WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged; and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this Day, the Knights Companions, in their Mantles and Collars, with the Officers of the Order hereafter-mentioned, in their Mantles, Chains, and Badges, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartment; and being called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a Procession was made from thence to the Great Council-Chamber in the following Order:

Earl Camden.

Earl Spencer.

Earl of Carlisle.

Earl of Westmoreland.

Earl of Chatham.

Marquis Cornwallis.

Prince William Frederick.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland. His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

Garter. The Register.

The Prelate.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Register, in the Absence of the Chancellor, read a new Statute, by which it is ordained, that the said Order shall henceforth consist of the Sovereign and Twenty-five Knights Companions, together with such lineal Descendants of the late Sovereign, King George the Second, as shall have been elected, and may hereafter be elected, into the same, always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent Part of the original Institution.

The Register then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stalls in St. George's Chapel at Windsor; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, Garter was commanded to introduce the Duke of Beaufort, who was knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State: The Marquis of Abercorn, the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, the Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and the Earl of Chesterfield, were thereupon successively introduced, and knighted with the like Ceremonies.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the Election; and the Suffrages being collected by the Register, and presented to the Sovereign, Henry Charles Duke of Beaufort was, by His Majesty's Command, declared duly elected. His Grace was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter-Room by the Two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, preceded by Garter bearing the Ensigns of the Order on a Cushion.

Garter presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by the Two senior Knights Companions, buckled it on His Grace's Left Leg, the Register pronouncing the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Ribband with the George to the Sovereign; and, his Grace kneeling, the Sovereign, with the Assistance of the said Two senior Knights Companions, put it over His Grace's Shoulder, the Register, in the mean Time, pronouncing the Admonition; and His Grace having kissed His Majesty's Hand, and saluted the Knights present, withdrew.

After which John James Marquis of Abercorn, George Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, George Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and Philip Earl of Chesterfield were severally elected, and invested with the like Ceremonies.

The Chapter ended, Garter called over the Knights, and a Procession was made back to His Majesty's Apartment in the Order as before.
