Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Gambier, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Newfoundland, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Isis, at St. John's, the 20th August 1803.

SIR,

I SEND herewith an Extract of a Letter from Captain Malbon, of His Majesty's Ship Aurora, giving an Account of his having taken Possession of the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, which you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. GAMBIER.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Malbon, commanding His Majesty's Ship Aurora, to Vice-Admiral Gambier, Commander in Chief at Newfoundland, &c.

ON the 30th June, about Four o'Clock in the Morning, I made the Island of Peters; and at Five sent the large Cutter and Launch, manned and armed with a Twelve-Pound Carronade, under the Command of Lieutenant Richard Longfield Davies, and Lieutenant Baillie, of the Marines, to oblige the Town to surrender, or begin the Attack; between Six and Seven o'Clock they entered the Harbour, under a very thick Fog, and perceiving a Boat crossing from one Side to the other, brought her to, in which they found the Commissary, who acted as Governor. The Confusion that the Place was thrown into from the sudden Attack prevented the Inhabitants from assembling together, and at half-past Seven the Commissary surrendered the Island, by delivering the Colours to Lieutenant Davies. From what has been since learned there is no Doubt, that, if the Inhabitants could have had Time to have collected themselves from their different Situations, they would have made a strong Resistance, having since discovered upwards of One Hundred Stand of Arms among them. Knowing the small Force in the Boats, I used my utmost Efforts to get His Majesty's Ship into the Harbour, but was as frequently prevented by thick Fogs. About Eleven, it being somewhat clear, I entered under a very heavy Press of Sail between the Rocks, which were not at a Cable's Length across, and at Two P. M. brought to with the best Bower in Fifteen Fathom Water. Found here a French Merchant Brig (Le Reines des Anges) and a Schooner (Le Provoyier), with Eleven small Schooners, and upwards of One Hundred Battoes. The Island contained Fish, Stores, Salt, and Merchandize of various Descriptions, and, upon a rough Survey, about Two Hundred and Twenty Men were upon the Island and in the Boats; but they being so detached several got away in the small Craft, One of which, I have since been informed, was taken off Liverpool in Nova Scotia, and another at St. Lawrence, in Newfoundland.

On every Thing being secured, I ordered One of the Fishing Schooners to be fitted as a Tender, and having her manned and armed with a Twelve-Pound Carronade, gave the Command to Lieutenant Davies, with Directions to scour the Coast, and take Possession of the Islands of Great and Little Miquelon, which he did, but no Inhabitants or Stores were found at either of those Places.

J. GAMBIER.

Admiralty-Office, October 20, 1803.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships at Plymouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Salvador del Mundo, Hamaze, 18th October 1803.

I ACQUAINT you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that L'Aventure, French Privateer of Twenty Guns, and One Hundred and Fifty Men, captured by the Acasta, is just arrived. The Prize-Master reports that the Acasta had also retaken the Ship Royal Edward of London, and the Saint Mary's Planter of Liverpool, both from Jamaica, whose late Commanders are arrived in L'Aventure.

Admiralty-Office, October 20, 1803.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Wolfe, of His Majesty's Ship L'Aigle, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Downs, October 18, 1803.

I HAVE to beg you will acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, on the 27th Ult. being off Vigo, I captured, after several Hours Chase, L'Alerte French Brig Privateer, of Fourteen Guns, French Six and Four Pounds, and Eighty-four Men, commanded by Bernard Benjamin Bezar, on her Return from a Cruise, having been Sixty-five Days from Bourdeaux. Her Masts, Sails, and Rigging are much torn by our Shot, and the Man at the Helm (the only Man suffered on Deck) dangerously wounded. I have sent Five wounded Prisoners on Shore, to the Care of the French Consul at Oporto.
