

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, beg to approach the Foot of your Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Victories, which, through the Blessing of Divine Providence, have been obtained both by the Fleet under the Command of the much lamented Lord Nelson, and by that under Sir Richard Strachan.

These Successes, by which the whole Combined Naval Force of our Enemies has been, at one Blow, nearly destroyed, have given fresh Proof that the British Navy has lost nothing of that Skill and Courage which has for so many Ages secured to this Nation the Dominion of the Seas.

By Order of a County Meeting,
Samuel Riley, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Watkin Williams Wynn, Representative in Parliament for the said County of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the late glorious and important Victories obtained by your Majesty's Navy over the Fleets of France and Spain.

While we contemplate with Pride and Exultation these gallant Achievements, we feel, in common with the rest of the Nation, the Loss of him who so bravely led them to Glory. Conscious, however, of the Attachment of every Part of your Majesty's Subjects to your Royal Person and august Family, and to the happy Constitution of this Realm, we look forward with anxious Hope and Expectation that the united Efforts of a brave and generous Nation, aided by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, will frustrate the Designs of our implacable Enemy, and secure to us and our Posterity the Happiness and Blessings we enjoy under your benignant Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the Borough of Newport, on the 4th Day of December, 1805.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight, (impressed with Gratitude and Reverence to the Divine Disposer of all Events for his late signal Mercies bestowed upon us,) beg to approach your Royal Person to express our heartfelt Joy at the late signal and unprecedented Victories obtained over the Fleets of your Majesty's Enemies.

The ever to be lamented Lord Viscount Nelson has left an Example never to be forgotten; and although we cannot but deplore the Fall of the Hero, even in the Arms of Victory, yet we have a well-grounded Hope that those gallant Chiefs who remain, by following his bright Example, will bring the present eventful Contest to an Issue, and give the general Disturber of our Peace Cause ever to lament his Temerity in entering into the unequal Contest.

That your Majesty and your Posterity may, to the most remote Period of Time, remain the happy Monarch of free and united Nations, is the ardent Prayer of your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal this 3d Day of December, 1805.

[Transmitted by Sir W. Worsley Holmes, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the humble but warmest Congratulations of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, upon the recent unparalleled Success of your Majesty's Naval Forces, and upon a Series of Victory the most glorious and important amongst the many which are recorded in the Annals of our Country.

But whilst we reflect with ardent Gratitude and Admiration upon the Spirit and Intrepidity of our Countrymen, permit us, gracious Sovereign, to join in the general Feeling on the Loss of so many of our brave Defenders, and especially on the Death of that gallant Admiral, who finished his Career of unexampled Glory in the very Act of exercising the noblest Virtue, and the most exalted Patriotism.

Convinced that we are contending not alone for National Honor, but for National Independence, and deeply sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we feel assured that our united Country possess both the Means and the Resolution to defend it; and in humble Reliance on that Aid, without which all human Efforts are of no avail, we trust that our ultimate Success will be proportioned to the Justice of our Cause.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 25th Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord 1805.
