The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, July 12, 1805.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in Command from His Majesty to express the Satisfaction with which He has observed the Proofs you have given, in the Course of the present Session, of your constant Regard for the Honour of His Crown, and the Interests of His Dominions; and particularly the Measures which you have adopted for strengthening His Majesty's Hands at this important Conjunction, by the Augmentation of the disposable Military Force of the Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has directed us particularly to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the Zeal and Liberality with which you have granted the large Supplies which the Necessity of the Public Service has required.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has not yet been enabled to communicate to you the Result of the Negotiations in which He is engaged with Powers on the Continent; but you may rest assured that no Step will be omitted, on His Majesty's Part, for promoting such a Concert as may afford the best Prospect of restoring general and permanent Tranquillity; or may, if necessary, furnish the Means of repelling with Vi-
