

Hague, Jan. 24. The Province of Utrecht has agreed to the State of the War for the present year; and that the States-General have resolved to call upon the other Provinces, that they will likewise give their consents without any delay. The Prince of Orange is gone for Soesdike to pass some few days there: The Sieur Fuen Mayor the Spanish Minister has presented a Memorial to the States, complaining, as is said, of the proceedings of the French. The Heer Van Dieft is expected here within few days, who succeeds the Heer Romswinkel as Envoye Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg. Mr. Skon who arrived here some days since, parted again last Saturday for Rotterdam to embark there on an English Yacht.

Brussels, Jan. 14. The Prince of Parma is sending Commissioners into the several Provinces to muster the Troops, and when that is done the great Reform will be put in execution. Yesterday his Highness was abroad for the first time since his recovery. The States of Brabant have Adjourned their meeting for some days, that his Highness may in the mean time, if he think fit, Assemble the Nations of this C. ty.

Brussels, Jan. 17. Yesterday we received an account from Lovain that they have settled there the matter of the Imposts, and we expect the like will be done here the next week. Last night the Sieur Christin, the first of the Spanish Commissioners for the adjusting the Limits, arrived here from Courtray, having for two Months together expected Monsieur Pelleuvers return from Paris, who being the Chief of the French Commissioners, the others in his absence, would not renew the Conference, though their Powers did sufficiently authorise them to do it, so that it seems the French have no mind to bring this matter of the Limits to a conclusion. Two days since Monsieur Corfeth the Intendant of Tournay arrived here, he comes again about the Affair of Bovines.

Brussels Jan. 21. On Sunday last Monsieur Corfel parted again from hence, and went for Paris, with his Highnesses Answer concerning Bovines, which was, That every Prince might Fortifie any place within his Territories, as he thought fit; That for what concerned Bovines they had not Fortified it, but only put up some Palisadoes to keep the Soldiers from deserting, that if there was any thing disputable concerning the Place, or the Limits on that side, his Highness was ready to refer it to the Commissioners at Courtray, whose proper business it was to determine it. His Highness having by the last Spanish Ordinary received the necessary Orders concerning the General Reform, which has been so much spoken of, it is believed the same will now very speedily be put in execution; and when that is done his Highness resolves that the constant standing Forces of these Provinces shall be 25000 men, and these he will take care shall be punctually paid, which will be more for the service of these Countrys than a far greater Army in the condition our Troops have formerly been in. The City of Gaunt it seems pretends to a privilege of having the Guard of their Gates, which his Highness will by no means allow them.

Windfor, Jan. 21. This day Charles Count Palatine of the Rhine, and Prince Elector of the Empire, who, in a Chapter held at Whitehal on the 15th of September last, was chosen into the Society of the most Noble Order of the Garter, was solemnly Installed in the Quire of the Royal Chappel within the Castle of Windfor, in the 4th Stall on the Princes side, the Earl of Craven being his Proxie; and the Earl of Oxford, and the Duke of Albemarle, Knights-Companions of that most Noble Order, being Commissioners specially Constituted by His Majesty, as Sovereign, for the performance of this great Ceremony.

Whitehal, Jan. 22. His Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to Confer the Honor of Knighthood upon Sir George Treby Recorder of the City of London.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer have Money in Bank to pay to Number 589 Inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the Second Act for Disbanding the Army.

Advertisements.

The Tryal of William Viscount Stafford for High Treason, in Conspiring the Death of the King, the exirpation of the Protestant Religion, The Subversion of the Government, And Introduction of Popery into this Realm, upon an Impachment by the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in Parliament Assembled, in the Name of Themselves and all the Commons of England: Begun in Westminster-Hall the 30th day of November 1680, and continued until the 7th of December following, on which day Judgment of High Treason was given upon him. With the Manner of his Execution on the 29th of the same Month. Printed by His Majesties Printers.

A Newyears-Gift: Composed of Prayers and Meditations, with Devotions for Several Occasions. The Second Part. Sold by Simon Neale, at the Three Pidgeons in Be ford-street, over against the New Exchange.

Robert Pash Stationer, at the Stationers Arms and Ink-Bottle on the North side of the Royal Exchange, London: Hath made a Choice Sort of Black Ink in Hard Balls, with that Conveniency, that you may wear them about you, without any Damage to the Ink, or your Linnen. Cut a little of it into a Spoon with fair Water, or any Wine (except Red) and it will be immediately fit to write with. It is brought to that Goodness, it is fit for Records. The longer you keep it in Ball, Liquid, or in Writing, the better it grows. The Price is Six Pence a Ball And they are for Quality and Quantity cheaper than any other Ink. Sold only at his own Shop.

Taken out of Stable-yard nigh St. James's the 20th Instant a Brown Gelding near 15 hands high, about 10 years old, all his Paces. his hind Feet white, a white Star, and a Farcy-mark on his Breast, the hair of his Nose rubbed off, some white Saddle spots; likewise a Hog-skin Saddle, trim'd with Green and Silver Fringe; Whoever gives notice of the said Horse to Mr. Witcox at the Eagle and Chud in the 1st-Mall near St. James's, or to Mr. Richardson at the Goat in Long-lane nigh Smiths, do so as he may be had again, shall have 3 l. reward, and all his charges born.

Lost out of the Ground of Mr. Richard Pimney at East-Ham in Essex, on Saturday the 15th Instant, A bright Bay Gelding, near ten years old, near 15 hands high, all his Paces, but Paces most, some white Saddle-marks, his Wind touch'd, new load, his Shoes marked with S at the Toe, he hath had a Quarter taken out of his near foot before within-side; Whoever gives notice of the said Gelding to the above-said Mr. Pimney, or to Mr. Thos. Pecher in His Majesties Mews, London, shall be well rewarded for their pains,