Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 13, to Saturday August 17, 1805.

AT the Court at Weymouth, the 15th Day of August 1805,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-second Day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Thursday the Seventeenth Day of October next.

By the KING.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For pardoning such Seamen and Marines as have deserted, and shall return into His Majesty's Service on or before the Tenth Day of October next.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are desirous to give all due Encouragement to such Seamen as may have deserted from any of Our Ships since the Sixteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and three; and shall be willing to return to Our Service; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby promise Our most gracious Pardon to all such Deserters as shall repair on board any of Our Ships or Vessels on or before the Tenth Day of October next; and We do hereby further promise Our most gracious Pardon to all such Seamen as, having deserted, are now belonging to some one of Our Ships; and We do also hereby promise Our most gracious Pardon to all Marines who may have deserted from Our Service since the said Sixteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and three, and shall, on or before the said Tenth Day of October next, surrender themselves at the Head-Quarters of the Royal Marines established at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of Our said Forces; and We do hereby declare, that all Seamen and Royal Marines, so surrendering themselves as aforesaid, shall be released and discharged from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred by reason of any such Offences, but that such Pardon shall not entitle Deserters, whether Seamen or Marines, to any Arrears of Pay forfeited by such Desertion; and We do hereby further declare, that all such Deserters, whether Seamen or Marines, who shall not, on or before the said Tenth Day of October next, surrender themselves on board One of Our Ships or Vessels of War, or at the Head-Quarters of the Royal Marines established at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to some Recruiting Party of the said Forces, or who shall hereafter absent themselves from the Ships to which they belong, or from the Marine Quarters, without Leave from their Commanding Officers, shall be tried at a Court Martial, and, being found guilty, shall be deemed unfit Objects of Our Royal Mercy, and shall suffer the Punishment of Death, or such other Punishment as they shall be condemned to suffer by Sentence of the said Court.

Given at Our Court at Weymouth, the Fifteenth Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Weymouth, the 15th Day of August 1805,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for making further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine;" it is, amongst other Things enacted, That whereas certain Sorts of Goods and Merchandize are more especially liable to retain Infection, and may be brought from Places infected into other Countries, and from thence imported into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, all such Goods and Merchandize as shall be particularly specified for that Purpose in any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors in Council, concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection as aforesaid, which shall be brought or imported into any Port or Place in Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, from any foreign Country or Place, in any Ship or Vessel whatever, and the Ships or Vessels in which the same shall be brought, and also all Ships and Vessels which shall arrive from any Port or Place whatever, under any alarming or suspicious Circumstances as to Infection, shall be subject and liable to such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be made by such Order or Orders of His Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors in Council as aforesaid, respecting the same: And whereas Rags are an Article more especially liable to retain Infection; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to order, That upon the Importation of any Rags into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, whether the Ships in which such Rags shall be imported shall be subject to Quarantine or not, such Rags shall in all Cases (except as hereafter excepted and provided) be subject to the Performance of special Quarantine, and shall be unpacked, opened, and aired on board the Lazaret in Standgate Creek, or on board Lighters, or other proper Vessels at the Out-Ports, (as the Case may be,) for the Space of Forty Days before the same are discharged; provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that in case such Rags shall have been imported in any Ship or Vessel coming from the Ports of Hambro' or Bremen, or from any of the Ports to the Northward thereof; and in case a special Declaration, authenticated upon Oath, and certified in the Mode directed by Sec. 42, of His Majesty's Order in Council of the Fifth Day of April last, respecting the Quarantine of Goods enumerated in the First Class of the said Order, and brought from any Port or Place in Europe without the Streights, or on the Continent of America, at which there is not a regular Establishment for the Performance of Quarantine, declared sufficient by His Majesty in Council for that Purpose, shall have been produced to the Superintendent of Quarantine at Standgate Creek, or to the proper Officers of the Customs at the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, (as the Case may be,) shewing that such Rags are brought from the Port where the same have been shipped, and are the Produce of, or collected from such Port, or the Interior of the Country, and have undergone the Process there usual of having been stacked; and if such Rags shall, as soon as they can be come at, be taken out of the Ship importing the same, and be put on board Lighters, (in case the said Ship is bound to the Port of London,) to be sent to Standgate Creek, or (if bound to any of the Out-Ports,) to be sent to the Quarantine Station, appointed for such Ports respectively, to be there unpacked, opened, and aired for the Space of Fifteen Days; and if the same shall be cleaned Rags, then, after having been so unpacked, opened, and aired as aforesaid, for the Space of Fifteen Days, such Rags shall be discharged:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Rainier, late Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the East Indies, to William Marsden, Esq; dated Trident, Madras-Road, March 9, 1805.

SIR,

I FEEL the highest Gratification in having the Pleasure to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, Copy of a Letter I have very recently received from Captain Henry Lambert, of His Majesty's Ship St. Fiorenzo, containing the Particulars of his Success in taking the French National Frigate La Psyché, Captain J. Bergeret, preceded by a very active Pursuit. The Loss of Men on both Sides is great, but, as usually, much more so on board the Enemy. It adds much to the Honor and Credit of Captain Lambert, his Officers and Crew, that the Character of Captain Bergeret stands high in the French Navy, being the same Officer who commanded La Virginie, when captured by Sir Edward Pellew in the Indefatigable, to which may be added the increased Annoyance sustained by the St. Fiorenzo, from the great Support given the French Frigate by L'Equivoque Armed Ship. But I cannot help expressing myself much pleased with the animated and spirited Resolution taken by Captain Lambert, for renewing the Attack, which was only prevented by Victory, as Attempts of that Kind have been generally found to be successful, evincing the superior Valour of British Sailors, and exhibiting a most laudable Example for Imitation to the Service in general. All the Trading Part of His Majesty's Subjects throughout India rejoice on the Occasion of this Capture, as being more apprehensive of Depredations on their Trade from Captain Bergeret's Abilities and Activity, than from the whole remaining Force of the French Navy at present in these Seas united.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

PETER RAINIER.

SIR, St. Fiorenzo, Kedgeree, Feb. 17, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you of my Arrival this Day off the Sand Heads, after having proceeded to the Southward, in consequence of a Letter received the 8th Instant from the Chief Secretary of Government, acquainting me of a suspicious Vessel having appeared off Vizagapatam, supposed to be the National Frigate Psyché, and requesting, in the Name of his Excellency the Governor-General in Council, that I would either proceed towards that Place, or otherwise, as I might consider most expedient to the Advantage of the public Service; I therefore thought that I should not be exceeding the Limits of your Orders by pursuing such a Course as I conceived most probable of intercepting the said Vessel, should she be bound to the Northward and Eastward.

On the 13th Instant, at Six A. M., in Latitude 19 Deg. 35 Min. N., Longitude 85 Deg. 25 Min. E., I had the Satisfaction to discover Three Sail at Anchor under the Land, who shortly after weighed and made Sail to the Southward; I plainly observed that one was a Frigate, and the other Two apparently Merchant Ships. I continued the Chase until Half-past Seven P. M. the following Day, when coming up with the sternmost Vessel, she proved to be the Thetis, Country Ship, Prize to the French Frigate La Psyché, of Thirty-six Guns, and Two Hundred and Forty Men, under the Command of Captain Bergeret, then a-head at a short Distance. Finding the Enemy had abandoned the Thetis, I left a Midshipman in Charge, and continued the Chase after the Frigate, then making off under all Sail. At Ten Minutes past Eight commenced close Action, at the Distance of about Half a Cable's Length, and continued so until Half-past Eleven, at which Time, finding all our running Rigging very much cut up, hauled off to repair the same. At Midnight, bore up to renew the Conflict; but, just as we were about to recommence our Fire, an Officer from the Enemy came on board to inform me Captain Bergeret, from Humanity's Sake for the remaining Survivors, had struck, though he might have borne the Contest longer. During the Action we were occasionally annoyed by the Fire of L'Equivoque Privateer, of Ten Guns and Forty Men, commanded by a Lieutenant. She proved to be the late Pidgeon Country Ship, fitted out by Captain Bergeret as a Privateer; which Vessel, from sailing very well, I am concerned to acquaint you, effected her Escape in the Course of the Night.

I beg Leave to observe, from the able Support which I received during the Action from Lieutenants Doyle, Dawson, Collier, and Davies; Mr. Findlayson the Master, and Lieutenant Ashmore, of the Marines, as well as the Rest of the Ship's Company, who displayed the most gallant and spirited Conduct on the Occasion, merit my warmest Encomiums. I also feel it a Duty incumbent on me to recommend Mr. Doyle, my First Lieutenant, to your Attention, from his meritorious and exemplary Behaviour throughout the Contest. I am grieved to relate that Lieutenant Dawson is dangerously wounded in the Breast with a Boarding Pike while in the Act of boarding.

Enclosed I transmit a List of the Killed and Wounded of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, also of the late French National Frigate La Psyché. I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. LAMBERT.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Shark, at Port Royal, 3d July 1805.

SIR,

HEREWITH you will receive the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Benarding, commanding the Sandwich Cutter, to Captain Dashiwood, of the Bacchante, acquainting him of the Capture of Three Privateers.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Cutter Sandwich, at Nassau,

SIR, New Providence, May 21, 1805.

IN consequence of your Order of the 21st Ultimo, I proceeded on the Cruise directed, in Company with the Nassau Schooner, and on the 6th Instant, the West Caicos bearing E. S. E. about Eight Leagues, we fell in with and captured the French Armed Schooners La Renommée, mounting Three Guns, One long Nine, and Two Sixes, having on board Fifty-six Men; and on the 7th, La Rencontre, mounting Two Guns, Four-Pounders, and Forty-two Men; as also La Venus, with One Gun and Thirty-five Men.

I should have continued to cruise for a greater Length of Time, but was forced to return from the great Number of Prisoners.

I am, &c.

(Signed) C. D. BENARDING.

Captain Dashiwood, Bacchante.

Admiralty-Office, August 17, 1805.

Copy of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres to William Marsden, Esq; dated Shark, Port Royal, 5th July 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Atkins, of the Seine, acquainting me of the Barge, commanded by Lieutenant Bland, of the Marines, having captured an Armed Spanish Felucca.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

SIR, Seine, off Aquadella, June 18, 1805.

LIEUTENANT BLAND, of the Marines, commanding the Seine's Barge, returned this Morning from a short Cruise, in which he destroyed a Spanish Sloop, and captured the Conception, a large Spanish Felucca, of Two long Four-Pounders, and Fourteen Men, after an Action of Three Quarters of an Hour; the Enemy had Five Men severely wounded; and, I am happy to add, not a Man was hurt in the Barge.

This is the Second very gallant Dash of Mr. Bland since our Arrival here; in both he has acquired much Credit, and he speaks in the strongest Terms of the Gallantry and good Conduct of Mr. Edward Cook, Midshipman, who accompanied him, and of all the Boat's Crew. The Felucca is laden with Cocoa and Cochineal, and was bound from Porto Rico to Cadiz.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

D. ATKINS.

MR. LANE, F.R.S. and Member of the Apothecaries Company, finding that his Patent Graduated Measures have been imitated and sold, gives this Notice, that hereafter all his Measures, after being examined, will be sent to Apothecaries Hall. An engraved Evidence of their coming from the Hall will be pasted on them before sold. Mr. Lane hopes, by this Means, to prevent Merchants, Venders, and Buyers, from being deceived by such false Measures, as were detected by the Censors of the Royal College of Physicians, in the Years 1800 and 1801, which induced him to have a Patent, in order to prevent the Consequences that might follow the compounding Medicines in uncertain Proportions.

ALL Persons having any Claims against the Estate of Mrs. Susannah Waldo, late of Wanstead, in the County of Essex, deceased, are desired to send the Particulars thereof to Mr. Humphry, Solicitor, Harpur-Street, on or before the 1st Day of October next; at which Time the Executors will proceed to the Appropriation of her Estate and Effects according to the Directions of her Will.

Whereas Oakley Green, late of Bracon Ash, in the County of Norfolk, Farmer, lately deceased, did by his Will, bearing Date the 17th Day of May 1804, give unto Hannah Dunham the Sum of 200l. to be paid by his Executors at the End of Twelve Months after his Decease; and which Twelve Months have elapsed; if, therefore, the said Hannah Dunham, the said Legatee, will apply at the Office of Mr. Steward, Solicitor, Surrey-Street, Norwich, the said Legacy will be paid to her.
