ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

THE increasing Celebrity of Dr. NORRIS's DROPS, for the Cure of every Species of Fever, having caused an Attempt to counterfeit them, it becomes a Duty to warn the Public against such a dangerous Imposition, equally injurious to the Health of those deceived, and to the Character of a Medicine that has stood the Test of Experience near Half a Century. Innumerable are the Instances in which the Benign Influence of these Drops has prevailed, even in the awful Moment of expected Dissolution; a Truth so well attested as to have gained them unprecedented Fame in this Country; to those obliged to visit hot Climates, where the most fatal of Putrid Disorders is prevalent, called the Yellow Fever, they cannot avoid being considered of the first Importance, for in this destructive Malady they stand an unrivalled Specific, and, when properly administered, have never been known to fail; in the Scurvy, Gout, Asthma, and all Disorders arising from obstructed Respiration, they are equally beneficial. Whatever may have been the Evils produced by counterfeit Preparations, it is hoped the Possibility of future Fraud is completely guarded against, as the Name of "Thos. Norris Moore" is, by Favor of His Majesty's Commissioners, engraved on the Stamp round each Bottle,

The Genuine Medicine is prepared only at Dr. Norris's House, No. 29, Lower Brook-Street, Grosvenor-Square, where the Family Bottles, 22s. are to be had, and all Orders for Exportation duly executed; smaller Size Bottles at 11s. and 2s. 9d. Sold Wholesale and Retail by Messrs. Bacon and Co. No. 150, Oxford-Street, opposite Bond-Street.
