

Paris, Nov. 30. There was a report yesterday spread about Town, That the Mareschal de la Ferre was dead, which was the sooner believed, for that it was known before that he was very ill. We are told as well from Germany as Flanders of the great Provision that is making of all sorts of Military Stores, which makes most people believe that the Spring may be ushered in with Action, and they who are of opinion that the City of Strasbourg is aimed at, think they have ground for it. The Cardinal d'Essee arrived the 19th Instant at Turin, in his way to Rome, whither he is going to endeavour to adjust the matters in difference concerning the Regality.

Paris, Dec. 4. The Court is removed from Ver-sailles to St. Germain, where it will remain the Winter: It is said that the Dauphin is not yet perfectly well since his late illness. The King has by an Order of Council forbid the wearing of Gold and Silver Lace. We have advice of the loss of one of our Gallies.

Dublin, Nov. 18. The Titular Archbishop Talbot is dead here in Prison; The Coroner and Jury have sat upon him, and have given in their Verdict, That he dyed a natural Death. Our Lord Lieutenant is sending the Earl of Tyrone and some other persons, according to the Orders he has received from His Majesty, for England.

Plymouth, Nov. 19. There are now riding in Cat-waters above 200 Sail of Merchant-Ships, bound to Portugal, Spain, Italy, and Turkey, as also to the Canaries, under the Convoy of His Majesties Ships the Newcastle, Falcon, and Phoenix, who have orders to see them in the respective Ports to which they are bound.

Plymouth, Nov. 23. Yesterday Sailed from hence His Majesties Ship the Newcastle, Captain Russel Commander, with about 200 Merchant Ships under his Convoy, bound for the Streights, three of which, the smallest whereof is mounted with 28 Guns, are in His Majesties Service, and have on Board the Earl of Plymouths Regiment, consisting of 1200 Men, with Officers, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Kirke, except 150 of them, which are on Board the Newcastle, as also 50 Miners raised in Cornwall for the service of Tangier. On board one of the said Merchant men are likewise 200 Recruits for the Earl of Dumbarton's Regiment. This day sailed likewise His Majesties Ship the Falcon, Captain Churchil, and the Phoenix, Captain Blagg with 50 Merchantmen more under their Convoy, bound to the Southwards, and most to the Canaries. The Ruby Frigate, Captain Allen, who is come from Lisbon, is here, bound for the Downs. The Pearle, Captain Williams, and the Guernsey, Captain Tenant, are going to join other of His Majesties Ships to Cruise in the Soundings.

Falmouth, Nov. 22. There has been seen by several of this Town a Comet, which rises about two hours before day in the South East; it has a Tail of about 20 Foot long, pointing towards the North West, the end being of a darkish gloomy colour, but the Star bright and swift in its motion; some say they have seen it ever since Monday last, but the most noise of it has been since Tuesday, since which, many have seen it. The 20th Instant came in here the Providence of Southampton, bound for Holland from Bordeaux, from whence he came in company of 40 Sail more, who were by contrary winds forced back again.

Whitehall, Nov. 27. Yesterday Morning arrived here Lieutenant Colonel Falmash from Tangier, and gave His Majesty an account, That Colonel Sackville, who has now the chief Command (Sir Palmer Fairborne, the late Governor, having been unfortunately wounded with a Musket-shot on the 24th past, of which he dyed three days after) finding that the Moors began to approach very near to Pole-Fort, and were preparing to Mine it, called a Council of War, and pursuant to what was there resolved, marched out the 27th with 1500 Foot, and 300 Horse, and fell upon the Moors with so much bravery that notwithstanding the inequality of their number, and the stout resistance they made, they beat them out of their Trenches, and from their several Lines, and gave them a total defeat, pursuing them a mile into the Country with a great slaughter of them, filling up their Trenches, and leveling their Lines, and taking two pieces of Cannon, five Colours, and several Prisoners, though with the loss of many Officers and private Soldiers killed and wounded on our side, of which a full and particular relation, with a List of the Killed and Wounded, is made publick.

The 17th past dyed at Tangier the Earl of Plymouth of a bloody-Flux. His Body is bringing for England.

November 27. This day the Dean and Chapter of Westminster being assembled, made choice of and admitted William Ellys Esq; High Bailiff and Escheator of the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Bailiff of the Sanctuary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peters Westminster.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer have Money in Bank to pay to Number 444. Inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the Second Act for Disbanding the Army.

Advertisements.

STolen on the 21 Instant from the Earl of Randolph's House in St. James's Square a pair of square Silver Candlesticks, weighing 42 Ounces, with the Hard and Darv and a Fleur-de-lis upon them. Whoever gives notice of them to the Porters shall have 20 s. Reward.

TWO Books, each of a Quire of Paper, the one a Journal, the other a Ledger, in French, covered with Marble, some Papers of accounts, Letters, Bills of Exchange, and other writings were taken out of the Coach (being in a Port-mantle) the 18th Instant. Whoever brings them to Matthew Randal in King's Arms-Street in Coleman-Street, shall be very well Rewarded.

ONE Robert Peter, being in a melancholy Distemper, went from Arberfeld in the County of Bucks; he is a middle sized man, about 30 years old, with a black hat, black hair, two teeth out before, a grey Coat, and a Waistcoat with Pewter Buttons. Whoever gives notice of him to William Peter in Arberfeld-Parish aforesaid, shall be very well Rewarded.

STolen or strayed from Turnham-Green, five Miles from London, about six weeks since, a gray Mare, about 14 hands, eight years old, all her paces, a little headstitten about the neck, the hair a little off her knees. Whoever gives notice of her at the Black-Raven in Thameside, near St. Dunstons, shall have 10 s. Reward.

LOst on Sunday the 21 Instant, from the Unicorn in Bed-ford-Street, a little white Spaniel Bitch, with Liver, coloured spots, speckled about the Feet and Nose, and almost bare about the Throat. Whoever brings her to the said place shall have 20 s. Reward.