

fluence, are its to be feared starved; to supply them the neighbouring Princes and States have taken care to have Provisions carried within a mile of the place, and there left in the open Field, to be fetched away by the Inhabitants.

Cologne, Nov. 15. Some of the old Burgermasters of this City being accused of misemploying the publick Moneys, and of other misdemeanors; the Jurghers have taken upon them their Prosecutions and that no disorders may on this occasion be committed, a Guard has been appointed to secure the Houses of those that are accused, from all violence, and to preserve the publick Peace. It is believed, that in 8 or 10 days Sentence will be pronounced against them, and till then we shall not know the particulars of their charge; In the mean time the discourse among the common people is, that in the year 1513, the Burgermasters were first put to the Torture, and afterwards Beheaded, for no greater crimes than these are accused of.

Hamburg, Nov. 15. Sir Robert Southwel, Envoye Extraordinary from the King of England to the Elector of Brandenburg, is arrived here from Berlin, and will embark to morrow for England. From Sweden they write, that the King had conferred the Charge of Rycks Drott upon Count Magnus de la Gardie; and that of Chancellor, voyd by his preferment, on Count Bengt Oxenferne, his late Ambassador at the Treaty of Nimeguen; that the States were still Assembled, and that the chief Matter before them, was the providing a good Navy, and a constant Land Army, which the King was very zealous in, as a thing of absolute necessity, for the making himself and his Kingdom considerable to his neighbours. The Letters we receive from Staden inform us, that Wismar will certainly be restored to the Swedes in very few days; the King of Denmark having sent the necessary Orders for that purpose.

Hague, Nov. 19. To-morrow the States of Holland meet, their main business will be to regulate their Revenues, which they left unfinished when they parted last. The Prince of Orange went hence on Wednesday to Soestdyke, having Dined with Mr. Sidney. We are expecting here the Printes of Osna-brug, the eldest whereof goes for England, and the other for France.

Swanzer, Nov. 6. We have had of late very blowing weather. Some days since a small Vessel belonging to Barnstaple was cast away about seven miles from hence, all the Men lost. We are likewise informed that a Ship of about 140 Tun, bound for London from the Barbados, was cast away the last week at a place called Stackepoole, the Men all saved, but little of the Goods but what are damaged.

Plymouth, Nov. 9. Since my last, the Newcastle, the Phoenix, and the Guernsey Frigats are arrived here from the Downs, with above 100 Sail of Merchant Ships under their Convoy.

Deal, Nov. 11. Two days since a Pink of about 80 Tuns, belonging to Amsterdam, and bound for Guinea, was driven ashore to the Northwards of this place, and broke in pieces; the Goods were most saved and carried to Sandwich.

Whitehal, Nov. 12. On Wednesday last Don Pedro de Ronquillo, Ambassador from the King of Spain to His Majesty, made his publick Entry, having been received at Greenwich by the Earl of Chesterfield, and Sir Charles Cotterel Master of the Ceremonies, and from thence brought by Water in the Kings Barge to Tower-Hill, where at his Landing, his Excellency was Saluted with a Discharge of several pieces of Canon, and was conducted in his Majesty's Coach of State, followed with a Train of above 50 Coaches more with six Horses apiece, to Wild-House: His Excellencies Equipage was very splendid, consisting of six Pages, who with the Gentleman of his Horse were on Horseback, and 20 Footmen in noble Liveries, and three very rich Coaches with six Horses each.

Yesterday in the afternoon his Excellency was conducted in the like manner by the Earl of Bridgewater and Sir Charles Cotterel to his Audience, which he had of His Majesty in the Banqueting-House with the usual Solemnity. And this Evening his Excellency had his Audience of the Queen in her Bedchamber.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, have Money in Bank to pay to Number 254 inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the Second Act for Disbanding the Army.
