AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 8th of
May 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable Sir James Mansfield, Knight, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty, in Council, was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Holmes, of Beoley, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Worcester for the Year One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Room of Edward Knight, of Woolverley, Esq.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 8th of
May 1804,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-first of December last, to prohibit, until the Thirty-first Day of March then ensuing, the Exportation of the several Articles of Provision mentioned in the said Order; and also to permit, for and during the like Term, the Importation, Duty free, of the several Articles of Provision also specified in the said Order, which expired on the Thirty-first of March last; And whereas it is judged expedient that the Permission to import certain Articles of Provision free of Duty should be revived, and be in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue several Laws relating to the suspending the Operation of Two Acts of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty for restraining the Ne-gociation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange; under a limited Sum, in England; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace;" is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

IMPROVEMENT of the PORT and HARBOUR of BRISTOL.

Bristol Dock Company's Office, Broad-Bristol, 1st May 1804.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving and rendering more commodious the Port and Harbour of Bristol," it is enacted, "That from and after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Works thereby authorised to be made and formed shall have been began, and Notice thereof given in the London Gazette and Two Bristol Newspapers, there shall be payable and paid to the said Company, or their Collectors or Deputies, for their Use, certain Rates on the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel entering into the Port of Bristol, (except as in the said Act excepted,) and also for all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever imported from Parts beyond the Seas, but not brought Coastwise, or by Inland Navigation, into the said Port of Bristol (except as therein excepted); and also, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in and for the said City and County of the City of Bristol, at their General Quarter Sessions after the Feast of the Holy Trinity in every Year, and they are hereby empowered and required to order and appoint the further Sum of Two Thousand and Four Hundred Pounds to be raised and levied by a Rate or Payment of all

"Lands, Houses, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the said City of Bristol (as in the said Act is mentioned); and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of each respective Parish and Precinct are thereby required to collect, account for, and pay over the Money apportioned on their Parishes and Precincts respectively to the said Director, or any Five or more of them, or to the Treasurer or Person appointed to receive the same (as in the said Act is mentioned): Provided that nothing in the said Act contained shall authorise the said Dock Company to take or receive any of the said Rates or Duties by the said Act imposed, until the said Company shall have expended and laid out, under the Provisions of the said Act, or some of them, or in carrying the same into Execution, the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, if such Sum shall not have been expended before the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months, as in the said Act mentioned."

And whereas, by virtue and in pursuance of the Power and Authority by the said Act given to the said Company, and in execution thereof, the Directors appointed to conduct and manage the Affairs and Business of the said Company, have this First Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and four, begun the Works authorised by the said Act to be made and formed, and have ordered and appointed us the undersigned Clerks to the said Dock Company to give Notice thereof in the London Gazette and Two Bristol

Newspapers, pursuant to the Directions of the said Statute.

In pursuance, therefore, of the Directions of the said Act, and by Order of the Directors of the said Dock Company, we the undersigned Clerks to the said Dock Company do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the First Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and four, the Works authorized by the said Act to be made and formed were begun.

By Order of the Directors,
GEO. WEBB HALL,
JOHN OSBORNE,
 Clerks to the Dock Company.
