To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Humility and profound Respect; to present to your Majesty our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on the late glorious and important Successes achieved by your Majesty's Fleets over those of the Enemy; particularly on the brilliant and signal Victory so recently obtained over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, near to Cadiz, by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of that highly-renowned Naval Commander Lord Viscount Nelson, as well as in every other Quarter where the Ships of the Enemy have been encountered by those of your Majesty.

While we thus participate in the Joy universally diffused over your Majesty's Dominions by the Continuance of a Series of Victories, which has raised the Naval Glory of Great Britain to so much Splendour, and afforded so great Security to these Realms against the daring Efforts of unprincipled Enemies, permit us, gracious Sovereign, to express our heartfelt Grief and Regret for the heavy national Loss sustained on this Occasion by the Fall of that eminent Hero, whose whole Life was devoted to the Service of his Country; whose Actions were distinguished by all that was great and illustrious; whose Character was displayed in Traits that shone with the greatest Splendour, and whose Name and Memory will be transmitted to future Generations, cherished and respected with the warmest Gratitude, while there is on Earth a British Heart.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to testify our most sincere Gratitude to that over-ruling Providence, which has rendered your Majesty's Arms so eminently triumphant, and distinguished your People by those peculiar Blessings which they so fully enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

That it may please the supreme Ruler of the World to continue to your Majesty's Arms that

Course of Victory from which so much Glory has redounded to the British Name; and that the Enemy at last, humbled by repeated Defeats, may soon be brought to adopt those Terms of Peace which are compatible with the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, with the Security of your Dominions, and with the Happiness of your People, are the fervent Wishes and Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and the Common-Seal hereto affixed. at Aberdeen, the 23d Day of November, 1805 Years,

A. Brebner, Provost.

[Transmitted by James Farquhar, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City of Aberdeen]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord, Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest Congratulations on the recent signal and glorious Successes obtained by your Majesty's Seamen over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain. While, along with our Fellow-Subjects, we deeply deplore the Death, in the Arms of Victory, of that brave Man who so often humbled the Pride of your Majesty's Enemies; we raise our Thoughts in Gratitude to the God of Battles, who has so often extended his Shield over your Majesty's People: And we contemplate with a Satisfaction, which Words cannot express, the high Importance of a Victory which frustrates the favourite Schemes of our implacable Foe, which places on a still firmer Basis the maritime Power, and the Commercial Prosperity, of the British Empire, and which exhibits a glorious Example to your Majesty's Continental Allies of what may be achieved by Skill and Valour in checking the Progress of inordinate and lawless Ambition, and in restoring that Balance of Power, the Maintenance of which is so necessary for securing the Liberties and national Independence of the European States.

To this Part of your Majesty's Empire, in particular, the Annihilation of that proud Fleet, which so recently threatened the Devastation of our Colonial Possessions in the West Indies, is an Event singularly interesting. And, on such an Occasion, we feel ourselves peculiarly called upon to renew to your Majesty the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; while we express our ardent Wishes and our Hopes, that the Exertions of your Majesty, and of your powerful Allies, at this eventful Period, may be ultimately attended with such Success as will secure to your Kingdoms an honorable and a lasting Peace.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and a happy People, and may transmit to your Majesty's, and to your Subjects' latest Posterity the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, is our fervent Prayer.

Signed, and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the said City, in Council assembled at Glasgow, the 23d Day of November, 1805 Years, by John Hamilton, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost of the said City of Glasgow]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach the Throne to testify our Joy, and offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulation, on the glorious Victory obtained over the Combined Fleet of France and Spain, off Cape Trafalgar, by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of the ever to be lamented Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson. A Victory so complete, as must convince all Europe that the invincible Spirit of British Seamen, under the Conduct of resolute and skilful Commanders, is equal to the greatest Enterprizes.

At the Time we thus offer our sincere Congratulation on this important Occasion, we cannot forbear condoling with your Majesty, and our Fellow-Subjects, on the Loss of a Commander under whom this signal Victory has been achieved. His great Name, and transcendent Services to his King and Country, will long remain in the Memory of your People, and for ever to Posterity in the History of this Kingdom.

Whilst we deplore the Loss of a Hero, and the gallant Officers, Seamen, and Marines, who fell in the Action, we derive great Consolation from bearing in our Minds the important Services of the many great Naval Commanders still surviving, whose Skill and Intrepidity have been often conspicuous; and our Gratitude is not wanting to Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood (on whom the chief Command devolved) for his eminent Services, by the distinguished Part he took in the Action, and his Magnanimity and Conduct in a most critical Situation, and arduous Employment afterwards. And we take this Opportunity humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the late brilliant Action, by a Squadron of your Majesty's Ships under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard John Strachan, Baronet, with a Squadron of the Enemy, and the Capture of Four French Ships of the Line.

Having a perfect Confidence in your Majesty's constant Attention for the public Good, we trust that the Operations of your Forces, by Sea and Land, will be so vigorously directed, as to restrain the Passion for Conquest, and unbounded Ambition of the Government of France; secure to this Nation the Commerce of your Subjects, and, by the Example of your Majesty and your Councils, the Rights, Liberties, and Happiness of Europe may be effectually preserved and maintained.

[Transmitted by Evan Baillie, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Petition of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, convened by public Notice of the High Sheriff, at Epsom, on Thursday the 21st Day November, 1805.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the late memorable Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

Whilst we regret, most sensibly and poignantly, the ever to be lamented Loss of the gallant Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, in the Arms of Victory, after a Life of brilliant and most unparalleled Successes; whilst the transcendent Virtues of this illustrious Hero claim and receive the Veneration and Gratitude of his affectionate Countrymen, we cannot, as Britons, refrain the Expressions of our Joy on the brilliant Successes of your Majesty's Arms, so important in their Consequences to the Nation, and so honorable to British Valour; nor can we withhold our Tribute of grateful Admiration so justly due to Admiral Lord Collingwood, his Officers and Men, who so gallantly and effectually seconded the noble Efforts of their respected Commander;—nor can we doubt that his heroic Example will be imitated by future Commanders of your Majesty's Fleets, and that the glorious Pre-eminence of the British Navy will be maintained, so as to bid Defiance to the Attempts of the Enemies of Great Britain.

Signed at the Request, and on Behalf of the County of Surrey, by me

Robert Chutfield, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Robert Chutfield, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County of Surrey.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Southampton, beg Leave to express, in your Royal Presence, the Ardour with which they partake of the Joy spreading over all your Majesty's Dominions on the unparalleled Victories gained by your Fleets over those of France and its unfortunate and deluded Allies! Victories so complete, so opportune, so consolatory to Nations despairing under the Tyranny of an unprincipled and merciless Usurper, and so flattering in the probable Consequences, betoken the Hand of Providence!

Viewed in this Light, as fighting under the Banners of Omnipotence, let us suspend for a while our Sorrows for the honoured Dead, lest we should cast a Gloom over the cheerful Day which your Majesty has wisely dedicated to the Glory of the God of Battles;—that indispensable Obligation performed, let the Eye shed Tears, and the Heart lament the Loss of the heroic Nelson, and the brave and gallant Officers, Seamen, and Marines, who nobly fell with him in their Country's Service, and let all unite in raising the Cenotaph, dignified by the Story of their valorous Deeds, to perpetuate their Praise, and be a proud Example to succeeding Generations!

To these eventual Duties we presume to add that of our constant Prayer, that Length of Days,

Prosperity and Honor, with your People's Love, may ever adorn the Crown of the most gracious and most venerable Monarch of the Age!

William Smith, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the late glorious and decisive Victories obtained by your Majesty's Navy over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

Whilst we acknowledge our supreme Dependence upon Almighty God, we feel peculiarly rejoiced that the same Courage and Skill, which have long distinguished British Sailors, were never more eminently displayed than in the Engagement off Trafalgar.

In common with our Fellow Subjects, we sympathize in the Loss of a Commander, whose Success in combating the Enemies of his Country was only surpassed by his Ardour to add to her Glory:—But we have additional Cause of Regret:—The Hero of Norfolk is fallen. Yet we cherish the Hope that his last patriotic Signal, "Your King and your Country expect from all a faithful Performance of their Duty," will be remembered and obeyed by every Subject of your Majesty's Realm.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 25th Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord 1805.

[Transmitted by Thomas Jervis, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Great Yarmouth]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, feeling a just Sense of the Blessing which Almighty God has so lately conferred upon this happy Nation, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on the recent brilliant and unparalleled Victory achieved over our confederate Foes:—a Victory which, as long as it is remembered, must chill the Ardour of our Enemies, and fire with heroic Patriotism the Breasts of all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

But in the Midst of these Exultations, in which we are conscious your Majesty so much participates, we must pause to mingle Joy with Sorrow, to lament the Fate of the gallant Commander under whose wise Directions Success accrued. As it has pleased the sovereign Disposer of Events thus to place a Termination to his vanquishing Arm, it only remains for us to deplore his Loss:—a Loss which, though great, is however alleviated when we recollect the dauntless Bravery of the Officers and Seamen, who, not only upon the late, but on all Occasions, exert themselves in the Cause of their King and Country.

That their energetic Spirit may urge them to emulate Nelson's Heroism, and add further Fame and Security to your Majesty's Empire, is the most ardent Wills of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich:

John Hopkins, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of the Town and Port of Liverpool, in Council assembled, impressed with fervent Gratitude to Almighty God for the Blessings bestowed on your Majesty's Arms in the late decisive Victory obtained by the Fleet, under the Command of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, humbly present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on this signal and most important Event.

The later Victory also, obtained by your Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard John Strachan, over the Ships of France, affords a fresh Instance of the Divine Favour, and impels us to express our grateful Thanks on this Continuance of Success.

And whilst, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, we deeply deplore, in the Death of the late Lord Nelson, the Fall of a Hero, who, had it pleased the Almighty to spare him, would, under the Blessing of Providence, have still added, by his great Talents and Intrepidity, to the Glory of your Majesty's Arms, we yet cherish the proud and animating Consolation, that the Characters whom your Majesty, in your paternal Care, is pleased to continue in Command, aided by the gallant and well-disciplined Courage so constantly displayed by every Rank of Men in your Majesty's Service, will still, in each future Conflict, sustain and extend the Splendour of your Majesty's Reign, and crown with complete and permanent Success your Majesty's gracious Endeavours for the Independence and Happiness of your People, and the Maintenance of the Liberties of the civilized World.

Given under our Common Seal, at Liverpool, the 14th Day of November, 1805.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere Congratulations upon the various recent Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, and more especially that most glorious and decisive Victory obtained under the Command of the late much lamented Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, whose great Achievements, seconded by the Zeal and gallant Exertions of his Successor in Command, Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, have confounded the Projects, and completed the Destruction, of the bottled Squadrons of our Combined Enemies.

We trust that the same good Providence, which has hitherto prospered your Majesty's Arms, will continue its gracious Favour to this Land until the ambitious Ruler of France, chastened, by repeated Defeats, shall relinquish that gigantic Plan of Aggrandizement, which at once astonishes and alarms the World. In the mean Time, we confidently rely upon the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Government; and we are determined, that no Endeavour shall be wanting on our Part to cherish and promote, on all Occasions, that loyal Attachment which this Nation owes to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, for the long Continuance of Happiness and Prosperity enjoyed by us under the Auspices of the illustrious House of Brunswick, a Blessing which, we hope, will be transmitted inviolate to our Descendants through the remotest Ages.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 21st Day of November, 1805.

H. Crumlington, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation of the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late important Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, particularly on the most glorious and memorable Victory obtained under the Command of the much lamented late Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson and Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, over the superior Force of the Combined Fleets of France and Spain; and also the subsequent gallant and honorable Victory of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Strachan.

Believing the only and most desirable End of the War, a permanent Peace, can be attained by no other Means than the Power and Success of your Majesty's Armaments, we cannot omit, in offering to your Majesty our humble Congratulations on the recent glorious and successive Victories, testifying our sincere Acknowledgments and Praises, to the supreme Ruler of Events, who hath been graciously pleased, amidst the Dangers and Adversities of the present Contest, to favour this Nation, with these Beams of Prosperity in its Endeavours to repel the Aggressions of an inveterate, ambitious, and powerful Enemy.

We also beg Leave (without meaning to detract from the well-earned Praises and Thanks due to the Bravery of his Companions and Survivors,) in Gratitude to the Memory of the noble and distinguished Admiral whose Conduct directed, and whose Courage animated, on the Day of Battle, your Majesty's Naval Forces under his Command, to achieve the immortal and almost unequalled Victory near Cape Trafalgar, to bewail his lamented, though glorious, Fate, and to express our sorrowful Sense of the deep Loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the Death of an Officer so highly eminent in every Endowment which could adorn his Profession, and whose public Services have immortalized his Name and Character.

In Testimony hereof, the Deputy Master (in the Absence of the Master) has subscribed his Name, and we have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation to be affixed hereto, at the Trinity-House in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, November 25, 1805.

Thomas Shadforth, Deputy Master.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Kingston upon-Hull, anxious to repeat our Congratulations at every Event which is likely to promote the Prosperity, Honor, and Happiness of this Kingdom, presume to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on the late signal and important Victories, which, under Divine Providence, your Majesty's Fleets, commanded by the late Vice-Admiral Lord Nelson and Sir Richard now Admiral Strachan, achieved over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain off Trafalgar and Cape Ortegal; Victories which, while they reflect the highest Honor on the Judgment and Intrepidity of the Admirals and Officers, and on the matchless Courage of the Seamen and Marines in general, must strike the Foe with Terror and Dismay.

Deploring, as we most sincerely do, with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Death of that invaluable brave Officer Admiral Lord Nelson, yet we trust and hope that Victories like these, complete and honorable, and beyond Example decisive and destructive to the superior united Force of the Enemy, must blast their every Hope of again facing your Majesty's Fleet; and we fervently trust that it may please the Almighty to continue to go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, until your Majesty can give to your faithful and loyal Subjects a safe and honorable Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the 26th Day of November, in the Forty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our warmest Congratulations, on the splendid and decisive Victory, obtained by your Majesty's Fleet over the combined Forces of France and Spain; an Event which, we earnestly hope and trust, will lead to the Deliverance of Europe, from the unjust Aggrandizement and insatiate Ambition of France.

Though we may justly contemplate, with Pride and Exultation, the eminent Superiority displayed by your Majesty's Navy, in the Battle of Trafalgar; we must ever deeply Lament the Loss of the gallant and illustrious Commander on that memorable Day, whose Skill and Valour have so often frustrated the ambitious Designs of our Enemies; and in whose Death, shone so conspicuously the Virtues which adorned his Life, Love of his Country, Loyalty to his King, and pious Resignation to the Will of his Creator.

Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Captain Blackwood, of His Majesty's Ship the Euryalus to William Marsden, Esq; dated this Day at the Admiralty.

SIR,

OBSERVING in the Gazette Extraordinary, of the 27th Instant, that the Number of the Enemy's Ships taken and destroyed, in consequence of the Action of the 21st of October, is stated at Twenty Sail of the Line; I take the Liberty of mentioning to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that as this must be intended to include the French Ship Argonaute, of 74 Guns, which Ship I had an Opportunity of knowing was safe in the Port of Cadiz, it will be proper to state the actual Number taken and destroyed, at Nineteen Sail of the Line. This apparent Inaccuracy was occasioned by the Dispatch of the Commander in Chief, dated the 4th, having been made up before my last Return with a Flag of Truce from that Port.
