Hungarians, and to keep them from closing with Overtures that are made to them on the part of the Emperor. It is still faid, that the States of Hungary are to mest in March next.

Vienna, Fan. 2. everal Troops of Horfe who came from Hungary, have this week patient through this place; being ordered to goe and take their Quarters in Moravia, where the Officers will be bet er able to recruit their Troops, than they could do in Hungary, where all things are at pre-ent by reafon of the Truce, very quiet; and we hope they will continue to, and that a foli land laing Peace will refore to that Countrestits for mer happinels an i trafiquility. These parts are now for wolly freed of the Plague, that there are not above four Villages in all Aujtria, which are fulficeted to have any Infection remaining in them.

Francfort, fan. 6, We hardly talk or think of any thing but the preparations which the French are faid to be making, which we believe are meant a gainft the Empire; the People are full of fears, and expect a new War, in which opinion the ignorant and credulous are very much confirmed by the feveral ftrange Sights here are reported to have been feen of late, of Men and Armies fighting in the Air, and of Birds of a prodigious bignels, and of other flrange things.

Strasburg, Jan. 7. The French proceed with their Citations, and intendit feems, that way, to bring feveral Princes of the Empire, under their subjection; for if they refuse to appear before the Chambers of Merz and Brifac when they are fummoned, their Lands and Edates are, without any more ado, feiz d on, and disposed of to others; and if they do appear, they mult do Homage and Swear Fealty to the French King and coniequently acknowledge themfeves his Vallals . the Prince of Vaudemont has actually fuffered in the first kind, choosi g rather to loofe his Countrey, than to acknowledge a new Sovereign; to whom he thought he owed no dependance. The Baron de Monclar, and leveral other French Officers are xp & ed here, but it is supp fed will make no long itay.

Cologne, Dec. 10. We are expeding that in a day or two Sentence will be pronous ced againft the old Burgermafters. The Magiffrates and fome of the Commonalty met yefterday, and the day before, as we fuppole about it. This week arrived here from Braffels, William Legg Elq; and yefterday he parted again for Cazal. From the Emperors Court they write, that feveral Deputies were arrived from the Hungarians, that they had not yet had Aud e.ce of the Emperor, but that the Bithop of Scheftini who came with them, had fern the Emperor and his Mi nifters.

Hague, Jan. 17. The ^ctates-General have at prefent but httle bufine's before them, they employ ing most of their time in reading Letters from their Ministers in Forreign Courts. We are told that they have advice from Sweden, that that Crown had finally refolved to proceed to the exchange of the Ratifications of the Treaty concluded between it and this 'tate at Nimeguen The States-General having thought fit to other their Mediation for the composing the differences that are depending between the Poles and the Moscovites, the fame has been accepted by them, and accordingly the States will fend an Ambaffador to perform the Offices of the faid Mediation. The States of Holland will Adjourn to morrow till the 8th of the next Month. We have advice from France, that the Sieur du Luche was fent for to Court to receive the Kings Orders concerning the fitting cu a confiderable iquatron of men of War, to be employed in the Mediterranean.

Paris, Jan. 5. The Dauphin has given over taking the Waters, which he has found much good by, and therefore his leaving them off, is a figmhe has perfectly recovered his health; however, the King will not let him Dance in the great Ball, which is preparing for the Entertainment of the Court in the time of the Carnaval; for that fuch an Exercise may again weaken him. From Rome they write, that the Pope had given Orders that the Cardinal d' Estree should b every where received in the Ecclefialtical Domiions with all imaginable Honors and Refpects; but that notwithflanding it was believed, the Matter concerning the Regality would not be eafly adjuled: the Pope being very politive on bis fide. We are told that the King it is do to have a very good Fleet of men of War in the Mediterranean next Summer; that the Sieur du Quefne will Command it, and that in order thereunto, he is in few days expected at Court.

Plymouth, fan. 11. Here are now in Port, His Majesties Ships the Swallow, Capt. Fowler, Commanders the Guernfey, Capt. Tennet, and the Pearl, Captain Williams, who came from cruifing, to Victual, and when that's done, will return to their flation.

T He Officers of the Receipt of His Majefties Exchequer, have Money in Bank to pay so Number 577 inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the Second 203 for Disbanding the Army.

Advertisements.

L Oft yefterday morning about eleven a clock, out of S_1 . June, is Pa k, a S_1 aniel Dog of His Majefhies, moth White, and the reft Black, having a black foot upon hit Rump, both his Ears black, his Tail formerime fince fhorn, and the Hair formewhat curled. Whoever gives notice of the faid Dog to Mr. C. iffine b at his Lodging in Wbitebal, fhall be well rewarded.

S Tolen the 11th Inftant out of a Stable of Mr. James Brand, one a brown Bay near 8 years old, 14 hands high, well fhaped, his Mane fhorn half way, and almost grown again, bob-tail, a blaze on his kace, a llip down his Nofe, and all his Paces. The other a young one, three years old, near 15 hands high, of a darkifh colour, which will be an Iron-Grey, grizled about the Face, bob Tail, one white Foot behind, a little fwelling on his farther kace before, Trots all; Whofoever gives notice of them, either to the aforefaid Mr. Brund, ort. OM r. Richard banth at the Goate upon Snow-but fhall have 40 s. reward.

S Tolen on Tuelday the 11th Inftant from the Ror-Buck, a Cooks Shop in Ba thelemew law, near the Royal Exchange; a silver Tankard with this Infeription engraven in an Oval, Job Sargeant at the corner of St. Bartholomews lane; with two Bucks embols' Athereon A tall black Man with fhort Hair, fomewhat grizled, is fulforted to have tholen it. Whoever gives notice either of Man or Tankard to Mr. Sargeant aforefaid, fhall have to s. reward.

T Aken away from a Gentleman on the 14th Inftant, near Ingasfon, a Gray Mare, about 14 hands high, near 7 years old, Trots and Gallops, dapell'd molf about her Buttocks and Ribs, Lop-eared, flort cut Tail, fomething foul-headed, with a thin Mane Whoever gives notice of the taid Mare to Philip stowers the Spread-Esgle Arm in Grae -Court firet, or to Andrew Borne/mub of Lewingham in Suffield, that have 20 s. reward, b

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Savoy, 168c.