Whitehall, November 30, 1805.

THE King has been pleased to grant the Dignity of a Baronet of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to Sir Charles Green, Knight, Major General of His Majesty's Forces, Colonel of the Regiment of York Light Infantry Volunteers, and Governor of Surinam, and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten.

The King has also been pleased to grant the Dignity of a Baronet of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to George Prevost, Esq; Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, Governor of the Island of Dominica, and Lieutenant-Colonel of the 60th (or Royal American) Regiment of Foot, and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten.

Whitehall, November 14, 1805.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Edward Van Sittart, Clerk, Bachelor of Laws, Rector of Taplow, in the County of Buckingham, Second Son of George Van Sittart, of Bisham Abbey, in the County of Berks, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the last mentioned County, His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may take and use the Surname of Neale only; and that he and they may also bear the Arms of Neale, quarterly with those of Van Sittart, in compliance with an Injunction contained in the last Will and Testament of Mary Neale, late of Allesley Park, in the County of Warwick, Widow and Relict of Colonel John Neale, of the same Place; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Carlton-House, November 15, 1805.

The Prince of Wales has been pleased to appoint John Clerk, Esq; to the Office of His Royal Highness's Solicitor-General for Scotland.

St James's, November 29, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Humility and profound Respect; to present to your Majesty our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on the late glorious and important Successes atchieved by your Majesty's Fleets over those of the Enemy; particularly on the brilliant and signal Victory so recently obtained over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, near to Cadiz, by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of that highly-renowned Naval Commander Lord Viscount Nelson, as well as in every other Quarter where the Ships of the Enemy have been encountered by those of your Majesty.

While we thus participate in the Joy universally diffused over your Majesty's Dominions by the Continuance of a Series of Victories, which has raised the Naval Glory of Great Britain to so much Splendour, and afforded so great Security to these Realms against the daring Efforts of unprincipled Enemies, permit us, gracious Sovereign, to express our heartfelt Grief and Regret for the heavy national Loss sustained on this Occasion by the Fall of that eminent Hero, whose whole Life was devoted to the Service of his Country; whose Actions were distinguished by all that was great and illustrious; whose Character was displayed in Traits that shone with the greatest Splendour, and whose Name and Memory will be transmitted to future Generations, cherished and respected with the warmest Gratitude, while there is on Earth a British Heart.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to testify our most sincere Gratitude to that over-ruling Providence, which has rendered your Majesty's Arms so eminently triumphant, and distinguished your People by those peculiar Blessings which they so fully enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

That it may please the supreme Ruler of the World to continue to your Majesty's Arms that
