A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixteenth of May, One thousand eight hundred and three, We were pleased to promise and declare, among other Things, That all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as Our Royal Bounty: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounty has been by several Orders in Council prolonged to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive: And whereas it has been represented to Us that much Advantage would arise to Our Service if the said Bounty were extended to such young Able-bodied Landmen as may hereafter enter themselves to serve on board Our Fleet, upon Proof being exhibited of their being not less than Eighteen Years of Age, instead of Twenty Years; We do hereby promise and declare, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that all Able-bodied Landmen so entering themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive, shall be entitled to receive Our said Bounty of Thirty Shillings each Man, upon Proof being exhibited that such Able-bodied Landmen are not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years; And whereas, by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixth of February last, We were pleased to promise and declare, that, instead of the Reward theretofore paid
