By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS under the present Circumstances, much Danger may arise to the public Tranquillity from Alien Enemies resorting to, and residing in Great Britain: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein; and for establishing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases," due Provision has been made for inflicting Penalties on all such Aliens as shall disobey any Proclamation issued by Us, directing that such Aliens shall depart the United Kingdom: Now We, being desirous of carrying into Execution the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and thereby providing for the general Safety of the Realm, do, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, order and direct, That all Aliens being Subjects of the French Republic, or of any Place belonging to, or under the Dominion of the Government of the French Republic, or of any Country or Territory at War with Us, who shall have arrived in Great Britain since the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, and on or before this Day the Thirty-first of August (other than such Aliens as are hereinafter excepted), shall depart Great Britain in Manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

All such Aliens residing within the City and Liberties of Westminster, or elsewhere within the Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bone, Paddington, Pancras, or Saint Luke at Chelsea, on or before the Fifteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And all such Aliens residing in other Parts of Great Britain (except as hereinafter excepted) shall depart Great Britain on or before the Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And We do further declare and make known, that every such Alien who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect to pay due Obedience to this Our Royal Proclamation, and shall be found in Great Britain contrary to such Proclamation, will be liable to be arrested and committed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he or she shall be so arrested, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until he or she shall be taken in Charge, for the Purpose of being sent out of Great Britain; and if any such Alien sent out of Great Britain in pursuance of this Our Proclamation shall, without Licence for that Purpose by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, return into any Part of the United Kingdom, such Alien being duly convicted thereof will be liable to be transported for Life according to the Provisions of the said Act.

And in order the better to enable such Aliens to comply with this Our Proclamation and the said Act, We have caused to be provided Ships and Vessels at Gravesend, for conveying such Aliens to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe: And all such Aliens as are desirous to avail themselves of this Accommodation are directed to repair to Gravesend on or before the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three: And all such Aliens repairing to Gravesend, and having obtained their Passports conformably to the said Act, by applying at the Alien Office in Crown Court, Westminster, shall be permitted to embark, and shall be conveyed on board the said Ship, to be furnished by Us, free of Expence, to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe.

And all such Aliens as shall desire availing themselves of this Accommodation for carrying them out of Great Britain, free of Expence, are hereby required nevertheless to repair to the Port of London, and to some other Port, and there to embark, having their Passports conformably to the said Act, to be obtained on Application to the Alien Office, as aforesaid, in order to depart on or before the said Fifteenth or Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three respectively, as the Case may require, under the Penalties hereinbefore mentioned.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any Part of Our Proclamation of the Twelfth of this instant August, requiring the Aliens therein mentioned to reside within the Limits therein described, except in Cases where any Aliens as aforesaid, shall be bonâ fide proceeding on their Journey to the Port of London and to Gravesend, in order to embark and depart thereat from Great Britain.

Provided always, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to any Foreign Ambassador, or other public Minister duly authorized, or the Servants actually attending upon such Ambassador or public Minister, or any domestic Servant of any of Our natural born Subjects, or of any Subject who has been made Denizen or naturalized, such Servant being actually and bonâ fide employed in the Service of their respective Masters; nor to any such Alien as shall, by virtue of a Licence under the Hand and Seal of One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, or of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed for that Purpose, be authorized to dwell and reside in some Part of Great Britain.

We do hereby charge and command that all Aliens to whom this relates, do pay due Obedience to the same, and that all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, and other Magistrates, and all Constables and other Peace Officers, do respectively use their utmost Diligence to enforce the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, September 12, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Plymouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 11th Instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Captain Burke, of His Majesty's Sloop Sea Gull, giving an Account of his having recaptured the Lord Nelson East Indiaman, after an Action which seems to have done him, his Officers, and Crew much Credit.

I am, &c.

JOHN COLPOYS.

His Majesty's Sloop Sea Gull, Plymouth-Sound, September 11, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, after I having seen the Convoy safe into Cork, on my Return I saw, at One P. M. on the 25th Instant, in Lat. 46 Deg. N. Long. 12 Deg. a large Sail, and, after a Chase of Five Hours, brought her to Action, which lasted until Daylight next Morning, when I found the Masts and Rigging so much cut up, having the larboard, fore, and main Rigging gone, lower and spring Stays, all the running Rigging and Sails, the fore Yard shot away in the Slings, with Two Shot between Wind and Water, that I was obliged to haul off to secure the Masts, and replace the Rigging, still keeping Sight of the Enemy, determined, when a little secured, to renew the Action, which having done, and on the Point of again attacking her, at half-past Eight A. M. the Squadron under Sir Edward Pellew hove in Sight, on the advanced Ship of which drawing up the struck, and proved to be the Lord Nelson East India Ship, captured Thirteen Days before by the Bellone Privateer, of Thirty-six Guns and Three Hundred and Twenty Men, by boarding.

It is with sincere Regret I have to add, that I have on the Occasion lost Two valuable Seamen killed, Seven Seamen and a Marine wounded; among the latter, I am sorry to say, is Lieutenant William Davis, (Senior Lieutenant,) to whose cool and steady Conduct I am much indebted, as well as that of Lieutenant Weatherstone and Mr. Ellis, the Master; indeed I cannot do sufficient Justice to the Merits of the Whole of the Officers and Ship's Company for their cool and determined Courage.

Enclosed is a List of the Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

HENRY BURKE.

St. James's, September 7, 1803.

THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ely, together with the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Ely, request Permission humbly to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Expressions of affectionate Zeal for your sacred Person and gracious Government at this awful Crisis, when they are each of them insulted and assailed by malevolent and daring Hostilities.

Impressed with the Urgency of that Danger, which threatens to eradicate every pious and virtuous Principle from the human Mind, to defeat each political Arrangement which tends to promote the Order and Happiness of Society, and which seems particularly directed to the Destruction of our invaluable Constitution both in Church and State, we feel ourselves called upon, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, to avow our Resolution to defend them from so atrociously wicked a Conspiracy, and to offer to our Sovereign and our Country that Tribute of Allegiance and Exertion which is best adapted to our Description and holy Function.

We had lately indulged a fond Hope, that, after the heavy Pressure of a wasteful and sanguinary War, we might have enjoyed the Blessing of your Majesty's Protection without Annoyance to your Person, or Disturbance to your Government. But since it has pleased the great Disposer of all Events that we should again experience the Evil of unprovoked Insult, and the daring Violation of Right and Truth from our insatiate Foes, we esteem it as well our Interest as our Duty to unite Heart and Hand to repel their Insults, and to secure our Privileges and Properties. May the Almighty grant his Blessing to such patriotic Efforts; and may He long continue us under your Majesty's parental Care.

James Ely.
