Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 19, to Tuesday November 22, 1803.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 21st of November 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Colonies of Demerara and Essequibo have surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, and the Territories and Forts of the same are delivered up to His Majesty, and the said Colonies are now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all His Majesty's Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Colonies, subject, nevertheless, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in the West Indies, is or shall be subject by Law: And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Colonies, being in His Majesty's Possession, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Islands in the West Indies: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE I last met you in Parliament it has been My chief Object to carry into Effect those Measures which your Wisdom had adopted for the Defence of the United Kingdom, and for the vigorous Prosecution of the War. In these Preparations I have been seconded by the voluntary Exertions of all Ranks of My People, in a Manner that has, if possible, strengthened their Claims to My Confidence and Affection: They have proved that the Menaces of the Enemy have only served to rouse their native and hereditary Spirit; and that all other Considerations are lost in a general Disposition to make those Efforts and Sacrifices which the Honor and Safety of the Kingdom demand at this important and critical Conjunction.

Though My Attention has principally been directed to the great Object of internal Security, no Opportunity has been lost of making an Impression on the foreign Possessions of the Enemy: The Islands of St. Lucia, of Tobago, of St. Pierre and Miquelon, and the Settlements of Demerara and Essequibo, have surrendered to the British Arms. In the Conduct of the Operations, by which those valuable Acquisitions have been made, the utmost Promptitude and Zeal have been displayed by the Officers employed on those Services, and by My Forces acting under their Command, by Sea and Land.

In Ireland, the Leaders, and several inferior Agents, in the late traitorous and atrocious Conspiracy, have been brought to Justice; and the public Tranquillity has experienced no further Interruption. I indulge the Hope, that such of My deluded Subjects as have swerved from their Allegiance are now convinced of their Error; and that, having compared the Advantages they derive from the Protection of a free Constitution with the Condition of those Countries which are under the Dominion of the French Government, they will cordially and zealously concur in resisting any Attempt that may be made against the Security and Independence of my United Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have a perfect Reliance on your public Spirit for making such Provision as may be necessary for the Service of the Year. The progressive Improvement of the Revenue cannot fail to encourage you to persevere in the System which has been adopted, of defraying the Expences of the War, with as little Addition as possible to the Public Debt, and to the permanent Burthens of the State.

I lament the heavy Pressure, which, under the present Circumstances, must unavoidably be experienced by My People; but I am persuaded that they will meet it with the good Sense and Fortitude which so eminently distinguish their Character, under a Conviction of the indispensable Importance of upholding the Dignity, and of providing effectually for the Safety of the Empire.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have concluded a Convention with the King of Sweden, for the Purpose of adjusting all the Differences which have arisen on the Subject of the Eleventh Article of the Treaty of 1661. I have directed that a Copy of this Convention should be laid before you; and you will, I trust, be of Opinion that the Arrangement, whilst it upholds Our Maritime Rights, is founded on those Principles of reciprocal Advantage which are best calculated to maintain and improve the good Understanding which happily subsists between the Two Countries.

In the Prosecution of the Contest in which We are engaged it shall be, as it has ever been, My first Object to execute, as becomes Me, the great Trust committed to My Charge. Embarked with My brave and loyal People in One common Cause, it is My fixed Determination, if the Occasion should arise, to share their Exertions and their Dangers in the Defence of Our Constitution, Our Religion, Our Laws, and Independence. To the Activity and Valour of My Fleets and Armies, to the Zeal and unconquerable Spirit of My faithful Subjects, I confide the Honor of My Crown, and all those valuable Interests which are involved in the Issue of this momentous Contest.

Actuated by these Sentiments, and humbly imploring the Blessing of Divine Providence, I look forward with a firm Conviction, that if, contrary to all just Expectation, the Enemy should elude the Vigilance of My numerous Fleets and Cruizers, and attempt to execute their presumptuous Threat of invading our Coasts, the Consequence will be to them, Discomfiture, Confusion, and Disgrace; and that Our's will not only be the Glory of surmounting present Difficulties, and repelling immediate Danger, but the solid and permanent Advantage of fixing the Safety and Independence of the Kingdom on the Basis of acknowledged Strength, the Result of its own tried Energy and Resources.
