St. James's, December 9, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our dutiful Congratulations on the glorious Victory lately obtained by your Fleet under the Command of that much lamented Hero, the Viscount Nelson, whose great Achievements have immortalized his Name, and add Lustre to the Annals of the Age; and, at the same Time, we congratulate your Majesty on the further Success of your Arms under the Command of Sir Richard Strachan.

In the present War we do not contend for Conquest or for martial Glory. The Valour of your Forces has often led them to brilliant Victory. Our present Hostilities are carried on for far nobler Objects—for the Safety of our Country, for the Independence of Europe; for the Preservation of our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion; for the Maintenance of all those Institutions on which the domestic Happiness of Mankind, and the Order of civilized Society, are acknowledged to depend.

Engaged in such Hostilities, the late important Victory encourages us to hope, that the God which has led us through all former Dangers, will now also enable us to prevail; and that distant Posterity may enjoy the same public Happiness as under your Majesty's Royal House, all your Subjects have learnt to value and to defend.

Your People, Sir, are aware of the Dangers which threatened, and yet threaten, the Safety of the Empire. They are aware of the Exertions which are necessary to repel the Aggressions of your Combined Enemies. But they are prepared to make all those Exertions; and will maintain the Honor of your Crown, and all its Rights, with their Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majesty may long reign the beloved

Sovereign of a flourishing, free, and united State, we shall ever pray.

Given under the common Seal of our Corporation, this 4th Day of December, 1805.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of the said City of New Sarum.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the warmest Congratulations of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester, in Common-Council assembled, upon the recent most glorious and unparalleled Victory obtained over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain by your Majesty's Fleet, led on by that illustrious and ever to be lamented Hero, Lord Nelson; a Victory which, while it will give a prouder Lustre to the Naval History of our Country, will yet darken its Page by recording the untimely Fall of a Commander, under whose Auspices Conquest was the certain Consequence of Battle.

At the same Time therefore, that we presume to congratulate your Majesty on one Event so auspicious to our Country, we trust it is becoming in us to offer our humble Condolence to your Majesty on another, which has robbed your Majesty of a most loyal Subject, and deprived these Realms of the Services of a Man who has contributed so largely to extend their Power, and increase their Prosperity. We should, however, be guilty of unpardonable Despondency if we did not feel the firmest Reliance, that, by the Efforts of the many surviving gallant Officers and Seamen in your Majesty's Fleets, the Glory of the British Flag will continue, under Divine Providence, to shine with equal Brilliancy to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this 27th Day of November, in the Forty-sixth Year of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

[Transmitted by the Right Honorable Thomas Steele, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Chichester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex, convened by the High Sheriff, at the Shire-Hall, on Friday the 29th Day of November, 1805.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the great and glorious Victory over the Combined Force of France and Spain, which (through the Blessings of Divine Providence) has been obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of the late illustrious and most lamented Hero, Lord Viscount Nelson; and also upon the decisive Success of a Squadron of your Majesty's Ships, commanded by Sir Richard Strachan, over an equal Number of French Ships, off Cape Ortegal.

The strongest Feelings of just Pride and Exultation animate our Minds in reflecting upon these additional and splendid Proofs of the matchless Valour and Superiority of your Majesty's Navy.

Whilst we experience these Sensations, we, at the same Time, deeply and sincerely lament the Loss of that great and heroic Commander, whose Life has been peculiarly distinguished by the most brilliant Achievements, and whose Name has added to the Honor and Lustre of your Majesty's Kingdoms, we deplore also the Loss of those other valiant Men who have, with him, honorably fallen in the Service of their Country. But it is our Consolation to know that his surviving Companions glory in his Fame, and emulate his Exploits; and we rejoice in the full Conviction, that the Skill, Enterprize, and Gallantry of the British Navy will for ever possess that decided Superiority which for Ages it has maintained, and which so eminently contributes to uphold the Splendour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Power, Honor, and Security of your Majesty's Dominions.

James Reed, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by James Reed, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County of Essex.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, an humble Address of Congratulation and Condolence; of Congratulation upon the glorious and important Victory over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain; of Condolence for the Loss of the Hero, under whose Command it was obtained. In the proud Annals of our Naval History, filled as they are with glorious Proofs of British Skill and Valour, there is no one Action which shines with greater Lustre, than that off Cape Trafalgar. Inferior to the Combined Force of France and Spain in Number of Ships, Men, and Guns, the British Fleet, in a few Hours, obliged Twenty of the Enemies' Ships to strike.—Such a decisive Proof of Superiority, whilst it adds Glory to the British Navy, gives Strength and Security to every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

We of this County, proud that such a Man was born amongst us, feel perhaps a larger Share of Exultation at his Victory, and of Grief for his Death. We shall ever deeply lament this irreparable Loss. Our Consolation must be, that he died in the Arms of Victory, and in the Service of a grateful Nation, fully sensible of his transcendent Merits, and that his immortal Name, by its powerful Influence, will still animate our Fleets and contribute to future Victories.

Done at a Public Meeting at the Castle of Norwich, in the Shire-House there, in and for the said County, on Saturday the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and five.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting. Bayning, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Lord Townsend.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, beg Leave, humbly to congratulate your Majesty, on the recent glorious and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain off Trafalgar; and although we cannot in these Congratulations forget, or cease to deplore the Loss of the deservedly lamented and brave Commander Lord Viscount Nelson, and those who so nobly fell on that memorable Occasion, yet we trust the Examples of their Courage and Magnanimity, and the Zeal, Bravery, and Conduct of those who so gallantly and successfully completed the Defeat of the Enemy, will stimulate every Description of your Majesty's Subjects thus gloriously to struggle, (and nobly fall, if Providence so decrees,) rather than your Majesty's Person and Government, our Laws and Liberties, should become the Victims of that unrestrained Ambition and unjust Aggression which have despoiled so large a Portion of the fairest Parts of Europe.

John Strong, Mayor.

[Transmitted by John Jeffery and George Garland, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town and County of the Town of Poole.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our Congratulations on the glorious Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, particularly in the splendid Action off Cape Trafalgar; a Victory, if not unparalleled, at least never surpassed, even in the Naval Annals of Great Britain.

The subsequent Victory of Admiral Sir Richard Strachan, by which fresh Wreaths of Glory have been added to the British Flag; deserves our highest Esteem.

Whilst with pious and heartfelt Gratitude we acknowledge the Favour and Protection of Divine Providence on these great and memorable Occasions, we feel ourselves called upon to express our just Sense of the heavy Loss which the Nation has sustained in the Death of the gallant, the intrepid Nelson; one of the most eminent Naval Characters of this or, perhaps, any other Age. He died indeed, as became the Hero, in the Defence of his Country, in the Arms of Victory, amidst the Tears and Applauses of his grateful and admiring Countrymen. The Lustre of his Name, and his bright Example, will, we doubt not, inspire future Generations; and we trust there never will be wanting Britons, ready, like him, to fight their Country's Battles with equal Skill and Ardour, and with equal Success.

We embrace this Opportunity of expressing our Duty and Attachment to your sacred Person; and we most fervently pray, that, under the Protection of a gracious Providence, these great Events may lead to the general Repose of Europe, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People.

John Stephens, Mayor.

[Transmitted by — Simeon, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough of Reading.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Beaumaris, in full Council assembled, the 30th Day of November, 1805, beg Leave to present you with our Service and heartfelt Congratulations on the late signal Successes of your Majesty's Naval Arms.

While we deplore, in common with the rest of the Kingdom, the Loss of a Hero, whose very Name struck Terror into the Hearts of our Enemies, we cannot but feel that the Loss of so many Ships of War, taken and destroyed, must, for a long Time, cripple the Efforts of France to recover their Navy, and thereby add to the efficient Security of these Kingdoms.

The Memory of the great Lord Nelson must live in every loyal Breast; as his Life was illustrious in the great and important Services he rendered to his King and Country, so was his Death pre-eminently glorious.

It is our Duty as well as our Inclination gratefully to applaud the Services of, and acknowledge our Obligations to, Lord Collingwood and Sir Richard Strachan; and we hope and trust they will live long to be Ornaments to their Profession and to their Country.

May your Majesty and these Kingdoms continue the Support and Prop of all that is religious, good, and virtuous, in Opposition to the wicked System and Principles of France.

Signed by the Order of the whole Meeting,

J. B. Sparrow, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Lord Viscount Bulkeley, Recorder of the said Borough of Beaumaris.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Borough of Tenby, in South Wales, in Common-Council assembled, with the most profound Sense of the Wisdom and Goodness of the omnipotent Disposer of all Events, dutifully presume, at this important Time, to address our august Sovereign.

But, at the glorious Moment when all our Hearts overflow with transcendent Joy on account of the unparalleled Victory, skillfully planned, and nobly prosecuted, by the most heroic Naval Commander that ever triumphed on the Ocean, and happily completed by his gallant Second, it is an inexpressible Alloy to our Felicity, and which most severely damps our still great Exultation, that we cannot but deplore the irreparable Loss of that first among the foremost of Britannia's renowned Admirals, the invincibly courageous, the ardently loyal, and the unwaveringly patriotic Nelson. Yet, Royal Sire! we greatly console ourselves, that, as Man is born to die, the most desirable Event for a matchless Conqueror is to expire in the extended Arms of Victory; when the momentary Sting is done away in ineffable Extacy at the Thought, that Combatants still survived, all emulous of their departed Leader's Valour.— Thus reconciled to your Majesty's and our Country's Loss, respecting the Peerless Defender of the Britannias, we, your Majesty's faithful Subjects aforesaid, of the peninsular Town of Tenby, Sons of the Waves, glowing with the most fervent Patriotism and Loyalty, venture most cordially to congratulate your most excellent Majesty on the late astonishing and unrivalled Triumph obtained by your Royal Fleet over the Combined Squadrons of Spain and France, when no less than Twenty Ships of their Line of Battle have been taken and destroyed; several others miserably shattered and effectually crippled;— also Four French Runaways have been since intercepted and captured, to the terrible Disgrace, and humiliating Disappointment, of the upstart Usurper of France; all at the critical Hour when the sanguinary Tormentor of Europe was avowing his Desires of Ships and Naval Acquisitions! So may this Corsican Pest and Scourge of the World always find his Wants and Wishes gratified, till Gaul (however galled) be retrenched within the ancient Limits of the Rhone and the Seine. And God grant, Royal Sire, that the successful Feats of your Majesty's Naval Warriors may still more augment the Zeal (eager as it ever is) of all Britannia's Champions, till, once again, the Rhine and the Danube resound with Albion's Cannon, and perfidious Bavaria tremble, in her most reclusive recesses, under the gloomy Clouds of impending Vengeance. Nor doubt we at all, that celestial Justice (however Heaven may alarm us with some Checks, to have Recourse to Omnipotence, and to court Mercy by Repentance) will at length crown your righteous Cause with Victory, and finally overwhelm your Majesty's false and flagitious Adversaries.

George Hughes, Deputy Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Burgesses of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, ever anxious to evince our Loyalty, and justly appreciating the great Blessings that have of late been showered down upon us, humbly offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the recent most brilliant and unparalleled Successes of your Majesty's Fleets.

Most fully resigned to all the Decrees of Providence, we do not presume to repine at any Event attendant upon the signal Victory off Cape Trafalgar; we cannot, however, but feel, in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the heavy Blow with which the Almighty has afflicted us, in depriving us of the Hero whose Valour has, at Periods the most critical, averted from your Majesty's Dominions great and impending Dangers, and has taught a grateful Posterity to emulate the Exploits of their Ancestors by the Brilliance of his Example.

Confiding in the Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, so strongly marked in every Part of those Fleets which have lately triumphed over our inveterate Foe, and relying upon your Majesty's Wisdom, we cherish the pleasing Hope that the restless Ambition of those who now disturb the Tranquillity of Europe may soon be curbed, and that your Majesty may long live to witness the Joy and Gratitude of your People, blessed with a Peace established upon a firm and honorable Basis, under the Auspices of their beloved King.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said Borough, the 29th Day of November, in the Forty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

Robert Bruges, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To the KING's Most Excellent and Sacred Majesty, The humble and Loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness, animated with a just Sense of Duty and Loyalty, beg Leave to approach your Imperial Throne, in returning Thanks to Almighty God, for the late unparalleled and decisive Success of your Majesty's Naval Forces over the Combined Fleets of your Enemies, and to offer our united Congratulations on so important an Event. An Event which cannot fail to transmit the Glory of your Majesty's Reign to future Ages. And we hope and trust, by the Example of the Naval Hero who fell in the Arms of Victory, and of your Majesty's gallant Officers and Seamen who so nobly supported the Honor of their Country, will, by the Blessing of God, promote the Continuance of equally successful Achievements.

That God may long preserve your Majesty, and shower down His Blessings on your Royal House, are our constant Prayers.

Signed by our Appointment and in our Presence, by the Honorable Colonel Archibald Fraser, of Lovat, Preses of our General Meeting, held at Inverness, this 3d Day of December 1805 Years.

A Fraser, Lovat.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Rear-Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Northumberland, in Sight of Barbadoes, 23d October, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to enclose to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Tobin, giving an Account of the Capture of His Majesty's late Sloop the Cyane; and I am happy to acquaint their Lordships, that I am just informed by a Ship, that left Barbadoes last Night, that the Naiad has been captured by His Majesty's Ship Jason.

I am, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

Princess Charlotte, at Anchor off the Gulph of Paria, 8th October, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG to acquaint you, that, on the 5th Instant, near Tobago, His Majesty's Ship under my Command captured the Cyane French Corvette (late in His Majesty's Service) of Twenty Six-Pounders, Two Fours, and Six Twelve-Pound Carronades, with a Crew of One Hundred and Ninety Men, commanded by Monsieur Mesnard, Lieutenant de Vaisseau; the Naiad Brig, of Eighteen long Twelve-Pounders, and Two Hundred Men, was in Company, commanded by Monsieur Hamou, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, (the senior Officer,) but, by taking a more prudent Situation and superior sailing, effected her Escape without any apparent Injury.
When discovered, they were so distant, I saw no
Chance of overtaking them by an avowed Pursuit,
I therefore disguised the Princess Charlotte as much as possible, which had the desired Effect of bringing them down.

Captain Mesnard defended his Ship in a very gallant Manner; and I am happy in saying, that her Loss in Men has been inconsiderable. The Second Captain, Monsieur Gautier, and Two Seamen, are killed; an Enseigne de Vaisseau and Eight Seamen wounded, some of them severely.

The Sails and Rigging of the Princess Charlotte are much cut, which was evidently the Aim of both Vessels. She had One Man killed and Six wounded, one of them mortally.

I have every Reason to be satisfied with the Officers and Ship's Company (at the Time above Thirty short of Complement) upon this Occurrence. To Mr. Patrick Warner, the First Lieutenant, (whose Exertions I have been deprived of since he took Possession of the Cyane, owing to a severe Bruise he received by the falling of her Main Yard,) I am much indebted.

The Naiad and Cyane left Martinique on the 29th Ultimo, stored and victualled for Three Months, but had made no Captures.

I am, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE TOBIN.

The Honorable Rear Admiral Cochrane,

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port

SIR,

HEREWITH you will receive, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Fyffe, of His Majesty's Sloop Rein Deer.

 I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Rein Deer, off Cape Mayze, the 20th of September, 1805.
SIR, I HAVE the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that, on the 13th Instant, after a Chace of upwards of Six Hours, I captured the French Privateer Re-nommée, of Two Six-Pounders and Forty Men, belonging to St. Domingo, but lost from Barracoa, and had not taken any Thing. Much Credit is due to the Rein Deer's Ship's Company, for their strong Exertions at the Sweeps during the whole Chace in a very hot Day.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN FYFFE.
