I HEREWITH transmit, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter received from Captain Mudge, of the Blanche, acquainting me of his having captured a French Privateer.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Ship Blanche, off Cape Tiberon, April 5, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you with having, this Day, captured the French Schooner Privateer La Hazard, mounting Three Guns and Fifty-eight Men, after a Chase of Twenty-six Hours.

I am, &c. (Signed) Z. MUDGE.

Copy of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Hercule, Port Royal Harbour, April 12, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Le-Geyte, of the Stork, acquainting me, that the Pinnace and Cutter had cut out a Dutch Privateer; also another Letter from Captain Ross, of the Pique, to Vice-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, stating that he had captured His Catholic Majesty's Corvette Orquijo.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Stork, off Mona, March 25, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that the Pinnace and Cutter of the Stork, with Eighteen Men, under the Command of Lieutenant Robertson, assisted by Lieutenant Murray, on the Night of the 23d Instant, cut out of the Harbour of Cape Roxo, in Porto Rico, the Dutch Schooner Privateer Antelope, of Five Guns and Fifty-four Men, Forty of which only were on board, and of that Number but Fifteen were made Prisoners, the Rest making their Escape by jumping into the Water.

As the Antelope was prepared to heave down on the following Day, her Guns, &c. were on board a Brig, alongside of which she was lashed, and from the Circumstance of her Crew being divided between the Two Vessels, and prepared to defend themselves, it became necessary to board them both at once, which was effected in a very gallant Manner, without any other Accident on our Part than that of Lieutenant Murray, and one Seaman being slightly wounded.

Lieutenant Robertson, whom I have always found an active and valuable Officer, appears to have conducted himself upon the present Occasion with great Steadiness, and I have much Pleasure in acknowledging the Sense I entertain of his Merit, as well as that of Lieutenant Murray, and the Seamen employed.

The Antelope is a fine Vessel and a remarkably fast Sailer. I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) G. LE GEYTE.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Dabwood, of His Majesty's Ship Bacchante, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the said Ship at New Providence, 13th of April 1805.

SIR,

I AVAIL myself of the Opportunity of a Packet sailing for England to enclose you a Copy of a Letter which I have this Day transmitted to Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief at Jamaica, giving an Account of my having captured His Catholic Majesty's Schooner La Elizabeth, commanded by Don Josef Fer Fexegron, of Ten Guns and Forty-seven Men. Also of a most gallant Exploit performed by Lieutenant Oliver, in storming and taking a Fort, in order to effect the Capture of Three French Privateers, supposed to be laying in the Harbour of Mariel, on the Island of Cuba, and who, from their piratical Depredations, had much annoyed the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, as well as the Commerce of Neutral Nations; and although the Object of the Expedition was not fully obtained, in consequence of their having failed the Evening previous to the Attack, yet still, I trust, the bold and manly Conduct displayed by Lieutenant Oliver will be honored with the Approbation of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and although Lieutenant Campbell had not the good Fortune to share in the Glory of this well intended Enterprise, yet great Credit is due to his Intentions and Exertions. Lieutenant Oliver speaks in the highest Terms of Commendation of the Spirit and Alacrity of the Honorable Almeida De Courcy, as well as the Whole of his intrepid Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. DASHWOOD.

Bacchante, New Providence, April 13, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, on the 3d Instant, His Majesty's Ship under my Direction captured, off the Havannah, His Catholic Majesty's Schooner La Elizabeth, of Ten Guns and Forty-seven Men, commanded by Don Josef Fer

Fexeyron. She was charged with Dispatches from the Governor of Penfacola, which were thrown overboard previous to her surrendering.

Having received Information that there were Three French Privateers in the Harbour of Mariel, (a small convenient Port, a little to the Westward of the Havannah,) which had annoyed most considerably the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, transiently passing through the Gulph, I determined, if possible, to rout this Band of Pirates; for, from their plundering and ill treating the Crew of every Vessel they met with, most particularly the Americans, they were nothing better; and Lieutenants Oliver and Campbell having, in the most handsome Manner, volunteered their Service on this hazardous Occasion, I dispatched these excellent Officers, accompanied by the Honorable Almericas De Courcy, Midshipman, on the Evening of the 5th Instant, in Two Boats; and as it was absolutely necessary to gain Possession of a Round Tower near Forty Feet high, on the Top of which were planted Three long Twenty-four-Pounders, with loop Holes round its Circumference for Mulketry, and manned with a Captain and Thirty Soldiers, I gave Directions to attack and carry the Fort previous to their entering the Harbour, so as to enable them to secure a safe Retreat. Lieutenant Oliver, the senior Officer, being in the headmost Boat, finding himself discovered, and as not a Moment was to be lost at such a critical Period, most nobly advanced, without waiting for his Friend, landed in the Face, and in Opposition to a most tremendous Fire, without condescending to return the Salutation, mounted the Fort by a Ladder which he had previously provided, and fairly carried it by a Coup de Main with Thirteen Men, leaving Mr. De Courcy, with Three others, to guard the Boat, with an Accident to only One brave Man (George Allison) wounded, who was unfortunately shot through the Body before the Boat touched the Ground, but I am happy to say, from the Care and Attention of Mr. Williams, the Surgeon, he is already rapidly recovering; the Enemy had Two killed and Three wounded.

Lieutenant Oliver, leaving Serjeant Denslow, of the Marines, (who, from his Bravery and good Conduct, deserves great Praise,) with Six Men to guard the Fort, and having been rejoined by Lieutenant Campbell, dashed on to attack the Privateers, but to their great Mortification found they had sailed the Day previous on a Cruise; he was therefore obliged to be contented with taking Possession of Two Schooners, laden with Sugar, which he most gallantly brought away from alongside a Wharf, in spite of repeated Discharges of Mulketry from the Troops and Militia which poured down in Numbers, from the surrounding Country.

I should not have been thus particular in recounting a Circumstance which was not attended with ultimate Success, were it not to mark my Admiration of the noble Conduct of Lieutenant Oliver in so gallantly attacking and carrying a Fort which, with the Men it contained, ought to have maintained its Position against Fifty Times the Number that were opposed; but nothing could withstand the prompt and manly Steps taken by that Officer and his gallant Crew on this Occasion; and as, in my humble Judgment, the Attempt was most daring and hazardous, and had the Privateers been there, I doubt not but Success would have attended them, so I humbly solicit the Honor of Notice to this most gallant Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. DASHWOOD.
