Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 6, to Tuesday July 9, 1805.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th of July 1805,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing several Laws relating to the regulating the Prices at which Corn and Grain may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and to the Admission to Entry of Oil and Blubber of Newfoundland, taken by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery from and residing in the said Island, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and for reviving, amending, and continuing for the same Term, an Act of the last Session of Parliament for permitting the Importation of Hides and other Articles in foreign Ships:" It is enacted, that an Act made in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships," should be, and the same is revived and continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six: And it is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, and in Ireland, for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, and the Privy Council of Ireland, by Order in Council, from Time to Time, to permit until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, any Goat Skins, dressed or undressed, to be imported in any foreign Ship or Vessel, and to be admitted to Entry in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, on Payment of such, and the like Duties of Customs and Excise, as are due and payable on Goat Skins when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel, any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such Goat Skins when so imported shall be subject to all Rules, Regulations, and Conditions, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof to which they would have been liable and subject if they had been imported into Great Britain or Ireland according to any Law or Laws in force at the Time of passing the said Act: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to allow, and doth hereby allow, until further Order, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calve Skins, or Pieces of Calve Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), and Goat Skins, dressed or undressed, in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above-mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF
HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to alter and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating, the Port of London, so far as the same relates to the Concerns of the West India Dock Company thereby established; and for extending to other Objects the Compensations directed to be made by the said Act; it is, amongst other Things, enacted as follows, and be it further enacted, That when any One or more of the said Docks, by the said recited Act, and this Act, authorised to be made and built by the said Directors, with the Bafon or Bafons, Quays, Wharfs, Warehouses, and other Works belonging, or to belong, thereto, shall be so far completed, that, in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, the same shall be fit for the Reception of Ships and Goods respectively, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, and he and they are hereby respectively authorised and empowered, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known the same; which Certificate shall be published Three Times at the least in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers then usually circulated in London, and the said Certificate, so published as aforesaid, shall be deemed sufficient Notice to all Parties interested of the Completion of the Dock or Docks, Quays, Wharfs, Warehouses, and other Works, concerning which said Certificate of Approbation shall be made; and from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next ensuing the first Publication of the said Certificate in Manner aforesaid, all the Rates and Duties by the said recited Act, and this Act, made payable to the said West India Dock Company for Ships and Vessels entering into and using any of the said Docks, or any of the Basons and Cuts belonging, or which shall belong thereto; and also for any Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes which shall be landed or discharged from any Ship or Vessel lying within any of the said Docks, or any of the Basons or Cuts belonging, or which shall belong thereto, shall commence, take effect, and become payable; and then and from thenceforth, such of the Quays and Wharfs then made or built by the said Company, as shall be described in such Certificate to be fit for the Reception of Goods, shall be deemed and taken to be legal Quays and Wharfs accordingly; and all the Provisions in the said recited Act as contained, relating to the Increase of Interest or Dividends from and after the Completion of the said Docks, Cuts, Quays, Wharfs, Warehouses, and other Works, and for compelling Ships and Vessels that shall arrive in the River Thames, with West India Produce on board, to unload and land the Whole of such Produce within some or one of the said Docks, or on the Quays or Wharfs belonging, or which shall belong thereto, and for causing the King's Duties, in respect of the same, to be ascertained at such Quays or Wharfs, and not elsewhere; and compelling such Ships or Vessels belonging to or frequenting the Port of London, as shall be used or employed in the West India Trade, to ship or take in their respective Cargoes, and be loaded either in some or one of the said Docks, or in such Part of the River Thames as shall be below the Entrance into the intended Canal at Blackwall aforesaid, shall take Effect, and be in full Force and Operation; and the said Term of Twenty-one Years, during which the aforesaid Provisions are to be in Force, shall commence at and be computed from the Expiration of Ten Days from the Time of the first Publication of the said Certificate as beforementioned; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas by a Certificate under the Hands of the Right Honorable Henry Addington, Nathaniel Bond, and John Hiley Addington, Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, granted on the Twenty-first Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and two, in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the said Lords Commissioners did certify and make known that the following Works, made and erected by the said West India

Dock Company under the Authority of the said Acts of Parliament, were so far completed, that, in their Judgment, the same were fit for the Reception of Ships and Goods respectively, (viz.) The Entrance Bason at the East End of the said Works, the Great Dock, Three Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, numbered 2, 4, and 8, and the Quays or Wharfs from the North Side of the Lock at the East Entrance of the said Dock, along the North Side of the same Dock, and terminating at the North Side of the Lock at the West Entrance of the said Dock:

And whereas by another Certificate under the Hands of the Right Honorable Henry Addington, Charles Small Pybus, and George Thynne, Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, granted on the Twenty-second Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and three, in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the said last-mentioned Lords Commissioners did certify and make known that the following Works, made and erected by the said West India Dock Company under the Authority of the said Acts of Parliament, were so far completed, that, in their Judgment, the same were fit for the Reception of Ships and Goods respectively, (viz.) The Entrance Bason at the West End of the said Works; also Ten additional Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, that is to say, Three large Warehouses, numbered 3, 6, and 7; Three other large Warehouses, (viz.) One Warehouse adjoining the West End of the Warehouse No. 2, and called No. 1; the Second Warehouse covering the Space between the Warehouse No. 4, and No. 6, and called No. 5; and the Third Warehouse adjoining the West End of the Warehouse No. 8, and called No. 9; also Four other smaller Warehouses, the first covering the Space between the Warehouses No. 2, and No. 3; the Second covering the Space between the Warehouses No. 3, and No. 4; the Third covering the Space between the Warehouses No. 6 and No. 7; and the Fourth covering the Space between the Warehouses No. 7 and No. 8; and which said Ten Warehouses, together with the Three Warehouses comprised in the said former Certificate, formed the complete Range of Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, from the West End to the East End thereof, and likewise One other Warehouse at the East End of the said Dock:

We, the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, further certify and make known, that the following Works, made and erected by the said West India Dock Company under Authority of the said Acts of Parliament, are so far completed, that, in our Judgment, the same are fit for the Reception of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, (viz.) Two Warehouses on the South Side of the said Dock, and the Quays or Wharfs on the South Side of the Lock at the East Entrance of the said Dock, along the South Side of the same Dock, and terminating at the South Side of the Lock, at the West Entrance of the said Dock.

Given under our Hands this Fifth Day of July, One thousand eight hundred and five.

BLANDEFORD.

HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty," it is (amongst other Things) enacted as follows: "That it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same, under the Joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, in any Warehouse or Warehouses, situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions directed by this Act: Provided always, that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such Warehouses and other Works belonging to, or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed, that, in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every Respect, for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of this Act, and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized and enjoined, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate shall be published Three Times at least, in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers then usually circulated in London."

And whereas by a Certificate under the Hands of Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and four, the said Lords Commissioners did, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, certify and make known, that the following Warehouses belonging to the West India Dock Company, were so far completed, that, in their Judgment, the same were fit and proper in every Respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as are enumerated and described in the said Table annexed to the said Act of Parliament, marked (A), and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act, viz. All those Thirteen Stacks of Warehouses adjoining each other, and situate on the North Side of the large Dock, belonging to the West India Dock Company, at the Isle of Dogs, forming the complete Range of Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, from the West End to the East End thereof; and the said Lords Commissioners did thereby declare their Approbation of the said several Warehouses accordingly:

And whereas by the Ninth Section of the said

Act, it is further provided and enacted as follows: That if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the Provisions of this Act shall be extended to any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize not enumerated or described in either of the Tables to this Act annexed, and shall cause a List of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of this Act shall extend, and be construed to extend to such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Tables respectively, at the Time of passing this Act:

And whereas by another Certificate under the Hands of Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of March last, the said Lords Commissioners, pursuant to and in Execution of the Powers vested in them in and by the said Act, did thereby declare that it appears to them to be expedient, that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies (excepted in Table (B) annexed to the said Act); and that all Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies, whether the same should have been shipped on board such Vessels in the West Indies, or elsewhere, might respectively be safely and securely deposited in all or any of the Thirteen Stacks of Warehouses hereinbefore described, and remain therein, under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act: And the said Lords Commissioners did further declare, that from and after the Publication of their Certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the Directions of the said Act, all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act, should extend, and be construed to extend to all such Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies, in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in Table (A) annexed to the said Act at the Time of passing the same:

We the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, further certify and make known, that the following Warehouses belonging to the West India Dock Company are so far completed, that, in our Judgment, the same are also fit and proper, in every Respect, for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as are enumerated and described in the said Table annexed to the said Act of Parliament, marked (A,) and also for the Reception of Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies, whether the same shall have been shipped on board such Vessels in the West Indies or elsewhere, in like Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Table (A), as expressed in the said last-mentioned Certificate; and in which Warehouses such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, including Wines as aforesaid, may respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act; (viz.) All those Two several Stacks of Warehouses situate on the South Side of the Large Dock, belonging to the West India Dock Company, at the Isle of Dogs; and we do hereby declare our Approbation of the said Two last-mentioned Stacks of Warehouses accordingly.

Given under our Hands this Fifth Day of July,

The Affidavit, drawn according to the above Form, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a Cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus: "To the Right Hon. the Paymaster-General, at the Horse Guards, London," and to mark in the Corner of the Cover, "Chelsea Pensioners' Affidavits," and Counterparts or Duplicates of the said Affidavits are to be reserved by the Out Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such Persons as shall be directed to pay them, that they may be satisfied that all such as may claim Out Pensions are the real Persons entitled to receive the same.

And to the End that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same Persons who have passed their Examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from, any of the Regiments or Independent Companies of Invalids, are not to mention in their Affidavits such Regiment or Company of Invalids in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army from which they were first discharged and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

And as the General Payments in Great Britain and Ireland, at the End of the ensuing Six Months, are regulated by the Places of Residence mentioned by the Pensioners who are mustered at Chelsea in Person, and in the Body of the preceding Half-yearly Affidavits of those who live at a Distance, it is hereby ordered and directed, that no Person who shall change the Place of his Abode given in at his Muster, or specified in his Affidavit aforesaid, and who may apply for his Pension, (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such Place of Abode,) shall receive the same, unless it appears, by the Certificate of respectable Persons, that such Removal was through unavoidable Necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent; and that any one who may fraudulently attempt to receive a double Payment of the Pension, either at Chelsea or at different Places, shall be struck off the Lists.

Lastly, it is notified, that none will be entered upon the Pay Lists of the Hospital, or be entitled to receive any Benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these Orders and Directions, particularly in sending their Half-Yearly Affidavits to the Paymaster-General, as above directed, and to no other Office; which several of the Pensioners have of late either neglected to do, or sent them irregularly to other Departments.

G. AUST, Secretary and Registrar.

Whitehall, June 26, 1805.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on or about the 27th Day of April 1805, an incendiary Letter was thrown into the Yard of Mr. Robert Stebbing, of Dedham, in the County of Essex, Glazier, threatening to burn the Premises of Edward Clark, of the same Place, Brick-Maker; and also the Barn and Premises of Mr. John Blomefield, of the same Place, Farmer;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof (except the Person who actually wrote the same).
