AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th of July 1805,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing several Laws relating to the regulating the Prices at which Corn and Grain may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and to the Admission to Entry of Oil and Blubber of Newfoundland, taken by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery from and residing in the said Island, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and for revising, amending, and continuing for the same Term, an Act of the last Session of Parliament for permitting the Importation of Hides and other Articles in foreign Ships:" It is enacted, that an Act made in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships," should be, and the same is revised and continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six: And it is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, and in Ireland, for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, and the Privy Council of Ireland, by Order in Council, from Time to Time, to permit until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, any Goat Skins, dressed or undressed, to be imported in any foreign Ship or Vessel, and to be admitted to Entry in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, on Payment of such, and the like Duties of Customs and Excise, as are due and payable on Goat Skins when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel, any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such Goat Skins when so imported shall be subject to all Rules, Regulations, and Conditions, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof to which they would have been liable and subject if they had been imported into Great Britain or Ireland according to any Law or Laws in force at the Time of passing the said Act: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to allow, and doth hereby allow, until further Order, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calve Skins, or Pieces of Calve Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), and Goat Skins, dressed or undressed, in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell,

Westminster, July 2, 1805.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commissions read; and the Commons being come thither,
