CLARA RESINDRING, late Clara Moß, who resided at Weissenberg, on the Rhine, in the Province of Alsace Sister of John Moß, late of Madras, a Captain in the Service of His Highness the Nabob of Arcot, or in Case of her Decease, her next of Kin or legal Representative, is requested to apply to Mr Dann, Solicitor, Old Broad-Street, London, who is authorized to communicate Information beneficial to her Interests.

THE 10th of July 1804, a Cause was tried before Lord Ellenborough, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's-Bench, and a Special Jury of Merchants, at Guildhall, London, between B. H. Inglish, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, the only Proprietor of that excellent Medicine called Dr. ANDERSON'S, or, THE TRUE SCOTS PILLS, Plaintiff, and John Tyce, of Fleet-Market, Defendant. The Cause of Action was the Defendant's selling a Sort of Scots Pills, wrapped in Papers representing them to be made by Mr. James Inglish, one of the Plaintiff's Ancestors, and as coming from the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand, the Plaintiff's Dwelling-House.—Mr. Erskine opened the Cause for the Plaintiff, Mr. Inglish, with great Judgment and Ability, stating the high Reputation this Medicine has been held in for upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Years, ever since the Invention of it by that skillful and eminent Man Dr. Patrick Anderson, Physician to King Charles the First; and observing on the high Esteem it has been held in by many of the first Physicians since his Time, several of whom have given Mr. Inglish's Family Certificates of its Excellence, recommending it as a most useful Family Medicine.—Mr. Newbery, of St. Paul's Church-Yard, bore Testimony of the great Virtues of this Medicine as prepared by the Plaintiff, and of its high Reputation with the Public; and also of the extensive Sale which he, as a Vender of Genuine Medicines, had for this in particular. Other respectable Persons in the same Way of Business gave Evidence to the same Effect: And it being clearly proved that the Plaintiff and his Ancestors, descended from Dr. Anderson, were possessed of the Genuine and only True Receipt for the preparing this Medicine, and Mr. Inglish's Object in prosecuting the Action being to secure to the Public a valuable Medicine unadulterated, and to prevent Imposition in future, and not to obtain a Sum of Money as Damages to himself, he upon the Suggestion of the Defendant's Counsel, consented to withdraw a Juror, the Court making the following Order:

ENGLISH against TYCE.

It is ordered by the Court, by and with the Consent of the Plaintiff and Defendant, being both present in Court, their Counsel and Attornies, that the last Juror sworn and impanelled in this Cause be withdrawn out of the Pannel; the Defendant undertaking and engaging not to utter, vend, or sell, by himself, or any other on his Behalf, the Medicine in question in this Cause, called "Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills," or "Dr. Anderson's, or the famous Scots Pills," in any Wrapper, Cover, Paper, or Inclosure whatsoever, which shall denote, signify, or exprefs, or bear any Mark to indicate that the same are Pills made or prepared by James English, or any Person of the Name of English, or which were ever uttered, or came from, or sold at the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand: And lastly it is ordered, by and with such Consent as aforesaid, that this Order be made a Rule of the said Court of our Lord the King before the King himself.

THO. LOWTEN.

BY THE COURT.

There was another Cause which came on to be tried the same Day, at the Suit of Mr. English, against Isaac Silcock, of Tottenham-Court-Road, Vender of Medicines, for the like Injury, which was disposed of by a similar Rule of Court.

In consequence of the daily Complaints made at Mr. English's House, in the Strand, of the pernicious Effects resulting from the Use of Scots Pills which are supposed to have been prepared there and vended from thence, but which are in fact Counterfeits, Mr. English has discovered many other Persons who have for some Time past been in the Habit of imposing upon the Public and him, by selling such Trash; and Mr. English had directed his Solicitor to commence Actions against several of those Persons; but upon the Intercession of their Friends, and their solemnly promising not to continue a Practice so deceitful and injurious, he has been induced to forbear proceeding against them.

To caution the Public against purchasing, and all Druggists, Chymists, and Venders of Medicines in particular, against selling spurious Scots Pills, Mr. English has thought it expedient to publish to the World the foregoing established Facts and Authorities, through the Medium of the London Gazette, and many of the Town and Country Newspapers, and by Means of Hand-Bills; and having so done, he hereby gives Notice, that he will certainly bring Actions against all Persons who shall hereafter utter or vend any Pills as or for Scots Pills prepared by him, or coming from his House, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, which are not so.

And, as a further Caution against Counterfeits, Mr. English acquaints the Public, that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant His Royal Authority directing his Arms to be enrolled in the Royal College, and they are as follows, viz.

And every Box is sealed with his Arms and Motto as above; and the Honorable Commissioners of His Majesty's Stamp Duties have ordered, that the Stamp wrapped round the Box shall contain the following Words, "B. H. English, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church," printed with Red Ink, and by a late Act of Parliament the Forgery of the Stamp is Death.

Terms of Sale.—The Pills are sold Retail, at 1s. each Box, Stamp Duty included.

The Box is wrapped in a printed Bill, describing the various Complaints to which the Pills are peculiarly serviceable; and in some Cases they are fully established to be a specific and sovereign Remedy; and all the Wrappers have Mr. English's Arms printed on them, and are signed "B. H. English."

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a certain Cause wherein Daniel Parker Coke, Esq; and others are Plaintiffs, and Dame Mary Every and others are Defendants, et c.
