Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Courtney Boyle, Captain of His Majesty's Ship the Seahorse, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated off the Burlings, the 25th of July 1803.

SIR,

BEG you will acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Sloop Wasp, on the 19th, by Signal, chased, and was fortunate in the Capture of a French Privateer, whose Intention it was to keep on the Skirts of the Convoy. I have enclosed Captain Aylmer's Letter to me, which I beg you to deliver to their Lordships.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. BOYLE.

SIR, His Majesty's Sloop Wasp, July 19, 1803.

BEG Leave to acquaint you, that in the Execution of your Orders, per Signal, to look out S. W. I discovered and captured, after a Chase of Two Hours, Le Desespoir French Privateer, a Lugger mounting Two Guns, pierced for Ten, commanded by Jean Delaballe, and manned with Twenty-eight Men; belonging to Hodiernne, which she had left only Three Days before, and I have the Satisfaction to add, had made no Captures.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. AYLMER.

Honorable Captain Boyle, His Majesty's Ship Seahorse.

St. James's, August 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Freeholders of the City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, with those Sentiments of Attachment and Fidelity which we have at all Times felt, and in the present Crisis peculiarly feel, for the best of Sovereigns.

We have witnessed with a Concern, only equalled by our Indignation, a recent Attempt to revive the Horrors of Rebellion. We lament the Infatuation of those incorrigible Traitors, whom neither an Experience of the Valour that subdued, nor of the Lenity that spared them, has hitherto taught the Folly and Atrocity of their Projects, who, insensible to the Blessings of your Majesty's paternal Rule, are ready to exchange the mild Restraints of our excellent and unrivalled Constitution, for the oppressive Weight of a Foreign Yoke; and who, to gratify the malignant Feelings of an unnatural Revenge, would overwhelm their Fellow-Citizens in the Ruins of their common Country.

Such Hopes, and such Attempts, must excite our Abhorrence, but shall never inspire us with dismay. We confide in the Justice of our Cause, in the Energies of Freemen, in the Activity of our Yeomanry, in the Bravery of your Majesty's Troops, which, under the Protection of that over-ruling Providence which has so often and so signally interposed in our Behalf, will always powerfully co-operate with the Efforts of your Majesty's Government in Defence of every Thing we hold dear.

We intreat your Majesty to accept on this Occasion our unqualified Assurances of the most implicit Attachment and Devotion to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; we solemnly vow collectively and individually, to guard the constitutional Blessings we enjoy beneath that Government, with a Zeal and Vigilance proportioned to their inestimable Value, and to support and defend them against the open Assaults and secret Machinations both of Foreign and Domestic Foes.

Signed for, and on Behalf of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Freeholders of the City of Dublin.

Henry Jones and Geo. Welch, Sheriffs.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Dublin, feel it to be one of our dearest Privileges, as well as our most sacred Duties in the Hour of Danger, to approach your Majesty's Throne with the emphatic Assurance of our unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person, and of our most ardent and entire Devotion to the Constitution delivered to us by our Fathers, what they established with their Blood, with our Blood we will defend.

We have learned with the deepest Regret, the most disgraceful and sanguinary Acts of the 23d of last Month, a Day that will for ever remain a Disgrace in the Page of Irish History; but we pledge ourselves to your Majesty, never to rest satisfied at the Destruction of an insolent and unprincipled Invader, without exerting ourselves to defeat the Designs of all domestic Assassins.

We have heard with contempt, and without Dismay, the ferocious and unprincipled Threats of an insolent Enemy. We are now ready to meet him, and, with a firm Trust in God, and our own Exertions, we set all his implacable Malignity at Defiance, and we declare ourselves ready to conquer, or to perish with our Country.

Such, Sire, at this most eventful Moment, is our most deliberate and inflexible Resolve; we are made still more confident in your Majesty's Support from your most gracious Speech at the Close of your Parliament.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and happy People, is the sincere Wish and Prayer of this great and Loyal County.

(Signed) Hans Hamilton, High Sheriff, County of Dublin.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg leave to address your Majesty at the present momentous Crisis. At this awful Period, when the vital Interests of our Country are at Stake, when the fair and flourishing Fabric of our happy and unrivalled Constitution is menaced with destruction, by an unprincipled and inveterate Foe, it is with just and becoming Pride, that we step forth to declare our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Truly sensible of the many and signal Blessings we and our Ancestors have enjoyed under the mild Sway of our just and equal Laws, and grateful for that unexampled Degree of Wealth and Prosperity which their benign Influence has procured for this great commercial County, we thus declare to you, our revered Sovereign, and to the World, our firm and unalterable Determination to stand or fall in their Defence. Permit us, Sire, to return our most unfeigned Thanks for that unceasing Solitude which your Majesty has been pleased to evince for the Welfare of your People, and to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully unite Hand and Heart for the Support of those Means, which, in your Royal Wisdom you may think fit to recommend for the Defence and Security of this happy Nation. That the Almighty Director of Events may long preserve your Majesty, the beloved Sovereign of a grateful and prosperous People, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's faithful County Palatine of Lancaster.

J. Blackburne, Sheriff.

Preston, 19th August 1803.

[Transmitted by Colonel Stanley and J. Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Down, impressed with Sentiments of the deepest Concern, but far from being dismayed by the present Aspect of National Danger, deem it our bounden Duty to approach the Throne in Testimony of our unshaken Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government. It is a Moment when the Voice of every faithful Subject should be heard aloud, not merely lamenting that Rebellion has shewn its hideous Face in this Land, but execrating, in the strongest Terms, the savage and cruel Acts of Murder perpetrated in the Metropolis of this Kingdom by an abandoned and desperate Set of Traitors; Men, who, forgetting what they owe to their God, to their King, and to their Country, renouncing every Principle commendable in human Nature, could become vile Instruments in the Hands of a wicked Usurper; who, not content with enslaving his own and surrounding Nations, is jealous of the Power, Glory, and Prosperity of the British Empire, thus wishing to excite internal Commotion, to facilitate the destructive Projects his Ambition meditates against the United Kingdoms. Gracious Sovereign, be assured, although some Individuals have been base indeed, your People are not degenerated, their Indignation is fully roused with the Audacity of the Design formed for the Conquest of the British Isles. We love our King, revere our Constitution, and know, too well, the Value of civil and rational Liberty to part with these Blessings but with our Lives: There is no Danger we will not face, there is no Effort we will not make, to protect our King, and defend our Country. In this Cause our Persons, and all we have, are at your Majesty's Command; whatever your Wisdom points out, it will be the Pride and Glory of your faithful Subjects, with Heart and Hand, to fulfil and execute.

Matthew Foule, High-Sheriff of the County of Down.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Magistrates, and Freeholders, of the Queen's County, think it incumbent on us, at a Time like the present, when unnatural Rebellion, accompanied by barbarous Assassination, has again made its Appearance, to renew our Declarations of steady and unalterable Attachment to our free and excellent Constitution, and of affectionate Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to expend the last Shilling of our Property, and the last Drop of our Blood, in opposing, and, by the Blessing of God, defeating the Foes of your Majesty, and of all good Government whether they be Foreign or Domestic.

At the Desire of the Meeting, Castle Coote.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Grand Jury, Magistrates, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Longford, assembled at the Summer Assizes, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere, firm, and unaltered Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and with unshaken Loyalty to declare our Sentiments on the alarming Situation of Public Affairs.

When Rebellion, instigated by an insidious and insatiate Enemy, has suddenly and unexpectedly burst forth, and commencing with barbarous and brutal Outrage, has dared to raise its Head in the very Seat of Government, we conceive it the bounden Duty of every good and faithful Subject, to express the Horror with which he looks back on the bloody Scenes, lately the Disgrace of our Capital.

Impressed with these Feelings, we assure your Majesty of our prompt and cheerful Co-operation to put down and suppress Rebellion, and to protect and guard our Country from Invasion; and we promise with our Persons and Property to support and strengthen your Majesty's Government.

With the highest Respect for your Majesty's Ministers in this Part of the United Kingdom, we trust the Ardour and Patriotism evinced by your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, will stimulate their Exertions for the Preservation and Security of this Part of the United Kingdom; and we earnestly Hope, from the Wisdom of their Counsels, the Adoption of such decisive and vigorous Measures as will frustrate the Schemes, and confound the Devices of our foreign and domestic Enemies.

John Harward, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]
