GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixteenth of May, One thousand eight hundred and three, We were pleased to promise and declare, among other Things, That all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as Our Royal Bounty: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounty has been by several Orders in Council prolonged to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive: And whereas it has been represented to Us that much Advantage would arise to Our Service if the said Bounty were extended to such young Able-bodied Landmen as may hereafter enter themselves to serve on board Our Fleet, upon Proof being exhibited of their being not less than Eighteen Years of Age, instead of Twenty Years; We do hereby promise and declare, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that all Able-bodied Landmen so entering themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive, shall be entitled to receive Our said Bounty of Thirty Shillings each Man, upon Proof being exhibited that such Able-bodied Landmen are not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years: And whereas, by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixth of February last, We were pleased to promise and declare, that, instead of the Reward theretofore paid

Every Deserter not actually serving in any of His Majesty's Regiments is to surrender himself for General Service.

Deserters serving in other Corps, (Militia, and Army of Reserve excepted,) are to continue therein upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, who are to report the Circumstance to the Secretary at War and the Adjutant-General, and they shall not be liable at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: but this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps for raising Recruits for general Service, which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon, on declaring themselves to be such, and will be transferred to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command.

NORTHERN LIGHT-HOUSES.

Notice to Mariners, of a Revolving Light on the Island of Sandy in Orkney.

THE Beacon, or Tower of Masonry, erected in 1803, upon the Start Point of Sandy, situate in the County of Orkney, in North Lat. 59 Deg. 31 Min. and West Long. 2 Deg. 15 Min. not having been found to prevent the numerous Wrecks which happen upon the low Shores of that Island, has been converted into a Light-House, which will be lighted upon the Night of Wednesday the 1st Day of January, 1806, and thereafter each Night, from the Expiration of Day-light in the Evening, until Day-light in the Morning.

By the Compass, North Ronaldsay Light-House bears from the Start Point, N. N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. Distant Eight Miles, and the Lamb Head of Stronsay S. W. distant Fifteen Miles.

The Light will be from Oil, with Reflectors, visible from every Point of the Compass, and elevated above the Level of the Sea at high Water of Spring Tides, One Hundred Feet, of which Height the Building forms Ninety Feet; and that this Light may be distinguished from all others on the Coast, the Reflectors are made to revolve once in every Two Minutes, exhibiting Light One Minute, and disappearing the next, an effect fully sufficient for the Purpose, as the Light increases from Darkness to full Strength during one Minute, and, during the next, declines in Strength to total Darkness.

By Order of the Commissioners for erecting Light-Houses on the Northern Parts of Great Britain,
G. Cuningham, Conj. Clerk.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such barbarous Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who made the Attempt with the Knife,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
