XVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That a Night Watch shall be regularly kept, and a sufficient Number of Guard Boats and Officers shall be appointed, for the Purpose of preventing all clandestine Communication between Persons in the Lazaret and those in the Hospital or Pest-House at Chetney-Hill, or other Place that may be there provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or between Persons in the Floating Lazaret, either at Standgate Creek or elsewhere, and Persons in any Hospital-Ship, or any Place that

XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall diligently search the Lockers, Chests, and other Repositories of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships and Vessels, so that no Article so enumerated in either of the said Two Classes, nor any Matter or Thing considered as susceptible of Infection, remain undelivered to the Lazaret, unless what shall be declared by the said Superintendent or Medical Attendant to be requisite for daily Use, and shall see that all the said Chests, Lockers, and other Repositories, and all the Clothes and Bedding in the Ship or Vessel be daily opened and aired in such Manner as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, and shall also make the like diligent Search in Ships and Vessels laden with other Goods not enumerated in either of the said Classes, so as to be able the better to ascertain that nothing enumerated or considered as susceptible, has been left on board.

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may have the Assistance of any Medical Persons they may desire from the Shore, subject to the official Visits of the Medical Attendant, and to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of such Medical Attendant, shall judge necessary; but all such Medical Persons, as well as all others, if they communicate by Contact with the Sick, shall perform the same Quarantine as the sick Persons themselves.

XXVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That after the Quarantine Guardians shall have been placed on board any Ship or Vessel, the Pilot may quit such Ship or Vessel, and be removed to an Apartment in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in the Hospital Ship, provided he comes from a Ship or Vessel having no suspicious Sickness on board; but if otherwise, such Pilot shall be sent to the Pest House, or other place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, at the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and such Pilot shall in both Cases continue under Quarantine until the Probationary Airing of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as hereinafter directed, shall be finished; and at the Expiration of such Probationary Airing, such Pilot, if he continue free from Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: Provided always, that during the Performance of such Quarantine, either on board the Hospital Ship, or at the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Recep-

XLIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations herein contained, shall take Effect and be in Force from the Tenth Day of May next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in force; but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of May, wholly cease and determine.
