QUARANTINE.

Custom-House, London, November 9, 1804.

Whereas it is highly essential, for the Preservation of the Health of His Majesty's Subjects, that the several Regulations, respecting the Performance of Quarantine, although at all Times to be most strictly enforced, should, under the present Circumstances, be especially attended to, and the Violation thereof punished with the utmost Severity;

Notice is hereby given, that any Person coming in, or going on board any Ship or Vessel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, who shall presume to land in any Port or Place of the United Kingdom, or who shall quit such Ship, or Vessel, or Boat before he shall be regularly discharged from Quarantine, by Order of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; and any Person who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair to the Lazaret, or other Place duly appointed for the Performance of Quarantine, or shall attempt to escape therefrom before Quarantine shall be duly performed, will thereby become subject to divers Penalties, Forfeitures, and Imprisonments according to the Nature of the Offence, under and by virtue of an Act made and passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty, for the Performance of Quarantine, and in certain Cases be liable, under the said Act, to suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

And Notice is hereby further given, That all Pilots, Fishermen, Boatmen, and all other Persons who shall be in any Manner aiding, assisting, or concerned in bringing on Shore, or conveying from such Ship or Vessel liable to Quarantine, on board any other Ship, or Vessel, or Boat, any Persons coming in or going on board any Ship or Vessel, or bringing on Shore any Letters, Packets, or Parcels from any such Ship or Vessel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, will in like Manner be subject to certain heavy Penalties and Punishments for the said Offences.

And all Persons who shall be guilty of any of the Offences hereinbefore mentioned, will be prosecuted for the same with the utmost Rigour and Severity of the Law.

By Order of the Commissioners,

(Signed) J. Hume, Secretary.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

Dublin, November 6, 1804.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for repealing former Acts relative to the Establishment of a School of Physic in Ireland, for extending and enlarging the Power of the President and Fellows of the King's and Queen's College of Physicians, and establishing a complete School of Physic in this Kingdom, it is enacted,

That every Professorship in said School shall become vacant at the End of every Seventh Year from the Date of the Election.

And whereas it is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, when any of the Professorships, called King's Professorships, in the City of Dublin, upon the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, shall in such wise become vacant, to direct, that such Professorship shall continue to be held for a further Term of Seven Years after the Expiration of the Term for which the Professor so directed to be continued shall have been elected.

Provided always, That the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians shall give Three Months' Notice, previous to the Time at which the Election to such Professorship would otherwise have been held, in the Dublin and London Gazettes of such their Direction.

And whereas the Period of the Tenure of the King's Professorship of the Practice of Medicine, on the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, held by Whitley Stokes, M. D. is expired, the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, have directed, and do hereby publish and declare their Direction, that the aforesaid Whitley Stokes, M. D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of the Practice of Medicine as aforesaid for the ensuing Term of Seven Years, commencing from the Expiration of that Term for which he was elected.

By Order,

HUGH FERGUSON, Register.
