AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of September 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" It is, among other Things, enacted, That certain Acts therein mentioned, relating to the Exportation and Importation of Corn, and other Articles of Provision should be, and the same were thereby continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Acts, is hereby pleased to order, That, from the Thirtieth Day of this instant September, until the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, or Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, or Better, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in this His Majesty's Order shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, shall first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and shall give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in triple the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards :

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for and during the said Term beforementioned, to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Peas, Lentils, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse ; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine ; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise ; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever ; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Acts mentioned.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, September 28, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King ; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Westmeath, beg Leave to approach your Throne with renewed Assurances of the Fidelity and Attachment which we have always borne towards your Royal Person and our happy Constitution ; and more particularly at this Time, when an insatiate Enemy hath threatened an immediate Attack upon our Country with a View to general Plunder, and to reduce to slavery a free and independent Nation.

With united Hearts and Voices we humbly tender to your Majesty the zealous and constant Exertion of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of that admirable Constitution, those revered Laws, and that benignant System of Government which has given to us the Enjoyment of great, and the Promise of still greater national Prosperity.

By the wild and insatiable Ambition of the present Ruler of France, deaf to the Calls of Humanity, and neglectful of the Duty he owes to the People over whom he presides, your Majesty has been forced again to have Recourse to Arms, and Two Nations, disposed to live in Peace and Amity, are once more plunged into a State of Warfare from which they had been rescued by the Wisdom and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils.

We view with peculiar Indignation the baneful Designs of the Enemy on this Part of your Majesty's Dominions, his base and malignant Conspiracy with those Traitors who so recently experienced your Majesty's Clemency, who are now become the Instruments of a foreign Despot, and are again employed in Endeavours to seduce from their just and honorable Allegiance, those deluded Men whom they had formerly misled, and afterwards betrayed to the Punishment, from which, by the Royal Mercy, they were saved. To frustrate this and every other Design hostile to your Majesty and to the Welfare of our Country. We pledge ourselves, Sire, to shun no Fatigue, to shrink from no Danger, to repine at no Expence, and we firmly rely on the paternal Protection of your Majesty, on the Countenance, the Support, and Direction of your Government here, to give Effect to our humble but zealous Endeavours.

We call upon the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to shield and protect your Royal Person and Throne from foreign and domestic Foes, and so to direct your Councils and invigorate your Arms as to secure to your Majesty that Glory most dear to your Royal Breast—the Glory of terminating a just and unavoidable War by a safe, honourable, and permanent Peace.

Joseph Morgan Daly, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Donegal, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm and devoted Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our unalterable Resolution to guard and protect them both from the open or seditious Attacks of foreign or domestic Enemies.

When Rebellion has again dared to shew itself in this Island, and a vindictive and implacable Foe threatens us with Invasion and Desolation, it becomes the indispensable Duty of every loyal Subject to declare his Sentiments, and to assist in increasing and directing properly that patriotic Spirit which now animates the Breasts of so great a Majority of your Majesty's Subjects.

We are happy to declare that in this County every Rank and Description of Men, warmly concur in support of the public Tranquillity ; we trust therefore, that at this Crisis, when every Thing dear to us is at stake, the same Unanimity will continue to prevail, and that every Irishman will be emulous to manifest, by his Exertions, his Zeal in Defence of his King and Country, and in the Support of that enviable Constitution under which the Empire has so long flourished.

William Tosen, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, at a Meeting convened by the Sheriff, beg Leave to join at this important Crisis, in the universal Acclamations of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, resounding from one End of your Majesty's Dominions to the other.

Your Majesty's People are sensible of the Pre-eminence they enjoy over the Subjects of every other Nation, in living under a free Constitution and Government, and they feel the Blessings resulting therefrom.

They are sensible that they have a Monarch seated on the Throne of these Kingdoms whose Happiness consists in the Welfare of his People, and in guarding those Rights and Liberties which his Ancestors were called upon to renovate and defend.

No Terror, no Threats therefore, can appal the Minds of Britons, whose Hearts are stamped with such Impressions as never can be effaced, nor can the Delusion of our artful, cruel, and unrelenting Foe, seduce them from their Duty and Allegiance to their lawful Sovereign.

These are the genuine Sentiments of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects now assembled, who, influenced by the Sense of Duty and Respect, beg Leave to express their Determination to conquer or die in the Defence of their Laws, their Country, and their King.

Signed by Order of the Freeholders of Cardigan-shire, convened at a General Meeting.

J. Lloyd, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

S I R E,

AS Ministers of the Gospel we pray for the Peace of Christendom and of the World, as Subjects of your Majesty we call to mind, and, with the utmost Sincerity of Soul, we renew the Obligation of the Oath of Allegiance which we have heretofore individually taken, and, as becomes Men jealous of their Freedom, we on this Occasion, solemnly pledge ourselves to maintain, with our best Ability, the Independence of our Country.

Glorious and unexampled on the Surface of the Earth is your Majesty's Situation! Princes there are who reign over more extensive Regions; Princes there are, who, in Times of Peace, support their Thrones by more numerous Armies, and who exercise over their Subjects a more unlimited Sway. But where is the Prince in Europe, or in the World, who, in the Day of Danger, fees himself voluntarily protected as your Majesty is, by the united Efforts of all his People; by the Persons of those who are able to wield a Weapon, by the Prayers of the Aged, and of the Sex, by the Purse of the Rich, and by the Hearts of all!

We humbly implore Almighty God to bless these noble Exertions of a brave, a loyal, and an enlightened Nation, struggling for the Safety of their King and his Royal House, and determined to die in the just Defence of their Religion, their Liberty, and their Country.

H. Landaff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to join the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in thus expressing our sincere Fidelity and cordial Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and our resolute Determination to support and defend, by every Means in our Power, the Rights of your Majesty, ourselves, and Fellow-Subjects against the insulting Threats of an implacable Enemy.

We enjoy so many Blessings under the mild Government of your Majesty, that we cannot, without the utmost Indignation, hear of any Attempt to disturb the Repose and Peace of this Kingdom.

We, therefore, confiding in the Justice of our Cause, and humbly trusting in the Providence of Heaven, are resolved, in our several Capacities, to exert ourselves to the utmost for the Welfare and Independence of the whole British Empire, the Peace and Happiness of which we have been long assured it is your Majesty's constant Wish and Endeavour to promote.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Corporation this Twenty-third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order of the Meeting,

Tippet, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and Clergy of the Diocese of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Chester, beg Leave most humbly and affectionately to approach your Majesty's Throne with a renewed Pledge of our Duty and Loyalty, and a sincere Expression of our Sentiments, on the present critical State of public Affairs.

Deeply impressed by the inestimable Advantages we have enjoyed for so many Years, under the Government of a Sovereign as venerable for his private Virtues as for the Wisdom and Firmness with which he has administered the regal Office; and inflexibly attached to a Constitution, which secures to us the full Enjoyment of our civil Rights, and the Exercise of our Holy Religion, we view with the utmost Abhorrence the avowed Preparations of an Enemy, who would endeavour to wrest these Blessings from us.

sings from us, and subject us under the Iron Yoke of an intolerable Usurpation.

We partake of the patriotic Animation that now pervades the whole Country. It is not for us indeed, in Opposition to the studious and sequestered Habits of our Education and Profession, and to the declared Sentiments of the Legislature, to oppose the ambitious Invaders of our Country in the Ranks of an Army, but we will endeavour to serve the great Cause, in which every patriot Heart must be engaged, with an Efficacy perhaps not inferior. We have peculiar and appropriate Duties to perform, on a due Attention to which the Existence of the State must principally depend, and without which the Resources of Wealth, however incalculable, and the Exertions of Number and Spirit beyond all Example, would prove of little Avail.

On the Discharge of these important Duties we pledge ourselves to your Majesty to employ our best Faculties zealously and unremittingly. We will excite those committed to our spiritual Care to the most vigorous Exertions, by shewing the inestimable Value of the pure reformed Protestant Religion, as it is happily established in these Kingdoms. We will inculcate that admirable Code of Morals, which, while it characterizes the Christian Dispensation, is best calculated to afford Stability to the State. We will teach Prayer and Dependence on Almighty God, who is the God of Battles, and with whom alone are the Issues of War.

Devoting ourselves wholly to these Occupations, we trust we shall be found most actively and efficaciously discharging our peculiar Duties, as they respect the Service of God, and the Prosperity of our Country.

Such, Sir, are the zealous Professions, and such shall be found to be the faithful Conduct of this Portion of the Clergy of your Majesty's Dominions on the Occasion of the present Threat of Invasion of these Kingdoms. Should the ambitious and unprincipled Foe presume to pollute these Shores, we look with Satisfaction to the Righteousness of our Cause, and to the impenetrable Phalanx of a whole Nation of Patriots: We call to Mind the sacred and inflexible Courage which animated the Breasts of the holy Army of Martyrs, who shed their Blood in Attestation of the pure and reformed Faith; but, above all, we feel Confidence from a grateful Recollection of the past signal Mercies of Almighty God vouchsafed to this Nation at Seasons of Distress; and we will never cease to implore the King of Kings to shield your Majesty from all Danger, and to continue the Existence and Prosperity of a State in which the Happiness and dearest Interests of its chief Governor are inseparably bound up.

H. Chefter.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, deeply impressed with the present alarming Situation of our Country, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We feel grateful to Divine Providence for having prolonged your Majesty's valuable Life, which has been uniformly employed in promoting the Happiness of your People.

We sincerely regret that the late Peace, which your Majesty so seasonably concluded, has been of such short Duration, and that your Majesty has been again involved in War, in Defence of your Crown, and of the dearest Rights of your People.

The Rulers of France, jealous of the Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects, have threatened to invade our Country, and to destroy our Liberty, our Property, and all the happy Fruits of our excellent Constitution—a Constitution framed by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, and which has been preserved sacred and inviolable by your Majesty.

But we trust that there is Spirit in your Subjects, with the Help of God, to defeat all their hostile Attempts. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as Ministers of the Gospel, it has been our constant Endeavour, and we trust, not without Success, to inculcate upon our People a sacred Regard to Religion and Morals, and a Spirit of Loyalty and Patriotism so necessary to the well-being of our Country. Your Majesty's Subjects under our Care, have vied with each other in Affection to your Majesty and in Fidelity to your Government, and have stepped forwards with Zeal in Defence of both. Great Exertions have been necessary, but they have been made with Cheerfulness, and we hope in God will be accompanied with the wished-for Success.

That it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty so endeared to your People by your auspicious Government, and by your personal Virtues; to shower down upon your Royal House the richest of his Gifts, and, after a successful War, to restore the inestimable Blessing of Peace, are the fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment.

And Duncan, Moderator.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Montagu to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Utrecht, Downs, 28th September 1803.

SIR,

ENCLOSED I have the Honor to transmit a Duplicate of Intelligence received from Captain Jackson, of the Autumn, the Original being transmitted to the Commander in Chief.

I am, &c. R. MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Sloop Autumn, off Calais, 28th September 1803.

THE Wind springing up Yesterday Morning from the Eastward, I thought it a proper Opportunity to attack the Enemy's Vessels in Calais, in order that they should not get them up the Harbour out of the Reach of our Fire; I waited till it was half Ebb in the Harbour, at which Time they take the Ground; we then bore up, and, after trying and finding out the Distance, we anchored—the Bombs to the N. E. of the Town, the other Part of the Squadron a-breast of the Town and Pier Heads, to draw the Enemy's Fire as much as we could from the Bombs, so as not to prevent their acting. After we anchored a-breast of the Town and Pier Head Battery, the Enemy opened their Fire on us from all Directions, amongst which, I found they had Mortars, the first Shell fell within a Ship's Length of us and burst under Water, our Vessels at that Time were so close, that I thought there was a great Probability some of their Shells might fall on board, whilst I found our Shot (though they all reached the Pier Heads,) would not go so far up as their Ships, I therefore made the Signal to weigh and open to a greater Distance, remaining at Anchor myself. The Squadron has been very fortunate in receiving no Damage from the Enemy's Fire. The Bombs were now keeping up a well-directed Fire, many of the Shells evidently falling in the midst of their Gun Boats; the Shells that fell over the Boats went into the Town, and must have done great Damage; the East End of the Town appeared to be on fire for some Time. From the Enemy's Boats and Vessels being covered under the Land, it was impossible to judge what Damage they sustained, but it must have been considerable; it now came on to blow so fresh from the N. E. that the Springs would not hold the Ship against the Wind and Tide; the Tartarus' Anchor having given way, I was obliged to make the Signal to discontinue their Fire.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

S. JACKSON.

Rear-Admiral Montagu, Downs.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 30th September 1803.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Honyman, of His Majesty's Ship the Leda, to Rear-Admiral Montagu, reporting the Attempts which he had made, with His Majesty's Ships and Vessels under his Orders, to obstruct the Progress of the Enemy's Gun-Boats from the Eastward towards the Port of Boulogne; and have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Ship Leda, off Boulogne, September 29, 1803.

SIR,

IN Answer to your's of this Date, I have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Enemy's Gun-Vessels, being Twenty-six in Number, were Yesterday discovered coming out of Calais soon after I had dispatched Lieutenant Cameron to you; I immediately gave Chase with the Squadron under my Command, but although every Exertion was used on our Part they anchored close in with the Pier at Boulogne, after a severe Cannonade of Three Hours, which was returned from them as well as their numerous Batteries on Shore: It was my Intention to have bombarded them in that Situation, and had made the Signal for that Purpose, but the Wind blowing strong off Shore, and a Lee Tide, prevented the Bombs from taking their Stations accordingly. At Daylight this Morning another Squadron of the Enemy's Gun-Boats (Twenty-five in Number) were discovered coming from the Eastward; immediately proceeded to attack them, and, after a severe Cannonade for nearly Three Hours, they anchored in the Situation with the Vessels last Night, with the Loss of Two of them, they having been driven on Shore, and bilged upon the Rocks. There are at present Fifty-five Gun-Vessels at an Anchor outside the Pier of Boulogne. I am happy to add that I have not received Reports of any material Injury being done to any of the Squadron under my Command:—a Shell fell on board the Leda, which burst in her Hold, doing little Injury to the Ship, and without hurting a Man.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ROB. HONYMAN.

Rear-Admiral Montagu, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Ewan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Victory, off Toulon, August 10 1803.

SIR,

I Herewith transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter from Captain Donnelly, of His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, giving an Account of the Capture of the French National Brig of War L'Alcion.

She appears to be a remarkably fine Vessel, fit for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, at Sea,

MY LORD, 9th July 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, the Ship I command being off the Island of St. Peter's, near Sardinia, Yesterday Morning, at Daylight, a Sail was discovered in the South-West Quarter, to which we gave Chase, and, at Two o'Clock this Morning, captured her, after a Pursuit of Twenty-two Hours; upon boarding we found her to be the French National Brig of War L'Alcion, of Sixteen Guns and Ninety-six Men, commanded by Captain Lacree, returning from Alexandria, where she had been on a particular Mission. She appears to be one of the finest Vessels of her Class I have seen; is built upon a new Construction, sails prodigiously fast, is well equipped, and only One Year old.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROSS DONNELLY.

Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson,
&c. &c. &c.

Whitehall, September 6, 1803.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Meyrick Holme, of Winstanley, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Esquire, his Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may assume, take, and use the Surname of Bankes only, instead of the Surname of Holme, and bear the Arms of the Family of Bankes, of Winstanley, out of grateful Respect for the Memory of his Relation William Bankes, late of Winstanley aforesaid, Esquire, deceased; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this, His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.
