happy Constitution which has so long distinguished us amongst the Nations of the World, and which our Ancestors have deposited in our Hands as a sacred Trust for our Posterity.

Our Hearts are firmly devoted to the Land in which our Fathers and ourselves were born, and we now solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty and to each other, that we will maintain, with our latest Breath, and the last Drops of our Blood, its Independence, its Laws, its Religion, and Renown.

Animated with these Sentiments, we deem it our first Duty to assure your Majesty, that we wait only the Approach of an Enemy to rally round your sacred Person, and to flock to your Royal Standard, securely relying on the Divine Protection of so just a Cause, and resolutely determined to stand or fall by our Sovereign, and to conquer or to die in the Defence of our native Land.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, sensible of the transcendent Blessings which we derive from the British Constitution, administered with that paternal Care and anxious Solitude for the public Welfare which so eminently characterize your Majesty's Reign, desire to convey to the Foot of the Throne the Assurance of our unshaken Fidelity and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Awakened to a more lively Sense of these Obligations, by the Contrast of our own Situation with that of the Nations which have been surpris'd or betrayed under the degrading Yoke of French Despotism, we approach your Majesty with the Assurances of our firm Determination to support your Majesty with our Fortunes and with our Lives in humbling the Pride, and repelling the Insults of an Enemy, rendered implacable by finding in the Spirit of this Country an insurmountable Barrier to the Schemes of his wild and insatiable Ambition.

Your Majesty has called upon us to arm; we obey the Call with Alacrity; and we trust that your Majesty will find in every Subject throughout this County a Soldier ready to defend to his last Breath the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, which we hold to be inseparable from our National Independence, and our individual Happiness.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

Signed on Behalf of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

Stafford H. Northcote, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Forke.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to approach your Throne in order to renew the Assurances of the Attachment we have ever entertained towards your Majesty's Person and Government. This we feel ourselves in a more particular Manner called upon to do at this awful Moment, when our inveterate Enemies, disengaged from every other Contest, are directing their concentered Powers towards the utter Subjugation of this Country, the only remaining Barrier to their Ambition.

We feel that, under such Circumstances, all Submission or Compromise would be as disgraceful; and that we must either resolve to become the Victims of their Designs, or by bold, well-concerted, and persevering Efforts, maintain our Dignity and Independence.

We feel too that these Efforts cannot be carried on without great Sacrifices made by every Class of Men in this Kingdom; and that in order to secure the great Object of its complete Defence weighty Expences must be incurred, and formidable Difficulties must be encountered, it therefore becomes our Duty, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, to come forward and declare to your Majesty, that no Consideration of personal Labour, of Loss in our Property, or of Peril to our Lives, will prevent us from cordially and vigorously, by every Means in our Power, supporting your Majesty in this momentous Struggle, on the Event of which we are fully sensible depend the Maintenance of your Throne, and the Continuation of those Blessings, which, through the Bounty of Providence, we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty, and your august Predecessors.

We have seen with the utmost Satisfaction that your Majesty has resorted to the Measure justified alike by the Example of past, and the Exigency of present, Times, of making a Call at once for the personal Aid of all your Subjects. To render this Call as effectual as possible, we shall direct our assiduous and earnest Endeavours; and we entertain not the smallest Doubt, that, in a very short Time, a Force will be by this Means placed at your Majesty's Disposal sufficient to bid Defiance to the Attempts, and to chastise the Insolence, of your Enemies.

Signed by virtue of a Resolution at and on the Behalf of the County Meeting called for addressing His Majesty on the present momentous Situation of this Kingdom,

John Phillips, Sheriff of Worcestershire.

[Presented by the Honorable John William Ward, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Carlow, beg Leave to express our Detestation of the late wicked and desperate Attempt of a Band of Rebels in the very Metropolis of this Kingdom, and to renew to your Majesty the Declaration of our unalterable Zeal and Attachment, and our firm Determination to support your Majesty, and the Constitution of this Country, against the Designs of foreign Foes and domestic Traitors. We trust that the Spirit of Loyalty, which, upon the late Occasion, has been displayed in every Part of this Kingdom, and more particularly by our gallant and loyal Yeomanry, (and the Spirit and Vigilance which must be roused by the full Conviction, afforded by the Perseverance of a daring Band of Conspirators, whom the mild and impartial Government of His Excellency Earl Hardwicke could not conciliate or soften,) will appal the disaffected, and convince our foreign Foe, that should he attempt to invade us he would only meet with Disappointment and Defeat.

J. Herring, Sheriff, County Carlow.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Heritors, and Clergy of the County of Elgin, in a General Meeting assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne upon the present important Crisis, with the zealous Expression of our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and heartfelt Gratitude for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Administration; and with the solemn Assurance of our Resolution to support and maintain, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberty and Independence of our Country.

Engaged in a just, a necessary, and unavoidable War against a cruel and implacable Enemy, for the Preservation of every Thing dear to us as Men and Britons, we are determined to make the utmost Exertions, and with Cheerfulness to submit to every Sacrifice necessary for averting the threatened Danger from these happy Kingdoms. Depending upon the Firmness and Energy of a free, a loyal, and an united People, and humbly relying on the Favour and Protection of the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, founded upon a Consciousness of the Justice of our Cause.

Confiding in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Measures, and the unconquerable Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, we trust that your Majesty will be able speedily to confound the Designs of the Disturber of the Peace of Europe and the relentless Scourge of the human Race, the present Tyrant of France. And we hope and pray that your Majesty may thus soon have the Glory of restoring the Blessings of Peace, and long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Moray, Lieutenant.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of South Molton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of South Molton, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are duly sensible of your Claim to our grateful Acknowledgments for your Solitude for the Welfare of this Nation, so signally manifested during your late Negotiations with the Government of France. Hostilities having become unavoidable through the faithless and crooked Policy of the Enemy, it is our firm Resolution, as it is our Duty and our Interest, to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in using our best Endeavours to effectuate your Majesty's wise and gracious Purposes for the Security and Welfare of our Country. By the Blessing of Providence on the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, and on the wonted Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, we trust that this War will be brought to a prosperous Issue, and terminate in a safe, honorable, and lasting Peace.

Guildhall, South Molton,

August 9, 1803.

[Presented by the Lord Mayor of the said Borough]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Common-Councilmen, and Freemen of the antient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, in the County of Westmorland, at their Town-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on this awful and perilous Crisis, and to testify to your Majesty that we are one and all fully determined to support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in this arduous Conflict in which your Majesty is unprovokedly involved.

We sincerely lament that the Peace of your Majesty's Dominions should be broken by the vile Machinations, the restless and ambitious Spirit, of one of the most treacherous and blackest Tyrants that ever existed; and cannot but, with heartfelt Indignation, reflect on the Author of it, who seems to be the common Disturber of the Universe.

It is a lamentable Circumstance, and we are sincerely sorry for it, that Disturbances should again break out in a certain Part of your Majesty's Dominions; but we unfeignedly pray that a speedy Stop may be put to them, and that the Instigators thereof may be caught in the Snares they have laid for others, and brought to condign Punishment, as we are duly sensible that Unanimity, aided by the patriotic Zeal of your Majesty's Subjects, is all that is wanting to frustrate the Schemes of a haughty and vindictive Enemy.

We therefore, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to conclude, by assuring your Majesty, that we will at all Times, when called upon, readily stand forth in Support of your Majesty's eminently just and mild Government, and of our glorious, envied, and unparalleled Constitution, most cordially and humbly offering your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's great parental Care over us, and all your Majesty's Subjects; praying to the Almighty to spare your Majesty long to reign over us, and that the Remainder of your Majesty's Reign may be crowned with Peace and Happiness to yourself, and your Majesty's most illustrious Family.

Given under the Common-Seal of this Corporation, the Fifth Day of August, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

C. Kilneez, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To our Most Gracious SOVEREIGN.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, filled with Indignation at the insolent Menaces of the French Usurper against this Kingdom, and awfully affected with the present momentous State of Things, deem it our bounden Duty to approach your Majesty with the full Assurance of our unanimous Resolution to stand or fall with our King and Country.

Convinced of the Justice of our Cause, we cannot observe with Indifference the Honor of the British Name insulted, the most valuable Blessings of civil and religious Liberty undermined, and all Security for Life or Property threatened with total Annihilation, by an unprincipled and profligate Invader.

To prevent these impending Calamities, and to preserve the dearest Rights of Englishmen, we are happy to see a bold and enlightened Nation united in one Sentiment of patriotic Love. And we should think ourselves unworthy of the glorious Constitution under which we live, unworthy of the Name of Britons, were we not animated with the same Warmth of Affection towards the best of Kings, and inviolable Attachment to our happy Country, did we not likewise consider the public Safety as the chief Concern of every Individual, and resolve to make every Exertion with Earnestness, and to bear every Sacrifice with Cheerfulness, which our much-beloved Sovereign may find it necessary to impose upon us, for which this awful Crisis may demand. Trusting, therefore, in the Blessing of Almighty God upon our Arms, we here resolve, with a firm Union of Hands and Hearts, zealously to espouse our Country's Cause, to put forth our best Services in its Defence, and rather to perish together than to lose the Inheritance of Greatness, Honor, and Liberty which descended to us from our Forefathers, is held sacred to the present Moment in every British Heart, and which we are determined to transmit unshaken to Posterity.

John Charfey, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Sir John Dashwood King, Bart. and Sir Francis Baring, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Montgomery, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this important Crisis with Sentiments of unshaken Loyalty and Attachment, at a Moment when the Existence of the British Empire, its matchless Constitution, and its amiable Sovereign are all menaced by a vain-glorious and unprincipled Usurper; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are already united and diligently preparing to combat for Objects dear to Britons; sensible that we shall fight for a Constitution which is the noblest Monument of civilized Society; for a Monarch endeared to us by his Virtues, and uniform Regard for the Welfare of his People, and for the only Country in which genuine practical Liberty is to be found; confiding too in the indisputable Justice of our Cause, in the Temperance and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and in the invincible Valour of our Countrymen, we humbly trust that, under Almighty God, we shall inflict the most signal Chastisement on that boasting Tyrant, should he dare to contaminate our happy Shores, and convince him once more, that the ancient British Fire still glows in our Breasts with unabated Ardour.

Given under our Common Seal, this Eighteenth Day of August, and in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and other Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, assembled on Saturday the Twentieth Day of August, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Guildhall there.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and other Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to express our cordial and unanimous Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Determination to resist, to the utmost of our Power, every Attempt to subvert the Independence, to abridge the Liberties, or to tarnish the Honor of this Country. In thus avowing our unshaken Principles we are persuaded that we do but join in the general Voice of the Inhabitants of this favoured Land. We are aware that it must be the Wish of every one who is duly sensible of the Blessings afforded by the British Constitution, and who recollects the Price at which they have been estimated at by our Ancestors, to rally at the present Crisis around your Majesty's Throne; a Throne originally founded on the Rights of the People, supported by Clemency and Justice, adorned by truly Royal Virtues, and hitherto guarded (may it be for ever guarded) by the Hand of Divine Providence. We feel assured that a long and uninterrupted Enjoyment of our civil and religious Liberties has not led any of us to set a lower Value upon them than those of our Forefathers did, who bought them for us with their own Lives; nor can we be insensible to whatever may endanger, or even threaten, those inestimable Privileges; but, confiding in the Justice of our Country's Cause, in the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, in the Courage, Loyalty, and Patriotism of Freemen, engaged in the Defence of all that is most dear to them, and, above all, in the God of our Fathers, who has raised us to the Rank we hold among the Nations of the Earth, we hear without Dismay the Threats and Boastings of an insolent and ambitious Enemy. It is to the Hands of Britons only, already free and happy, that Arms may be indiscriminately and safely confided. And we trust that, should an Opportunity be presented for the Use of them, they will be so employed as to cause any Enemy whatever to repent of his having set an hostile Foot upon the British Shore; and compel him to accept of such a Peace as may secure the Tranquillity of Europe, the Independence, Glory, and Prosperity of this United Kingdom.

By the Desire, and on the Behalf of the Meeting,
Lionel Self, jun. Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir Martin Browne Folkes, Bart. and the Honorable Horatio Walpole, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, feel ourselves bound, as much by Inclination as by Duty, to unite our own with the general Voice of the Country, and to assure your Majesty that we are deeply Partakers of the one common Sentiment that at this Time animates every British Heart, an ardent Attachment to your Royal Person, and to the happy Constitution under which we live.

We love our gracious Sovereign because we have been happy under his Government, the Majority of us have been brought up from our earliest Years under the Auspices of his mild and prosperous Reign; and it is with the most heartfelt Satisfaction that we hail our beloved King as by Office, by paternal Affection, and by Length of Years, the Father of his People.

We are attached to our Constitution because we have experienced all the private and public Blessings which a well-ordered Government is able to cherish or bestow, and our Attachment to it is unalterably confirmed by the Opportunity that we have of contrasting its mild Restraints with the galling Chain of Military Despotism.

With these Sentiments firmly rooted in our Bosoms, the Menaces of an insulting Foe serve only to enhance, in our Estimation, the Value of our long enjoyed Privileges, and to nerve our Arms with a double Vigour in their Defence.

We are prepared to make any required Sacrifice for the Preservation of all that we hold most dear; we are desirous to forward by our most hearty Co-operation, the extensive, and we trust, effective Measures of Defence adopted by the Legislature; and we pledge ourselves to concentrate every Energy that we possess for the Protection of your Majesty and your Royal House, for the Safeguard of our Religion, our Laws, and Liberties, firmly confident, that by the Blessing of Providence upon your Majesty's Arms, we shall now, as heretofore, rise superior to our most powerful Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the Twentieth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Transmitted by Sir Martin Brown Folkes, Bart. and the Honorable Horatio Walpole, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

WE, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, attached to your Majesty by every Tie which can influence our Hearts from Forty-three Years Experience of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, of your Love to that Constitution which has been entrusted to your Care, and of your public and private Virtues, presume to approach your Throne at a Crisis unparalleled in the Annals of our Country. Though Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, and anxious, where it is possible, to avert the Evils of War, yet we feel ourselves called upon, at a Moment like the present, to contribute our Endeavours towards the common Resistance of an Enemy whose Attempts are directed not only against our Constitution, our Liberties, and all that is dear to us as Englishmen, but against Religion itself. Impressed with the warmest Sense of this most important Duty, we offer to your Majesty those Services which we can perform, together with our Fortunes, to be disposed of in any Way that your Majesty may think most conducive to the Good of our Country.

Wherever the Contest may be, whether on the Ocean or the Shores of this Island, our earnest Prayers will be, that the Lord of Hosts may go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, protect them in the Hour of Battle, and crown them with Victory.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Durham, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of profound Respect and unalterable Loyalty.

As Ministers of the Gospel, we are Ministers of peace, it is our Duty to inculcate and to promote Peace; but surely, Sir, it is not less our Duty to oppose every possible Resistance to the avowed Purposes of that Man who is the common Enemy of Peace.

Under this Impression we are impatient to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to sacrifice all that we hold most dear, to the Defence of our Religion, to the Maintenance of our Laws, and the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person.

Use us, Sir, as we can be made most useful, and in this awful Crisis, let not our ordinary Habitudes deprive us of that Share which belongs to us in the Support of every Thing that is sacred and of Value in social Life.
