CHIPPENHAM RIGHT OF ELECTION PETITION NOTICE.

Veneris, 13^o Die Aprilis 1804.

A BRAHAM LLOYD EDRIDGE, Henry Guy, James Morris Coombs, and others, Burgesses and Freemen, being Householdors of and Residents in Antient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, having this Day presented a Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth,

That the Petitioners observe, by the Votes of the House, that a Petition has been presented to the House, signed by James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale, praying that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose that Right of Election that has been deemed valid in the Judgment of a Select Committee of this House, duly struck and sworn on the Tenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, to try the Merits of Two Petitions presented to the House on the Part of John Maitland, Esquire, and certain Electors of the said Borough, complaining of the Return of Charles Brooke, Esquire, to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Chippenham, namely, "That the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough was in the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen, being Householdors of and Resident in the Ancient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham;" and that the Petitioners are fully satisfied with the said Determination of the said Select Committee, having always understood that such was the Right of Election, and such as had, Time immemorially, been deemed and taken to be the Usage and Right of Election used and adopted in the said Borough; and that if such Determination is altered, and the Right of Election declared to be as the said James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale pray—"in the Bailiff and Burgesses at large, (that is to say,) being Inhabitants paying or liable to pay Poor Rates," the Petitioners apprehend the same will be an Infringement upon the Rights, Franchises, and Privileges of the Petitioners, and others the Burgesses and Freemen, being Householdors of and resident in the Ancient Burgage Houses within the said Borough; and therefore praying the House to admit them as Parties to defend the said Right of Election, as determined by the said Select Committee, and that they may be heard by their Counsel against the Petition of the said James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale, and that such other Relief may be granted to them as to the House shall seem meet:

I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the Eighth Day of May next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration.
