count thole new Cultome Houfes (we mentioned is in our laft) have been fet up in feveral places on the Rbine, and have received for answer that it had been done without his knowledge by the Farmers of the Impolts and that he would know of them the reason why they had done it, and if he were not very well latisfyed with it, he would have them to be pulled down again.

Hamburg, Nov. 26. From Stockholme they write, that that Dyet had refolved to grant the Kirg the fupply he demanded, and that they were confidering of the means of raifing it. That at the fame-time the King did wholy apply himfelf for the pating the Army and the Navy into the pollure he defigned; which, as our Letters from Copenbagen tell us, gives the King of Danemarke a jealoufie, and has made him likewife refolve to augment his forces both by Sea and Land, and particularly to raife 7000 Germans. The Danes have evacuated Wifmar. From Saxony we have an account that a perion had been taken, who had defigned to have killed the Elector.

Hague, DEC. 10. The Deputies of the States of Holland are most of them come to Town in order to their reaffembling to morrow: the chief matter before them is the flate of the War for the next year, which it's not doubted but they will approve of, though there is a difcourie, That fome of the Towns think it neceffary to reduce the flanding Forces to a finaller number than they now are. The Letters from Hamburg inform us, That Wilmar was in the hands of the Swedes, and that the Eleétor, of Brandenburg's Troops were marching towards Cleves, and that it was reported they defigded fome enterprize on that fide. In Sweden the matter concerning the re-union of the alienated Crown-Lands is concluded to the Kings fatisfadion Trand the differences between the King of Desmark and the Duke of Hollfern are composed.

Bruffel.s, Decemb, 6. The reform of the Army is at laft concluded, and will be put in execution fo foon as the Pris ce of Parma receives the orders he is expecting from Madrid. The Count d' Archinto and Don Bernardo de Salinas base not as yet been able to effect what they went to Antwerp about; the people there continuing to express a great reif ment of the imprifenment of one of their Burguers, who we told you in our laft was fent to the Caffle of Namur ; and having in reverge thereofarrefted and imprifoned an Officer of the Citadelle for debt.Our Letters both from Lints and Vienna give us great hopes that the Hungarlan-Malecontents will fubmit themfelv. s to the Emperor, upon his promife to reftore to them the free excreise of their Religion, and the other priviledges they enjoyed before the War; and that in the mean time a Cellation of Arms has been agreed to. From Alfree they write that a General Rendevous of the French Dragoons was appointed to be held at Crutznach on the 30th post. Here has been seen for fome days a Comet in the East; and they write from Hylland and Germany that they have likewife feen it.

Bruffells, Decemb, 6. The Prince of Parma continues under his indifpolition, which is a great hinderance to the publicke Affairs and particularly ro the defen his Highnels has of new modelling the Army which is at prefent in great Arrears. The Count d' Archinto who was fent by his Highnefs to endeaver to difpole that City to grant the fubfidies demanded of them, is not yet come back. The Marquis de Bourgomanero is on his departure to the Emperors Court, whither he goes with the Character of Ambaffador Extraordinary from the Crown of Spain. The Duke of Newburg, as our Letters from Francford tell us, is parted from the place of his Refidence on his journey to Lintz, whither he has been invited by the Emperor, in erder to confult with him concerning the Affairs of the Empire. In Hungary things are near an accommodation the Hungarians fubmitting themfelves and begging the Emperors pardon, which they could never before be brought to: and on the other fide the Emperor promifes them the liberty of their Religion with reflitution of their Lands &c- that have been confilcated during the War. It is believed that the French have a defigne upon Strasburg.

Whitebal, Decemb. 4. Thurfday, Yefterday and this day have been taken up with the Lord Staffords Tryal; and The Court is Adjourned till Monday.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majellies Exchequer have Maney in Bank to pay to Number 495 Inclufive. of the Orders Registred on the Second Att for Disbanding the Army.
