Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or in

And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

WAR OFFICE.

NOTICE TO OFFICERS IN THE ARMY.

SEVERAL Officers of the Army having represented that they have been required by the Assessors under the Property Act, in the Districts in which they are or have been stationed, to make Returns of their Military Income, in order to their being assessed for the same in such Districts, Notice is hereby given, that all Officers of the Army, whether on Full or Half-Pay, will be assessed for their Military Income, under the Directions of the Commissioners appointed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for assessing the Army in general.

Dated at the War-Office, this 14th Day of January 1804.

By Order of the Commissioners for assessing the Pay and Allowances of Officers in the Army,
Chas. Hamilton, Clerk.

Instructions for the Guidance of Officers in making out their Military Income, are now preparing.

Whitehall, 21st January 1804.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hall his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a Blue Jacket, the other in a Smock-Frock, he rode up to the Man in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Drifts described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening bought Powder and Shot at Retford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a most daring and scandalous Outrage took place in the City of Chester, on Wednesday the 28th Day of December last, wherein divers Persons, at present unknown, proceeded to destroy the Gates of the Gaol of the said City, and to deliver by Force a Person confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said Gaol,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

LORD DUNCAN'S VICTORY.

Lloyd's Coffee-House, January 17, 1804.

At a Meeting of the Committee appointed to manage the Subscription raised for the Benefit of the Wounded, and the Families and Relatives of those who were Killed, in the Action of the 11th of October 1797,

WILLIAM PITT, Esq; in the Chair,

The following Report was read:

The Committee, on the 29th of October 1802, advertised, in Compliance with the Resolutions of a General Meeting of Subscribers, that "All Gratuities, not satisfactorily claimed within Twelve Months, should be appropriated as follows: "All Sums voted to Foreigners, and unclaimed, to be paid to the Consuls, Ministers, Deacons, or Heads of Churches, in London, of the Nation to which the Parties belonged, for the Benefit of such sick or distressed Seamen of their Nation as may frequent this Port in Times of Peace; and the Gratuities voted to British Subjects, and those whose supposed Countries cannot be ascertained, be given to charitable Institutions connected with the Commerce and Navy of this Country."

The Committee report, that, agreeably to the above Resolution, they have endeavoured, by public Advertisements and other Channels, to find out those Foreigners, or their Families, (if any,) who had an honorable and a National Claim on the Funds of this Committee, for Services or Sufferings in Defence of this Country; and, where they have been unsuccessful, they have paid the Gratuities which the Parties would have been entitled to receive over to the Consuls or Heads of Churches of Foreign Nations, as directed in the preceding Resolution.

That, out of the Funds allotted to British Subjects, or those whose supposed Country could not be ascertained, and that have not yet been found out or claimed within the Time limited, the Committee have also been enabled to fulfil the Second Part of their Instructions, by giving to

The Marine Society additional, for the Management of Annuities granted,	210
The Dublin Hospital	105
The Royal Infirmary at Edinburgh	105

as Public and National Institutions connected with the Commerce and Navy of the United Kingdom.

The Committee, having, in their Report to the Public of the 9th July 1801, and the 29th October 1802, stated the Receipt and Appropriation of a Subscription, the Liberality of which kept Pace with the enterprising Spirit and Valour of British Seamen, beg briefly to state, that they have now finally closed their Trust and their Duty; and that they have expended (including 7959l. 10s. 3d. arising from Dividends and Interest on Navy and Exchequer Bills, &c.) the Sum of 53,446l. 12s. 1d. for the Relief and Support of One Thousand and Forty Claimants, including Thirty-four Cases not found out.

It is with peculiar Pleasure that the Committee farther report, that they have received the strongest Testimonials and Assurances from every Part of the United Kingdom, and from Foreign Countries, that the Distribution of this Fund has not only given Comfort and Happiness to a numerous and meritorious Class of Men, as well as Settlement and Apprenticeship to Children, but that it has also had the happy Tendency of making the British Name and the British Navy respected at Home and Abroad.

The Committee have annexed a short Statement of the Total Receipts and Expenditure of their Funds; but they cannot take Leave of the Public without expressing their Acknowledgement of the unremitting Attention of Calverley Bewicke, Esq; their late worthy Chairman, to the Concerns of this Committee; and sincerely regret, that he did not live long enough to set his Signature to the final Report of those Measures which had met with his Concurrence and Sanction.

The Committee, at the same Time, feel it a Duty which they owe to William Vaughan, Esq; one of their Members, to express to him and to the Public their Sense of Obligation for his unwearied Zeal and tried Integrity in the arduous Task of attending to the Affairs of this Committee, from its Commencement to its Close.

Resolved,

That this Committee do approve of the foregoing Report and General Statement of the Account; and that the same be printed and published, signed by the Chairman.
