Stephen Lee, Secretary.

Bank of England, October 6, 1803.

Notice is hereby given to the Proprietors of Bank Stock, That at a General Court of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, held at their Public Office, in Threadneedle-Street, on Thursday the 22d September last, the Governor informed the Court, that by the 127th Section of the Property Act, the Bank is bound to pay in the first Instance, the Tax upon the Whole of its Gains and Profits; and that the Bank is authorized to deduct from every Dividend Warrant, the proportionate Amount of the said Tax.

Whereupon the General Court, on the Recommendation of the Court of Directors,

Resolved,

That the said Tax should be remitted on the present Occasion, and not deducted from the said Dividend Warrants.

And that the Duty imposed on the Corporation of the Bank of England being thus paid, exempts the Dividend on Bank Stock for the Half Year ending the 10th October instant, from the said Duty.

By Order of the Court of Directors,

Robert Best, Secretary.
