From Saturday November 24, to Tuesday November 27, 1804.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 14th of November 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, to direct, that all Ships and Vessels not having the Plague or other infectious Disorder or Distemper, which shall, by His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, have been declared to be of the Nature of the Plague, actually on board, coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean with clean Bills of Health; and all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, having on board Cotton-Wool, (except Ships and Vessels coming directly from the East Indies, or from the Continent of America, or the West Indies, loaded in Whole, or in Part, with that Commodity, being the Produce of those Parts,) or any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes enumerated in the First Class, stated in the said Order, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Turkey, or of any Place in Africa, within the Straights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, should, together with their Cargoes, and all Persons on board thereof, perform such Quarantine, for such Time, in such Manner, and at such Places as were thereafter directed: And whereas His Majesty was further pleased, by the said Order in Council, to direct, That all such Ships and Vessels, (not having the Plague or other infectious Disease or Distemper which should have been declared as aforesaid, to be of the Nature of the Plague actually on board,) coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, as should not be furnished with clean Bills of Health, should perform Quarantine in Standgate Creek, and no where else; and in case any Ship or Vessel coming from any of the Places before described not being furnished with a clean Bill of Health, should come into any of the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, or to any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, the principal Officers of the Customs at such Ports, or in such Islands, or the Governor or Chief Magistrate thereof should cause such Ship or Vessel to depart from thence immediately, and proceed to Standgate Creek to perform Quarantine:

And whereas His Majesty has received Information, that an infectious Distemper has manifested itself at Malaga and other Ports of Spain, and in the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and has extended itself to the City of Cadiz, in the Kingdom of Spain:

And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent, and for reducing into One Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for making further Provisions therein;" it is amongst other Things enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Royal Proclamation from Time to Time, to declare any infectious Distemper, the Communication whereof may be highly dangerous to the Health of His Majesty's Subjects, to be of the Nature of the Plague; His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Powers, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to declare, and doth hereby declare, That the said infectious Distemper is of the Nature of the Plague, and doth adjudge it probable that such infectious Distemper may be brought to Great Britain and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man from the Ports and Places hereinafter mentioned; and His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, be strictly enforced and extended as hereinafter directed, and that all Officers appointed for the Service of Quarantine do use their utmost Care and Diligence, and cause the several Rules and Regulations established by the said Order, and by this present Order, for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually observed and carried into Execution; and His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, require, and command, That all Ships and Vessels coming from the Port of Cadiz, or from any other Port of Spain, without the Straights of Gibraltar, lying to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandize on board the same, do, and shall perform Quarantine for such Time, in such Manner, and at such Places as are directed by His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Twentyninth July One thousand eight hundred; and that the Master and other Persons having Charge of all such Ships and Vessels do likewise strictly conform themselves in all Respects to the Rules and Regulations required by the said Order, and by this present Order, to be observed by Ships and Vessels liable to Quarantine:

And His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, That no Persons, Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or any small Packages brought as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, or any Letters or Packets, or Parcels of Letters, or other Articles whatsoever, on board any Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels, coming from any Place from whence His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall have judged it probable that the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper declared to be of the Nature of the Plague, may be brought, shall come, or be brought on Shore, or go, or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel, in order to be landed or brought on Shore, in any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, although such Ships or Vessels so coming from such infected Place as aforesaid shall, at the Time of such landing or unshipping thereof, be at Sea, and shall not have arrived in any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, and although such Ships or Vessels may not be bound to any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid:

And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Persons, Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or any small Packages brought as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, or any Letters or Packets, or Parcels of Letters, or other Articles whatsoever, on board any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, coming from any Place from whence His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall have judged it probable that the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper declared to be of the Nature of the Plague, may be brought, shall go, or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel, in order to be landed or brought on Shore as aforesaid, all such Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, small Packages brought as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, Letters, Packets, Parcels of Letters, and other Articles whatsoever, shall perform Quarantine in like Manner as if the Ships or Vessels from which they were unshipped had previously arrived in some Port or Place in Great Britain:

And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Pilot or other Person shall go on board any such Ship or Vessel so coming from such infected Place as aforesaid, or any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, liable to Quarantine, either before or after her Arrival at any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, and whether such Ship or Vessel was or was not bound to any Port or Place in Great Britain or the Islands aforesaid, such Pilot or other Person shall perform Quarantine in like Manner as any Seaman, Passenger, or other Person coming in such Ship or Vessel would if the said Ship or Vessel had arrived at any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, have been obliged to perform the same; and all Ships and Vessels which shall receive any Persons, or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or other Articles whatever, from on board any such Ship or Vessel so coming from such infected Place, and being at Sea as aforesaid, before her Arrival at any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, although such Ship or Vessel shall not be bound to any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, shall, together with the Cargo and Persons on board thereof, perform the like Quarantine, and be subject to the like Regulations and Restrictions, as such Ship or Vessel from which such Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Articles shall have been received, would have been obliged to perform, or have been subject to, if she had arrived at any Port or Place in Great Britain:

And it is hereby further ordered, That all Ships and Vessels coming from any Place from whence His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall have judged it probable that the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper declared to be of the Nature of the Plague, may be brought, and all Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes on board such Ships and Vessels respectively, which, with clean Bills of Health, shall come to, arrive, or touch at any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, shall perform Quarantine in the same Manner, at the same Place, and under the same Regulations and Restrictions, as if such Ship or Vessel had been bound to such Port or Place:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 14th of November 1804,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information has been received that an infectious Distemper prevails in the City of Charlestown, in the State of South Carolina: in the Town of Darien, in the State of Georgia; and at New Orleans, in the Territory of Louisiana: And whereas by an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney-Hill, in the County of Kent, and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for making further Provision therein;" it is, among other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Royal Proclamation from Time to Time, to declare any infectious Distemper, the Communication whereof may be highly dangerous to the Health of His Majesty's Subjects, to be of the Nature of the Plague, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Powers, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to declare, and doth hereby declare, that the said infecious Distemper is of the Nature of the Plague, and doth adjudge it probable that such infectious Distemper may be brought to Great Britain, and the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, from the Ports and Places hereinafter-mentioned; and His Majesty doth therefore hereby order, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes now arrived, or which may hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from Charlestown, in the State of South Carolina; from the Town of Darien, in the State of Georgia; or from New Orleans, in the Territory of Louisiana; or from any Port within the said States of South Carolina and Georgia, or the Territory of Louisiana, and shall have cleared out from any of the said Ports or Places subsequent to the First Day of September last, (not having any Person or Persons on board the same ill of the said infectious Distemper,) do perform a Quarantine of Fifteen Days, at the several Places appointed, and according to the Rules prescribed, by His Majesty's Orders in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, and of this Date, for Performance of Quarantine by all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, or from any Port or Place on the Coast of Spain, without the Streights of Gibraltar, to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, and arriving with clean Bills of Health; but in case it shall appear upon the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel at any of the Ports of Great Britain, or of the Islands aforesaid, which shall have cleared out subsequent to the said First Day of September last from any of the Ports or Places before-mentioned within the Territory of the United States of America; that any of the Crew or Passengers belonging to the same, are actually ill of such infectious Distemper, or any of the Crew or Passengers on board any such Ship or Vessel shall have died of the said infectious Distemper, or have been ill of the same, during the Course of the Voyage, the Clothes and all personal Effects, which are susceptible of Infection, worn by, or belonging to such Person, shall be forthwith burned, or sunk in deep Water; and the said Ship or Vessel, with the Whole of her Cargo, shall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place, except at Standgate Creek, and shall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place, at which the same has arrived, or shall arrive as aforesaid, and shall repair to Standgate Creek, and there perform Quarantine, and not elsewhere; and be subject to all the Rules and Regulations to which Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from Cadiz, or other Ports of Spain, without the Streights of Gibraltar, to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, and not furnished with clean Bills of Health, are subject:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors, or Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Steph. Cottrell.

By the KING.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of this instant November, We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Twenty-seventh Day of this instant November to Tuesday the Fifteenth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and five: And We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Fifteenth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and five, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers urgent and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Fifteenth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and five.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Admiralty-Office, November 27, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port Royal, 30th September 1804.

S I R,

I TRANSMIT you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copies of Two Letters from Captains Gordon, of the Racoon, and the Honorable John Murray, of the Franchise, relating the Capture of L'Alliance and L'Uranie French Privateers.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Brig Racoon, off Bird Key, Aug. 9, 1804.

SIR,
I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you, that on the 1st Instant, in Lat. 20 Deg. 52 Min. N. Long. 71 Deg. 30 Min. W. Sand Key, N. E. by N. distant Seven or Eight Leagues, I had the good Fortune to decoy within Musket Shot, a large French Privateer, who struck after we had fired at him for Three Quarters of an Hour; she proved to be L'Alliance, pierced for Twelve Guns, having only Six mounted, Four Six-Pounders and Two Nines, commanded by Jacques Dunoque, manned with Sixty-eight Men, out Three Days from Samaria, and had taken nothing; she is a fine Vessel, but much cut in her Sails and Rigging, and had only one Man slightly wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. A. GORDON.

Sir J. T. Duckworth. K. B. &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Franchise, at Sea, Sept. 14, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that Yesterday, after a Chase of Eight Hours, His Majesty's Ship Franchise, under my Command, was fortunate to come up with and capture the Uranie French Privateer Schooner, of Three Guns and Sixty four Men, belonging to the City of St. Domingo, out Thirteen Days, and has taken nothing. The Uranie is supposed to be the fastest sailing Vessel in those Seas.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN MURRAY.

Rear-Admiral Dacres, &c. &c. &c.

GOSPORT, HANTS.

TO be sold by Auction, by Henry Hicks, before the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt against William Cole, of Gosport aforesaid, Wine-Merchant, at the India-Arms Inn, in Gosport, on Saturday the 1st Day of December 1804, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, subject to such Conditions of Sale as will be then and there produced, All that newly erected and well accustomed Public-House, called the Castle, situate on the East side of a Place, called the Green, in Gosport aforesaid, as the same is now in the Occupation of James Nation. This House is one of the best Situations for Trade in Gosport, is extremely well built, and has a good Outlet; it is held on a Lease granted by the Lord Bishop of Winchester, for 21 Years, of which 20 Years were unexpired on the 23d Day of September last, at the yearly Rent of 1l. 4s. 4d. which Term may be renewed at the End of every Seven Years, on Payment of a reasonable Fine.

Also, All the Estate, Term, and Interest of the said William Cole of, in, and to all those capital Store-Houses and Wharf, called Phoenix Wharf, situate on the East Side of the Little Beach, in Gosport aforesaid, as the same are now in the Occupation of Messrs. Harry Goodeve and Co. and are held under a Lease granted by William Page, Esq; for 14 Years, of which 12 Years were unexpired on the 6th of August last past, at the yearly Rent of 50l. in Peace, and 120l. in War. This is a most valuable Estate, and well worth the Attention of any Person desirous of carrying on an extensive mercantile Concern; the Storehouses are the best and most commodious in Gosport, as at High Water Boats and Vessels of a considerable Draught of Water may come up to them to load and unload their Cargoes.

TO be sold by Auction, by H. Hicks, at the India Arms Inn, in Gosport, on Saturday the 1st Day of December 1804, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, before the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankruptcy against William Cole, late of Gosport aforesaid, Wine Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, subject to such Conditions of Sale as will be then and there produced, All that capital Messuage or Dwelling-House, situate and being on the South Side of the South-Street, in Gosport aforesaid, with the Coach-House, Stables, and Garden Ground thereto belonging:

This House has been lately nearly rebuilt, is fitted up in a very neat Style, replete with Fixtures, and is in the most perfect State of Repair; it fronts towards Spithead, and commands a most beautiful and extensive View thereof, of the Isle of Wight, and St. Helens; the Coach-House and Stabling are quite new and very commodious, and it is altogether one of the most desirable Situations for a large respectable Family that has offered in Gosport for many Years.

Further Particulars may be known by applying to Mr. John Boswell, Solicitor, Gosport.

Whereas Robert Lewis, formerly of Little Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, deceased, by his Will, made the 6th Day of June 1777, (amongst other Bequests,) gave 300l. Bank Consolidated Annuities to be invested in the Name of Trustees (if not invested in his Lifetime), in Trust, to permit his Brother Evan Lewis and his Assigns to receive the Dividends thereof for Life; and from and after his Decease gave 200l. Part of the said Annuities, to his said Brother's Son Robert, and the remaining 100l. to his said Brother's Son William, in case the said William should be found within Six Months after his the Testator's Decease (he not having then been heard of for some Years): Now in pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Boller against Hancock, all Persons claiming to be entitled to the said Legacies, are forthwith to come in and make out their Claims before John Springett Harvey, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Order.
