A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday received by the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from General Grinfield, Commander of His Majesty's Troops in the Windward and Leeward Charibbee Islands:

MY LORD, Demarara, Starbrock, Sept. 20, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint your Lordship of the Surrender of this Colony and Essequibo, which capitulated Yesterday, and this Day we are in Possession.

DO. 15643.

I take the Opportunity of a Vessel going to Barbadoes to send this, with the Hope of its reaching your Lordship sooner than that which Commodore Hood and myself shall dispatch as soon as we can convey more Particulars.

I have the Honor to be, &amp;c.

W. GRINFIELD, Lieut. Gen.

To the Right Honorable Lord Hobart,&c. &c. &c.Admiralty-Office, November 15, 1803.

Copy of a Dispatch from Commodore Samuel Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Centaur, off Demerara, 20th September 1803.

SIR,

THINKING it of the utmost Importance to the Mercantile Interest the earliest Information should be sent, of the Surrender of this Colony, and that of Essequibo, to His Majesty's Forces, I beg Leave to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Capitulation was signed on board the Heureux Yesterday Morning; in the Evening the Hornet and Netley entered the River, and Two Hundred Troops took Possession of Fort William Frederick, and this Day the Colonies surrendered.

The Hippomenes Ship Corvette of Eighteen Guns, the only Vessel of the Batavian Republic here, is included in the Capitulation.

I have the Honor to be, &amp;c.

SAM. HOOD.

Whitehall, October 27, 1803.
