THE following Dispatches have been received at the East India-House by Way of Bagdad :

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
&c. &c. &c.

Camp, Four Miles to the Westward of Caffowly, Nov. 1, 1803.

MY LORD,
 I HAVE the Honor to inform your Excellency that I marched from Agra upon the 27th ultimo, in Pursuit of the Mahratta Force; which was composed of the Brigades which had been detached from the Dekhan, in the early Part of the Campaign, and of a few Battalions which had effected their Escape from Delhi. I was the more anxious to defeat this Corps from its being furnished with a numerous Artillery. Owing to the Detention the Army met with from a heavy Fall of Rain, it was not until the 29th that it reached a Camp to the Westward of the Futtipoor. From Intelligence I received here of the rapid Manner in which the Mahratta Army was moving, I determined to leave the heavy Artillery, with a proper Detachment of Infantry, for its Protection, and to pursue the Enemy by forced Marches, in the Hope of being able the more speedily to come up with him. On the 31st the Army encamped at a short Distance from the Ground which the Enemy had quitted the same Morning. Possessed of this Intelligence, I resolved to make an Effort to overtake him with all the Cavalry of the Army, in the Intention of delaying him, by a light Engagement, until the Infantry should be able to come up. To this End the Cavalry marched at Twelve last Night, and having performed a Distance of more than Forty Miles in Twenty-four Hours, came up with the Enemy this Morning, soon after Day-break. From the sudden Manner in which I came upon the Enemy, I ventured to make an Attack with the Cavalry alone, supported by the Mounted Artillery; but finding him too advantageously posted to hope for complete Success without too much Risk, I drew the Cavalry out of Reach of Cannon Shot, and waited the Arrival of the Infantry. Soon after their Arrival I made a general Attack upon the Enemy's Position, the Result of which I have the Satisfaction of informing your Excellency has been a complete, though I sincerely lament to add, dear bought Victory.

The Enemy were totally defeated, with the Loss of all their Cannon, Tumbrils, and Baggage; but this important Advantage has only been gained by the Loss of many valuable Officers, the principal of whom are Major-General Ware, Colonel Vaudeleur, Major Griffiths, Major Campbell, the Deputy Quarter-Master-General, and my Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Duval, who gloriously fell in this honourable Contest.

I have not been able to ascertain the exact Account of our Loss in Killed and Wounded, Returns of which, with a detailed Account of this important Affair, I shall have the Honor of transmitting to your Excellency by the first Opportunity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
&c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

IN my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date I did myself the Honor to state, for your Lordship's Information, some Particulars of the March of the Army from Agra to the Camp it now occupies, together with the general Result of the Action, which took place Yesterday. I now have the Honor to send your Excellency a more detailed Account of that Affair.

After a forced March of Twenty-five Miles, which was performed by the Cavalry in a little more than Six Hours, I came up with the Enemy, who appeared to be upon their Retreat, and in such Confusion, that I was tempted to try the Effect of an Attack upon him with the Cavalry alone. By cutting the Embankment of a large Reservoir of Water, the Enemy had rendered the Road very difficult to pass, which caused a considerable Delay in the Advance of the Cavalry; of this the Enemy had availed himself to take an advantageous Post, having his Right upon a Rivulet, which we had to cross, and his Left upon the Village of Saswarce; the whole of his Front was amply provided with Artillery. I was prevented from discovering this Change in the Situation of the Enemy, by the Quantity of Dust, which, when once clear of the Water, totally obscured him from our Sight ; I therefore proceeded in the Execution of my Design, by which I hoped to prevent his Retreat into the Hills, and secure his Guns; directing the Advanced Guard and first Brigade commanded by Colonel Vandeleur, upon the Point where I had observed the Enemy in Motion, but which proved to be the Left of his new Position: the Remainder of the Cavalry I ordered to attack in Succession, as soon as they could form after passing the Rivulet.

The Charge of the Advanced Guard under Major Griffith, and that of the First Brigade led by Colonel Vandeleur, was made with much Gallantry; the Enemy's Line was forced, and the Cavalry penetrated into the Village; they still however continued to be exposed to a most galling Fire of Cannon and Musquetry, which, as it was impossible under such Circumstances to form the Squadron for a fresh Attack, determined me to withdraw them. The Guns which had fallen into our Hands, could not be brought away from the Want of Bullocks. In this Charge Colonel Vandeleur fell, mortally wounded; in him, the Service has lost a most valuable Officer.

The Attacks of the other Brigades were conducted with the same Spirit; but after taking several of the Enemies' Guns, being still fired upon without being able to discover the Enemy, they retired in good Order, retaining Possession of a Part of the Artillery. In the Performance of this Service, the Third Brigade, consisting of His Majesty's 29th Regiment, and the 4th Regiment of Native Cavalry, under the Command of that meritorious Officer, Colonel Macan, met my entire Approbation.

The Infantry having marched at Three A. M. arrived upon the Banks of the Rivulet about Eleven o'Clock: After so long a March it was absolutely necessary to allow some Time for the Men to refresh themselves, during which the Enemy sent in to say, that if certain Terms were allowed them, they were willing to surrender their Guns. Anxious to prevent the further Effusion of Blood, I directed a Letter to be written, acquiescing in their Proposals, and allowing them an Hour to decide. In the mean Time the several Columns for the Attack were formed. The Infantry formed in Two Columns upon the Left; the First, composed of the Right Wing, under the Command of Major-General Ware, was destined to gain the Enemy's Right Flank, which he had thrown back since the Morning, leaving a considerable Space between it and the Rivulet, and to assault the Village of Sawwaree; the Second, composed of the Left Wing under Major-General St. John, was to support the first Column; the Third Brigade of Cavalry, under Colonel Macan, was to support the Infantry; the Second Brigade, under Lieutenant-Colonel Vandeleur, was detached to the Right, to be ready to take Advantage of any Confusion in the Enemy's Line, and to attack him upon his Retreat. The Brigade under Colonel Gordon composed the Reserve, and was formed between the Second and Third Brigades. As many of the Field-Pieces as could be brought up with the Gallopers attached to the Cavalry, formed four different Batteries.

At the Expiration of the Time which I had allowed the Enemy to decide, I ordered the Infantry to advance; as soon as they became exposed to the Enemy's Guns, the four Batteries commenced their Fire, and continued to advance, though opposed by a great Superiority, both in Number and Weight of Metal.

When the 76th Regiment, which headed the Attack, had arrived at the Point from which I intended to make the Charge, they were so much exposed to the Enemy's Fire, and losing Men so fast, that I judged it preferable to proceed to the Attack with that Regiment, and as many of the Native Infantry as had closed to the Front, to losing Time in waiting until the Remainder of the Column should be able to form, the March of which had been retarded by the Impediments in the Advance.

As soon as this Handful of Heroes were arrived within Reach of the Enemy's Cannister Shot, a most tremendous Fire was opened upon them. The Loss they sustained was very severe, and sufficient alone to prevent a regular Advance. At this Moment the Enemy's Cavalry attempted to charge, but were repulsed by the Fire of this gallant Body: they, however, rallied at a short Distance, and assumed so menacing a Posture, that I thought it advisable to order them to be attacked by the Cavalry. This Service fell to the Share of His Majesty's 29th Regiment, commanded by Captain Wade (Major Griffith having at that Instant been unfortunately killed by a Cannon-shot), and was performed with the greatest Gallantry, and in a Manner which entitles Captain Wade, and every Officer and Soldier in the Regiment, to my warmest Acknowledgments. The Remainder of the First Column of Infantry arrived just in Time to join in the Attack of the Enemy's Reserve, which was formed in the Rear of his Line, with its Left upon the Village of Sawwaree, and its Right thrown back.

About this Time Major-General Ware fell dead, his Head being carried off by a Cannon Shot. He was a gallant Officer, and one whose Loss I deeply lament. On his Death the Command of this Column devolved upon Colonel M'Donald, who, though wounded, continued to acquit himself in this important Command, very much to my Satisfaction.

The Enemy opposed a vigorous Resistance to the last, and it was not until he had lost his Guns, that he abandoned his Post. Even then his Left Wing did not fly, but attempted to retreat in good Order; in this, however, they were frustrated by His Majesty's 27th Regiment, and the 6th Regiment of Native Cavalry, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Vandeleur, who broke in upon the Column, cut several to Pieces, and drove the Rest in Prisoners, with the whole of the Baggage.

Severe as the Loss has been which we have sustained in the Attainment of this complete Victory, that of the Enemy has been far greater. With the Exception of upwards of Two Thousand, who have been taken Prisoners (of which Number I have only detained the principal Officers, amounting to Forty-eight), I have Reason to believe that very few escaped the general Slaughter.

It would be a Violation of my Feelings, were I to close my Dispatch, without bearing Testimony to the gallant Conduct of Major M'Leod, and Captain Robertson of His Majesty's 76th Regiment, and of every Officer and Soldier of that inestimable Corps, in the Attack of the Village of Sawwaree. Major Gregory too, at the Head of the 2d Battalion 12th Regiment of Native Infantry, in the same Service displayed a Conduct highly meritorious.

In the List of those Officers who particularly distinguished themselves, I cannot omit the Names of Lieutenant Wallace of His Majesty's 27th Regiment, who was entrusted with the Command of a Battery of Gallopers, nor that of Lieutenant Dixon of the 6th Regiment Native Cavalry, who was employed in the same Service.

The whole of my Staff upon this, as upon every former Occasion, are entitled to a large Share of Praise, and to my warmest Gratitude. The Zeal which they displayed upon this memorable Day, is too plainly proved by the enclosed Returns of the Killed and Wounded. I have sustained a great Loss by the Death of Major William Campbell, the Deputy Quarter Master General, and by that of my Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Duval, of His Majesty's 19th Light Dragoons, who was a young Man of great Promise.

Herewith I have the Honor to enclose Returns of the Ordnance and Colours which were captured upon this Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

November 2, 1803.

P. S. In the Hurry which I wrote my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date, I fear I did not explain to your Lordship, that the Enemy's Corps, which we have defeated, comprised the Whole of the Fifteen Regular Battalions, which had been sent from the Deccan, under the Command of Monsieur Dudernege, and Two Battalions of the same Description, which had escaped from Delhi. I therefore have the Satisfaction of congratulating your Excellency, upon the Annihilation of the Whole of the Regular Force in Sindiah's Service, commanded by French Officers. (Signed) G. L.

Extra of a Letter from the Governor in Council at Bombay, to the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors of the East-India Company, dated Nov. 14, 1803.

THE Official Advices here enclosed, convey the important Intelligence of Colonel Stevenson's having taken Possession of the City of Berhampore, on the 15th of October, of his having marched to Affeer Ghur, a strong Fort in that Vicinity, on the 17th, taken the Pettah on the 18th, opened a Battery against the Fort on the 20th, and obtained Possession of it in the Morning of the 21st. General Wellesley's Dispatch, of the 6th Instant, contains a Detail of these Operations, and of Circumstances connected with them.

(ENCLOSURE, No. I.)

Letter from Major-General Wellesley to His Excellency the Governor-General, dated Camp at Ferdapoor, 24th October 1803, of which the following is an Extra:

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform your Excellency, that Colonel Stevenson took Possession of the City of Berhampore, without Opposition, on the 15th Instant; he marched to Affeer Ghur on the 17th; took Possession of the Pettah on the 18th; opened a Battery against the Fort on the 20th, and obtained Possession of it on the Morning of the 21st. I have not yet received a detailed Account of the Manner in which Colonel Stevenson obtained Possession of this important Fortrefs, or whether he sustained any Loss in the Attack of the Pettah on the 18th, or of the Fort.

After I had arrived at Phoolmurry, about Sixteen Miles North from Aurungabad, I found that the Enemy did not advance to the Southward, as I had been informed they first intended; and on the Night of the 15th, I received a particular Account of the Disposition of their Troops, Baggage, &c. which convinced me that they intended to endeavour to interrupt Colonel Stevenson's Operations at Affeer Ghur.

I therefore marched on the 16th to the Northward and descended the Ghaut of Adjuntee on the 19th; Sindia had moved to the Northward, but he halted as soon as he found that I had returned, and he was Yesterday at Ahoonah on the Taptee. The Raja of Berar has separated from him, and, it is said, gone towards Chandore. I suspect that Report has been circulated with a View to draw me to the Southward again; but as Colonel Stevenson has got Possession of Affeer Ghur, and is fully equal to any Thing that can be sent against him, it is my Intention to re-ascend the Ghaut immediately.

Sixteen Officers and Serjeants belonging to the Campoos have joined Colonel Stevenson under your Excellency's Proclamation of the 29th August; I will hereafter send a List of their Names, and an Account of the Pay which each is to receive. The Infantry returned towards the Nerbudda when Colonel Stevenson approached Burhampoor, and by all Accounts, it is completely destroyed and disorganized; it is impossible to form it into Corps again, and it is not probable that it ever will be of any Service to Dowlut Row Sindia.

I have directed Colonel Stevenson to place a Garrison in Asseer Ghur, and to deliver the Districts depending upon that Fortrefs to the Charge of the Servants of the Soubah of the Deckan. Your Excellency will observe that this is the Last of the Possessions of Dowlut Row Sindia in the Deckan; and the Operations of the Troops will now be directed against those of the Rajah of Berar.

(ENCLOSURE, No. II.)

Letter from Major-General Wellesley to His Excellency the Governor-General, dated Camp, November 6, 1803.

MY LORD,

I NOW proceed to give your Excellency a detailed Account of Colonel Stevenson's Operations against Asseer Ghur.

On the 17th of October, he advanced to Asseer Ghur, and encamped Three Miles South of the Fort; the Remains of the Enemy's Infantry had fled toward the Nerbuddah, on the preceding Day, in the State in which I reported them to be in my Letter of the 24th of October, and Colonel Stevenson, therefore, determined to attack Asseer Ghur.

On the 18th, he reconnoitred the Fort, attended by a Squadron of Cavalry, and the Julien Pickets of the Infantry; and having seen a favourable Opportunity, attacked the Pettah, and carried it, and made a Lodgement within One Hundred and Fifty Yards of the lower Wall of the Fort. In the Evening, he reinforced the Troops in the Pettah, by a Battalion.

On the 19th, all the Preparations were made for carrying on the Siege, and two Batteries were ready to open at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 20th, one to break the upper Wall, and another of Four Brads Twelve Pounders, to destroy the Defences of the lower Wall.

On the 18th, Colonel Stevenson had sent a Flag of Truce to the Killedar, to summon him to surrender the Fort, to which Message he did not receive a decided Answer.

The Communication was continued, but Colonel Stevenson did not relax his Operation against the Fort, as there was Reason to believe, that the Negotiation was carried on only to give Time to Dowlut Row Scindia to come to its Relief. Before opening his Batteries, Colonel Stevenson apprized the Killedar of the Terms on which he should surrender the Fort; which were, that the Garrison should march out with their private Property, and be allowed to go where they might think proper, and that their Arrears should be paid to the Amount of Twenty Thousand Rupees.

After the Batteries had opened about an Hour, a White Flag was shewn from the Walls of the Fort, which was the Signal which had been agreed upon, in case the Terms should be accepted; Hostages were sent down, and an Engagement made, that the Fort should be delivered up on the following Morning. It was accordingly evacuated; the Garrison carried off their Property in Security, and received the Sum agreed to be paid to them.

Colonel Stevenson mentions, in high Terms, the Conduct of the Officers and Troops under his Command; and I cannot omit to take this Opportunity of expressing to your Excellency, my Sense of the Merits of Colonel Stevenson, and of the Body of Troops under his Command. Upon every Occasion I have received the most cordial and zealous Assistance, and the Troops under his Command are in the highest State of Discipline and Order, and fit for any Service on which they can be employed.

On the 16th, Nine Officers, Four Serjeants, and One Matros, formerly in the Service of Dowlut Row Scindia, delivered themselves up to Colonel Stevenson, under your Excellency's Proclamation of the 29th of August.

I have the Honor to enclose a List of their Names, and a Copy of the Order issued by Colonel Stevenson, to provide for their Subsistence. Lieutenant Stuart also delivered himself up at Poonah, in the End of the last Month. I have called for Accounts of the regulated Pay and Allowances which those Persons received, in the Service of Dowlut Row Scindia, which I shall hereafter have the Honor of transmitting to your Excellency.

I have the Honor to enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, of the Troops, under the Command of Colonel Stevenson, during the Operations against Asseer Ghur. Hereafter I shall have the Honor of transmitting a Return of the Ordnance Stores, Grain, and other Articles, captured in the Fort.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
