A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-eighth Day of this instant November, We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Twenty-eighth Day of this instant November to Tuesday the Seventh Day of January next: And We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Seventh Day of January next, be held, and sit for the Dispatch of diverse urgent and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Seventh Day of January next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Seventh Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the indispensable Duty which We owe to Almighty God, for the recent and signal Interposition of His good Providence, in addition to the manifold and inestimable Benefits which these Kingdoms have from Time to Time received at His Hands, manifested by the Blessing bestowed on Our Arms in the late signal and important Victory obtained by Our Fleet under the Command of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, have thought fit; by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Thursday the Fifth Day of December next; and, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops, of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to the Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of public Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as We may justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Seventh Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
