Extract of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean Bart. dated at Antigua the 6th of August 1803.

LIEUTENANT CARR, of His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, has stated to me, off Dominica, he chased Two Row-Boat Privateers, belonging to Guadaloupe, until she was becalmed, one of which the Government Sloop of the Island captured; the other was followed by L'Eclair's Jolly-Boat, with only Six Persons on board, including the Master and a young Midshipman, who attacked her in a very gallant Manner, notwithstanding she had Sixteen stout Men, well armed, and carried her in a few Minutes, after killing her Commander and One Man, and wounding Three, without any Loss on the Part of the Jolly-Boat.
