

ardent Wills of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich:

[Transmitted by James Adams, Esq; and the Right Honourable John Hilby Addington, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Harwich.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of the Town and Port of Liverpool, in Council assembled, impressed with fervent Gratitude to Almighty God for the Blessings bestowed on your Majesty's Arms in the late decisive Victory obtained by the Fleet, under the Command of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, humbly present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on this signal and most important Event.

The later Victory also, obtained by your Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard John Strachan, over the Ships of France, affords a fresh Instance of the Divine Favour, and impels us to express our grateful Thanks on this Continuance of Success.

And whilst, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, we deeply deplore, in the Death of the late Lord Nelson, the Fall of a Hero, who, had it pleased the Almighty to spare him, would, under the Blessing of Providence, have still added, by his great Talents and Intrepidity, to the Glory of your Majesty's Arms, we yet cherish the proud and animating Consolation, that the Characters whom your Majesty, in your paternal Care, is pleased to continue in Command, aided by the gallant and well-disciplined Courage so constantly displayed by every Rank of Men in your Majesty's Service, will still, in each future Conflict, sustain and extend the Splendour of your Majesty's Reign, and crown with complete and permanent Success your Majesty's gracious Endeavours for the Independence and Happiness of your People, and the Maintenance of the Liberties of the civilized World.

Given under our Common Seal, at Liverpool, the 14th Day of November, 1805.

[Transmitted by F. Hargrave, Esq; Recorder of the said Town and Port of Liverpool.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere Congratulations upon the various recent Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, and more especially that most glorious and decisive Victory obtained under the Command of the late much lamented Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, whose great Achievements, seconded by the Zeal and gallant Exertions of his Successor in Command, Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, have confounded the Projects, and completed the Destruction, of the bottled Squadrons of our Combined Enemies.

We trust that the same good Providence, which has hitherto prospered your Majesty's Arms, will continue its gracious Favour to this Land until the ambitious Ruler of France, chastened, by repeated Defeats, shall relinquish that gigantic Plan of Aggrandizement, which at once astonishes and alarms the World. In the mean Time, we confidently rely upon the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Government; and we are determined, that no Endeavour shall be wanting on our Part to cherish and promote, on all Occasions, that loyal Attachment which this Nation owes to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, for the long Continuance of Happiness and Prosperity enjoyed by us under the Auspices of the illustrious House of Brunswick, a Blessing which, we hope, will be transmitted inviolate to our Descendants through the remotest Ages.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 21st Day of November, 1805.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation of the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late important Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, particularly on the most glorious and memorable Victory obtained under the Command of the much lamented late Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson and Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, over the superior Force of the Combined Fleets of France and Spain; and also the subsequent gallant and honorable Victory of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Strachan.

Believing the only and most desirable End of the War, a permanent Peace, can be attained by no other Means than the Power and Success of your Majesty's Armaments, we cannot omit, in offering to your Majesty our humble Congratulations on the recent glorious and successive Victories, testifying our sincere Acknowledgments and Praises, to the supreme Ruler of Events, who hath been graciously pleased, amidst the Dangers and Adversities of the present Contest, to favour this Nation, with these Beams of Prosperity in its Endeavours to repel the Aggressions of an inveterate, ambitious, and powerful Enemy.

We also beg Leave (without meaning to detract from the well-earned Praises and Thanks due to the Bravery of his Companions and Survivors,) in Gratitude to the Memory of the noble and distinguished Admiral whose Conduct directed, and whose Courage animated, on the Day of Battle, your Majesty's Naval Forces under his Command, to achieve the immortal and almost unequalled Victory near Cape Trafalgar, to bewail his lamented, though glorious, Fate, and to express our sorrowful Sense of the deep Loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the Death of an Officer so highly eminent in every
