P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Colony of Berbice has surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, and the Territories and Forts of the same are delivered up to His Majesty, and the said Colony of Berbice and its Dependencies are now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all His Majesty's Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Colony, subject, nevertheless, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in the West Indies, is or shall be subject by Law: And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Colony, being in His Majesty's Possession, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Islands in the West Indies: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of December 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamation for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath, by Order in Council, been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December to the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and four inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Enfield, of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary of the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty-Office, December 10, 1803.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at this Office, from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica :

Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
Sept. 29, 1803.
THEIR Lordships will observe from Captain Walker's Letter enclosed, that he was induced, when in the Bight of Leogane, to proceed off St. Marc's, and take the French Garrison on board, correspondent to Capitulation.
I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.
Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

Vanguard, off Cape Nicola Mole,
September 9, 1803.
UNDERSTANDING from General Desfalines that it was his Intention to summon the Town of St. Marc immediately, which was reduced to the last Extremity, I was strongly induced to urge him not to put the Garrison to Death, which he consented to, and I stipulated with him, that, if they surrendered, he should march them round to the Mole in Safety, and that I should appear off the Bay, and take Possession of the Shipping, One of which I knew to be a Ship of War.

I received General Desfaline's Dispatches about Eight o'Clock at Night of the 31st of October, and got under Weigh at One A. M. At Daylight we chased a Man of War Brig off St. Marc, but the Wind being light and partial she got into that Place: In the Afternoon we perceived a Flag of Truce coming out, but a heavy Squall of Wind and Rain obliged them to return. The following Morning they came on board, and brought a Letter from General D'Henin, which I answered by making several distinct Propositions, and sent them in the Ship's Boat as a Flag of Truce, with an Officer, and Mr. Cathcart had the Goodness to take Charge of them: About Five o'Clock the same Day the General himself came on board in the Boat, and we agreed to a Convention: The next Day and Part of the Night we were busily employed in effecting the Embarkation of the Garrison, &c. and the Whole being completed, General D'Henin and his Staff came on board the Vanguard at Three o'Clock in the Morning of the 4th, and we made Sail out of the Bay.—The Situation of this Garrison was the most deplorable it is possible to imagine; they were literally reduced to nothing, and long subsisted on Horse-flesh. I forgot to mention that, on the 1st, we captured the same Schooner we had taken on the 26th past, with Twenty-five Barrels of Flour, going to St. Marc, which I took out, and transferring her People, with Fifteen Soldiers she had on board, to a small Sloop we took at the same Time, sent her away, and kept the Schooner, as she might be eventually useful to us; and she is the Vessel I have made over to General D'Henin.

The Vessels delivered to us consist of the Papillon Corvette, pierced for Twelve Guns, but only mounting Six, having Fifty-two Men on board, commanded by Monsr. Dubourg, Lieutenant du Vaisseau; the Brig Les Trois Amis, Transport, nothing in; and the Schooner Mary Sally, who has between Forty and Fifty Barrels of Powder. General

D'Henin has given me regular Receipts for the Garrison, which amounts in all to Eight Hundred and Fifty Men.

I have further to inform you, Sir, that on the 5th we captured the National Schooner Le Courier de Nantes, of Two Guns and Four Swivels, and Fifteen Men, commanded by an Ensign de Vaisseau, from Port au Prince, with a Supply of Thirty Barrels of Flour, and sundry other Articles for St. Marc.

I enclose a Weekly Account; and have great Satisfaction in stating, that we are almost well again, not one of the Men who came from the Hospital has died.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAS. WALKER.

Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
September 29, 1803.
SIR, HIS Majesty's Sloop Pelican having been employed these Eight Weeks in watching the Port of Aux Cayes, Captain Whitby writes me, on the 21st Instant, that the General of Division Brunette, had sent off Brigadier-General Le Fevre to propose taking off this Garrison, but as it appeared that the Numbers are beyond what the Vessels in the Harbour, with the Assistance of the Pelican, could effect, Captain Whitby, (of whose Affiduity I cannot speak too highly,) agreed on an Armistice of Ten Days to communicate with me, and though I had in some Degree anticipated the Want by sending the Pique on that Service, I have in consequence added the Theseus, and am in Expectation, that before the sailing of this Packet, I shall have to request that in Addition to this, you will communicate to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the Capitulation of the Garrison.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

Shark, Port Royal, Jamaica,
September 30, 1803.
SIR, CAPTAIN BLIGH, whose Merits as an Officer are always conspicuous, having, during the Time he was Senior Officer at the Blockade of the Cape, thought it for the good of the Service to attack Port Dauphin; I send you herewith his Statement of the Success, and the Capture of La Sageffe, of Twenty Eight-Pounders on her Main Deck, and Eight Four-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

Theseus, Port Dauphin, St. Domingo,
September 8, 1803.
SIR, HAVING found extreme Difficulty in preventing small Vessels from passing into Cape Francois with Provisions from the little Ports on the Northern Part of the Island, in consequence of their finding a safe Retreat from our Pursuit under the Batteries of Port Dauphin, and conceiving that Port to be of the utmost Importance to the Enemy, I deemed it necessary to make some Efforts for the Reduction of the Place, and the Capture of a Ship of War at anchor there. As soon as the Sea-breeze this Morning rendered it impossible for the Enemy's Frigates to leave their Anchorage, I proceeded to Manchermel Bay, leaving the Hercule and Cumberland on their Station.

The Water being sufficiently deep to allow me to place the Ship within Mullet Shot of Fort Labouque, situated at the Entrance of the Harbour, our Fire was so well directed, that it was impossible for the Guns of the Battery to be pointed with any Precision, the Colours of which were struck in less than Half an Hour. Another Fort in the Harbour and the Ship being the next Objects of our Attention, the Thefeus entered the Port with the Assistance of the Boats, and having fired a few Shot at the Ship of War, she hauled her Colours down, and proved to be La Sagette, mounting Twenty Eight-Pounders on the Main-Deck, and Eight Four-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck and Fore-Castle, commanded by Lieutenant J. B. Baruetche, and having only Seventy-five Men on board.

The Commandant conceiving the Place no longer tenable after the Loss of the Ship, and being under some Apprehensions of being exposed to the Rage of the Blacks, whom he considered as a merciless Enemy, claimed British Protection, and surrendered the Fort and Garrison at Discretion. Having spiked the Guns, and destroyed the Ammunition, the Garrison and Inhabitants, many of whom were sickly, were embarked and landed under a Flag of Truce at Cape François. Being informed by the Prisoners that their General Dumont and his Suit had lately fallen into the Hands of the Blacks, and that they were in the most imminent Danger, I was induced, from Motives of Humanity, to solicit their Freedom from the Chief of those People; and I had the Satisfaction of having my Request immediately complied with: They accompanied the Rest of the Prisoners into Cape François.

I am &c. JOHN BLIGH.

Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B.

Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, December 10, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated off Ushant the 3d Instant.

SIR,

THE Acasta joined me this Morning. I have the Honor to enclose a Letter for the Information of the Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty, to me from Captain Wood, which I have this Moment received, giving an Account of his having captured, on the 2d of October last, the French Privateer L'Avanture, of Bourdeaux, and recaptured the Two West Indianmen therein named, her Prizes.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

Acasta, at Sea, off Ushant,

West, we fell in with and, after a Chace of Forty-five Hours, captured the French Privateer L'Avanture, of Bourdeaux, of Twenty Guns and One Hundred and Forty-four Men, with her Two Prizes, the Royal Edward and St. Mary's Planter, both of the Jamaica Convoy.

This Privateer was laying to to take Possession of the Jane, another of the Convoy, and a Fourth in Sight.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. A. WOOD.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addresss of the Managers and Trustees of Anderson's Institution.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Managers and Trustees of Anderson's Institution, incorporated by Charter in the City of Glasgow, as a Seminary for the Cultivation of Arts and Sciences, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At a Period so deeply interesting to every Briton, a Period when an insolent and ambitious Foe threatens to overthrow the British Empire, with our brave Countrymen we feel indignant, and will be found their Associates in Arms, to repel and chastise the Aggressor, to support your Majesty's Throne, and to preserve inviolate the Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution.

While the Students, who attend this Seminary, are instructed in Arts and Sciences, the Professors will not fail to inculcate on their Minds Loyalty to their King, Love to their Country, and Submission to the Laws.

It is our earnest Prayer that the Supreme Disposer of Events may crown with complete Success your Majesty's decisive and dignified Measures for the Defence and Security of this great Realm, that the Calamities of so just a War may be softened by the Success and Glory of its Achievements; and that your Majesty may long reign over a happy, loyal, and independent People.

Scaled in our Hall with the Seal of the Institution, and signed in our Name, by John Geddes, President.

Glasgow, Sept. 21, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]
