THE following are Copies of Letters which have been received at this Office from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands:

Centaur, Diamond-Rock, off Martinique, February 6, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of the Capture of the Curieux French Corvette, early in the Morning of the 4th Instant, of Sixteen long French Six-Pounders, and had on board upwards of One Hundred Men when attacked by Four Boats of the Centaur, containing Sixty Seamen and Twelve Marines, under the Command of Lieutenant Robert Carthew Reynolds; she was laying close under Fort Edward at the Entrance of the Careenage, Fort Royal Harbour, Martinique; he boarded on the Quarters in a most gallant Manner, and was well aided by Lieutenant Bettsworth, and Mr. Tracey, my Secretary, with the other Officers and Men; the Enemy made a warm Resistance at the first Onset, but the spirited and superior Valour of this brave Officer and his Supporters drove them forward, where a Second Stand was made, which was carried with equal Gallantry: her Captain Cordier leaped overboard, after receiving Two Sabre Wounds, and saved himself, with some of the Men, in a Boat that lay under her Bows, and got on Shore; only one French Officer escaped being either killed or wounded, and he was below; fortunately this brilliant Service was performed with only the enclosed List of Wounded in the Boats. I am sorry to add, Lieutenant Reynolds is of the Number, severely, with Five Wounds; also Lieutenant Bettsworth and Mr. Tracey, though not badly.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. SAM. HOOD.

I BEG leave to inform you His Majesty's Sloop under my Command fell in with, and, after a Chase of Eight Hours, captured Le Recompence French Schooner Privateer, of Ten Six-Pounders, and Seventy Men, out Fifty-five Days, and had captured the Mariana*, from Glasgow, bound to Barbadoes. The Recompence was taken about Thirty Leagues to Windward of Barbadoes; her Guns thrown overboard during the Chase.

I am, Sir, &c.

JOSEPH NOURSE.

To Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

*Centaur, Diamond, off Martinique,
February 27, 1804.*

I BEG leave to enclose you Copy of a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Carr, commanding His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, giving an Account of a most spirited Action he fought in the said Vessel, of Ten Guns and Sixty Men, against the Grande Decidé French Ship Privateer, of Twenty-two Guns and Two Hundred and Twenty Men, out of Guadeloupe. I cannot sufficiently extol the brilliant and gallant Conduct of this Officer and Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. SAM. HOOD.

SIR,

*His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, Tortola,
10th February 1804.*

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on my Return from convoying the Packet to the Northward in His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, on the 5th Instant, at Three P. M., the Island of Tortola bearing South, distant about Sixty-eight Leagues, saw a strange Sail to the Southward, suspecting her to be an Enemy, made all sail in Chase; at Half past Three observed her to be a Ship standing towards us; at Four made the Signal, No. 275 to her, which not being answered, shortened Sail and cleared for Action; at Half-past Four, being within Musket-shot on our Weather-Bow, she hauled up her Courses, hove to, and hoisted French National Colours, when I discovered her to be a Ship apparently just out of Port, mounting Twenty-two Guns, and conclude, from the Number of Men seen on her Decks, as also her Tops, there could not be less than Two Hundred. When we came within Pistol-Shot, she commenced the Action by firing her Larboard Broadside and a heavy Fire of Musketry, which we returned with the Weather Broadside and Musketry; wore round, hove to, and fired the Starboard Broadside; the Fire was kept up without Intermision on both Sides until a Quarter past Five, when the Enemy began to slacken her Fire, filled, bore up, and endeavoured to rake us, * Retaken by the Heureux.

but upon observing our Preparations to board her, by manning the Rigging, she ceased Firing, and made all sail to the Northward, on which we filled and made sail after her, keeping up a Fire of Musketry; at Seven found her getting fast away; at Half past Eight lost Sight of her; seeing there was no Possibility of coming up, at Ten gave over the Chase, found great Part of the standing and running Rigging shot away, the Bulwark, Masts, Yards, &c. much damaged, One Marine killed, and Four Seamen wounded, though the Loss on the Part of the Enemy, I believe, from their apparent Confusion, must be greater.

And, Sir, when I reflect on the Superiority of the Enemy in point of Force, I cannot say enough in Praise of those brave Officers and Men I have the Honor to command, and from whose gallant Conduct and Zeal on the Occasion, particularly when ordered to prepare to board, I felt perfectly confident of carrying the French Ship in a few Minutes, on the Second Attack, had not her superior Sailing frustrated our Intentions.

I should feel unmindful of my Duty, was I to omit representing to you the great Assistance I received from Mr. Salmon the Master, on this, as well as on every other Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CARR.

Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.

P. S. Upon my Arrival at Tortola, I had Information of the exact Particulars of the French Ship from the Prefident, which he assured me was well ascertained at St. Thomas's, from which Place she sailed on the 4th Instant, about Twenty-eight Hours before we fell in with her. She proves to be the Grande Decide, Captain Guay, from Guadeloupe, carrying Twenty-two Nine-Pounders, and Two Hundred and Thirty Men, Eighty of which were Soldiers.

SIR,

*Centaur, Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes,
March 7, 1804.*

THE enclosed is a Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Bland, of His Majesty's Ship Heureux, giving an Account of the Capture of a French Privateer to Windward of Barbadoes, with which I beg you to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

SAM. HOOD.

SIR,

*His Majesty's Ship L'Heureux, at Sea,
26th February 1804.*

I BEG to inform you, that this Day, in the Latitude of Barbadoes, and Forty Leagues to Windward, His Majesty's Ship under my Command fell in with, and, after a long Chase, took Possession of the French Armed Schooner Flebustier, pierced for Fourteen Guns, had Six French Sixes, and Sixty-eight Men on board; she is new, sails remarkably fast, and was stowed for a long Cruize, from Guadeloupe; out Fifteen Days, and I could not learn she had made a Capture.

I am, Sir, &c.

LOFTUS OTWAY BLAND.

Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.

Centaur, Carlisle-Bay, Barbadoes, 22d March 1804.

SIR,

I BEG leave to enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, an Account from Captain O'Bryen, of His Majesty's Ship Emerald, and Lieutenant Forrest, of the Capture of the Mosambique French Schooner Privateer, of Ten Eighteen Pounder Carronades, from under the Batteries, near the Pearl, which was executed in a most spirited and steady Manner by Lieutenant Forrest, and those that accompanied him in the Fort-Diamond, on this Service.

I also send Copy of a Letter from Captain Ferris, acting in His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, giving an Account of Two Boats of that Ship, under Lieutenant Furber, attacking the Curieuse French National Schooner, moored, and, I have since learned, chained to the Beach, under a Battery at St. Pierres.

I likewise subjoin the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant King, First of this Ship, now acting in His Majesty's Sloop Drake, to Captain Nash, commanding the Blockade of the North Part of the Island of Martinique, giving an Account of his carrying, with Thirty Men only, the Fort at Trinité, when opposed to much superior Force.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

William Marsden, Esq.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Sloop Drake, off Trinitie, 25th February 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the Night of the 19th Instant, Lieutenant Compton and Mr. Robson, Master, voluntarily offered to bring out of the Harbour of Trinitie, Three American Vessels, that were taking in Cargoes, in Defiance of the Blockade, which they attempted in a very gallant Manner, having Possession of Two Brigs and a Schooner, under the Fire of the Fort, for a considerable Time, but from having no Wind, could succeed only in bringing out the Schooner.

The Anchorage being within Pistol-Shot of the Fort, I saw no Probability of Success if another Effort was made, unless the Fort was reduced; for which Purpose I, last Night, landed with Thirty Men, including Nine Marines, and succeeded in spiking the Guns. Three Thirty-two-Pounders, and Two Field-Pieces, which commanded the Entrance into the Fort.

I am sorry to add, One Seaman expired from his Wound this Morning, and that Lieutenant Compton and One Seaman, are each wounded in the Arm, but are doing very well, which are all that were hurt on the Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. W. KING.

Captain Nash, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Blenheim, March 5, 1804.

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, Two Boats (the Barge and Pinnace) of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, with Fifty Officers and Men, under the Orders of Lieutenant Furber, on the Night of the 4th, made a most gallant, but unsuccessful Attempt, to cut out a French National Schooner, laying close under a Fort at the Town of St. Pierre. She had made formidable Preparations; her Boarding Nettings, being traced up to the lower Mast

Heads, and so fastened, that it was almost impossible to get in, and her Sweeps rigged out on each Side, notwithstanding all this, and the Beach lined with Soldiers, the Forts, an armed Sloop, and several other small Vessels near, keeping up a heavy Fire of Guns and Musquetry, those brave Officers and Men in the Two Boats, persevered and cut her Cables, but it being perfectly calm, she swung and grounded on the Beach, when all Hopes of bringing her out were given up, and from the Number killed and wounded, as per enclosed List, the Commanding Officer very properly ordered the Boats off.

I lament sincerely our Loss, but I trust you, Sir, will think the Character of British Seamen was well supported on this Occasion, for surely never was greater Spirit displayed.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. FERRIS.

*Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.*

A List of Officers and Men killed and wounded in the Blenheim's Boats.

1 Seaman and 2 Marines, killed; 5 Officers, 11 Seamen (Three of which severely), and 3 Marines, wounded; 3 Seamen, missing.

*Off St. Pierre's, Martinique, Emerald,
March 13, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose you a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Forrest, First Lieutenant of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, who I this Morning sent, accompanied by Thirty Volunteers, on board the Fort-Diamond Armed Sloop, with Directions to work to Windward Seas, to enable the Sloop to Weather the Pearl Rock, and to bear down on an Armed Schooner, which had, finding it impossible to get into St. Pierres, this Ship being to Leeward, anchored close in Shore, under the Cover of the Battery at Seron. I at the same Time sent the Boats of this Ship in a different Direction, in order to take off the Attention of the Battery from the Manœuvre in Contemplation, to be performed by Lieutenant Forrest.

It affords me particular Satisfaction to bear Testimony to the handsome and gallant Manner in which this Service was performed, Lieutenant Forrest having laid the National Schooner on board under a heavy Fire from her and the Battery.

In the Performance of this Service great Judgment was exhibited, as, by the Mode of doing it, a Chain, by which she was fastened to the Shore, was broke, Twenty Feet of which is now hanging to the Schooner's Bow. The Crew of this Vessel, finding it impossible to withstand British Intrepidity, jumped overboard and swam ashore, which they were enabled to do from her being moored close to it.

It affords me particular Pleasure to inform you, Sir, that this gallant Service was performed without any Loss on our Part, Two Men only being slightly wounded. I have been rather more circumstantial in this Detail, than perhaps the mere Capture of a Privateer justifies, but I feel I should not do Justice to the gallant Conduct of Lieutenant Forrest, the Judgment he exhibited, the brave and cool Conduct of the petty Officers and Men under his Command, which he speaks of in high Terms, had I neglected relating every Circumstance that took place, which has excited Admiration and Emulation in the Breast of the Spectators, and, Sir, I must beg to add, that the general Conduct of this Officer, ever since he has been under my Command, has been such as to entitle him to my Approbation: This captured Schooner, whose Name I can only guess at from a Letter found on board, the only Paper left, is the Mofambique, commanded by Citizen Vallentes, pierced for Fourteen Guns, Ten Carronades Eighteen-Pounders only mounted; she is from Guadaloupe, and is fitted for a Three Months' Cruize, to all Appearance perfectly new, Copper bottomed and fastened, sails apparently well, and seems calculated for the King's Service.

His Majesty's Ship the Pandour hove in Sight, and closed in sufficient Time to send Two Boats to join in the Diversion intended to be made by those from the Ships. I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES O'BRYAN.

SIR, Fort-Diamond, March 13, 1804.
I HAVE the Honor to inform you that, acting according to your Directions, in His Majesty's Armed Sloop Fort-Diamond, I had the good Fortune to succeed in bringing out the Enemy's Privateer Schooner Mofambique from under the Batteries contiguous to the Pearl; she is pierced for Fourteen Guns, and mounted with Ten Eighteen-Pounders: On seeing us determined to board, her Crew deserted her, after discharging her Broadside and Musquetry; and I observed about Sixty Whites and Blacks in the Water after I had gained Possession; but as you were an Eye-witness to the Service, I can do no more than recommend the Officers and Men you did me the Honor to place under my Command to your most particular Notice, for their gallant and intrepid Conduct, while standing through the Enemy's Fire, and their Activity and orderly Behaviour after Possession. I found her secured with Two Cables and a Chain to the Shore; the former we cut, and the latter she fortunately broke by the Shock in boarding. I have the Happiness to inform you, that we have suffered no Loss.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THO. FORREST.
