Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 11, to Thursday October 13, 1803.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Third Day of November next: We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Third Day of November next to Tuesday the Twenty-second Day of November next: And We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Twenty-second Day of November next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers urgent and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Twenty second Day of November next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twelfth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, October 12, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Kilmarnock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Kilmarnock, again entreat to approach your Majesty at this momentous Crisis, with reiterated Assurances of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Convinced that your Majesty did every Thing which was proper to avert a Renewal of the War, we shall cheerfully submit to those Privations which may be requisite for carrying it on with Vigour and Effect. And attributing the Cause and Consequences of the War to that wild and unbounded Ambition which actuates our unprincipled Foe, and to his Hatred to a Nation which has been his only Check; we shall contemplate with cool but indignant Feelings his Threats of Invasion, and be ready to assist, with all the Energies in our Power in chastising his Aggression.

That the Blessing of the Almighty may continue to attend our Sovereign's Councils and Arms, and he and his People be brought out of the present Contest with Honor and Glory, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of Council, by William Gregory, J. Greenshields.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and illustrious Family. Satisfied with the Wisdom of our Ancestors, who framed that unparalleled Constitution under which we enjoy every Blessing, and being determined to hand down the same unimpaired to our Posterity so far as in us lie, we have unanimously resolved to lay aside all Diftinctions, and at this Time of great Emergency unite in one Body to defend your Majesty's Crown, our revered Constitution, and those Rights and Relations which have ever been held dear by all Nations. Though fully aware of the Magnitude of the Contest, yet, undaunted by the Menaces of our ambitious and perfidious Foe, we shrink not from it, being unanimously determined to conquer and live in our free Land, or die gloriously in opposing the oppressive Yoke of foreign Slavery.

Thomas King, High-Sheriff, for Self and County.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Clarke.]

THIS is to give Notice, that Application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to unite and to incorporate with the Glamorganshire Canal Navigation, a certain Tram Road or Rail Road, commencing at a Place called Castle Morlais, in the Parish of Merthyr Tydvill, in the County of Glamorgan, and terminating at a Place called Craig Evan Leyfen, adjoining the said Canal, in the Parish of Llanvaben, in the said County; and for constituting the Proprietors of the said Canal, and the Proprietors of the said Tram Road or Rail Road into one united Company, and to enable such united Company to impose, receive, and recover certain Tolls or Rates for using, passing, and repassing upon the said Tram Road or Rail Road, and which said Tram Road or Rail Road, passes through certain Parts of the said Parishes of Merthyr Tydvill and Llanvaben, in the said County of Glamorgan; and also to alter and amend an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan;" and an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, and for extending the said Canal to a Place called Lower Layer, below the said Town."

Th. Williams, Clerk to the said Glamorganshire Canal.

October 4, 1803.

Navy-Office, October 1, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday the 27th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be, willing to contract for supplying

Frocks and Trowsers,
