S I R,

HAVING failed from St. Helena on the 9th of July with the Union and Sir William Pultney Extra India Ships, put under my Command as Senior Officer, by Order of Governor Patton, I have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 22d of August, being in the Lat. 48 Deg. 5 Min. North, and Long. 13 Deg. West, at Daylight, a French Brig Privateer came down upon us; and at Eight A. M. engaged the Union, she being the headmost Ship, and struck upon the Eliza and Ann, and the Sir William Pultney's coming up, after an Action of about Twenty Minutes; she proved to be La Venus, mounting Sixteen Guns, Four, Eight, and Twelve-Pounders, with Sixty-eight Men on board, (of her Crew,) commanded by Captain Piere Henry Nicholas Benamy, a Lieutenant in the French Navy, out Eleven Days from St. Ander, had recaptured a Spanish Luggur and Sloop, detained by His Majesty's Sloop Wasp; Five Men of her Crew were Prisoners on board: In the Action the Privateer had One Man killed, and Two badly wounded.

The Privateer parted Company from us in the Night of the 29th, to the Westward of Scilly, and I am in Hopes she will get safe into Port, having only Three Prisoners left on board, the Rest being on board of our Ships.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
