St. James's, December 6, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with mixed Feelings of Exultation and Regret that we presume to approach your Majesty on the Occasion of the late glorious and decisive Triumph obtained by your Majesty's Naval Forces over the Combined Fleets of the Enemy. At the same Time that we partake with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects in the general Joy and Gratitude to Divine Providence for the additional Splendour acquired by the British Arms, we cannot suppress the deep Regret which we feel at the Loss which your Majesty and the Public have sustained by the lamented Fall of an Officer, whose superior professional Talents, Intrepidity, and Perseverance have, on so many Occasions, raised the Glory of the British Flag, endeared him justly to the Public, and excited the Envy and Admiration of the World.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that we consider the Consequences of the late Victory of the highest Importance, not only as confirming the incontestible Pre-eminence of your Majesty's Naval Arms, but as calculated to inspire Confidence, Vigour, and Animation among those Powers with whom the Wisdom of your Majesty has led you to form a Confederacy on the Continent; and to contribute, eventually, to promote that which, we are persuaded, is the Object nearest to your Majesty's Heart, the speedy Establishment of a solid and permanent Peace, on Terms consistent with the Honor, the Independence, and the Security of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council-Chamber, this 29th Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord 1805.

[Transmitted by William Sturges Bourne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Christchurch.]
