Hackney Coach-Office, December 7, 1804.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for repealing the Rates and Fares taken by licensed Hackney Coachmen, and for establishing other Rates and Fares in lieu thereof, and for explaining and amending several Laws relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs;" it was, amongst other Things enacted, That whenever the average Price of Oats made up, computed, and verified, and published in the London Gazette, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the 3rd Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported, should exceed Twenty-five Shillings per Quarter;" it should be lawful for the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, if they should see fit, to cause an Addition to be made to the Rates and Fares in the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, mentioned and allowed to be demanded, received, and taken for the Hire of any Hackney Coach in the Proportion therein and hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, Upon every Rate or Fare amounting to Two Shillings, the additional Sum of Six Pence: Upon every Rate or Fare amounting to Four Shillings, the additional Sum of One Shilling: And so in like Manner upon every Increase of Two Shillings, or any Rate or Fare above the Rate or Fare of Four Shillings aforesaid, the additional Sum of Six Pence for every such Increase of Two Shillings: And it is by the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His said Majesty provided, that such additional Rate or Fare shall not be demandable or payable, or paid in respect of any such Rate or Fare as aforesaid, unless such Coach shall have been taken the full Distance, or kept in waiting the full Period which such Coach might be taken or kept respectively, for such Sum of Two Shillings or Four Shillings respectively, or any such further Increase of Two Shillings as aforesaid, which additional Rates or Fares should and might be recovered in like Manner as any other Rate or Fare for the Hire of any Hackney coach might be recovered:

And whereas the average Price of Oats made up, computed, verified, and published in the London Gazette of the 1st Instant, doth appear to us whose Names are hereunto subscribed, being the major Part of the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, to exceed Twenty-five Shillings per Quarter. We do therefore think fit, and in pursuance of the Power and Authority to us given, in and by the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, direct, that from and after the 21st Day of December instant, an Addition be made to the said Hackney Coach Rates and Fares in the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, mentioned to the Proportion therein mentioned, and allowed to be demanded, received, and taken for the Hire of any such Hackney Coach, under such Terms and Conditions nevertheless as is provided in and by the said recited Act, the said additional Rates and Fares to be, and continue payable until the average Price of Oats so made up, computed, verified, and published as aforesaid, shall be reduced to One Pound One Shilling a Quarter, and for the further Time of Fourteen Days after such the average Price of Oats so published as aforesaid, shall be reduced to One Pound and One Shilling per Quarter, but for no longer Time.
