St. James's, December 16, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the late glorious and decisive Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over the Combined Naval Force of France and Spain:—Victories unexampled in the Annals of our History; and which are rendered still more interesting by the present critical Situation of the Affairs of Europe.

Whilst, in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, we sincerely lament the Death of the most gallant Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, in the Arms of Victory, we confidently trust that England still can boast of Heroes, who, stimulated by his bright Example, will gain fresh Laurels for their Country, and maintain the Dominion of the Sea.

We also indulge the most sanguine Hope, that, under the Protection of Divine Providence, the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the general Order that pervades your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land, will enable you to support and augment the Splendour of your Reign, and crown with Success your generous Exertions for the Happiness of your People, and for restoring the violated Rights and Liberties of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, this 9th Day of December, 1805. Thomas Bennion, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Thomas Grosvenor, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Chester]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled, rejoice in every Occasion of renewing to your Majesty the Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment. We address you, Sire, with increased Triumph, and exulting Congratulations, on the most important and glorious Success of your Majesty's Navy off Cape Trafalgar, on the 21st of October last, achieved under the Command, and through the unparalleled Skill and Intrepidity, of the immortal Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson. Your Majesty will, however, permit us, in the mingled Tumult of our Feelings, to call up from the Silence of the Grave, the Remembrance of our departed Hero; the Pride and Honor of our County, which gave him Birth, and of this City, whose Halls are adorned by his Trophies; who greatly fell amidst the Tears and Lamentations of his Country; closing a Life of Valour and gallant Achievements, far outnumbering his Years, in a Victory unrivalled in the Annals of the World. We devoutly implore the Blessing of the Almighty on the Arms of your Majesty and your august Allies; and that the Result may establish a Peace consistent with the Dignity of your Throne, and the Happiness of your People.

Given under the Common Seal of the City of Norwich, the 20th Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord 1805.

[Transmitted by Charles Harvey, Recorder of the said City of Norwich]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Hedon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Hedon, in Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with our sincere Congratulations on the late brilliant and decisive Victories gained by your Majesty's Arms at Sea, off the Capes Trafalgar and Ortegal.

In thus humbly offering our Congratulations, we cannot help sympathizing with your Majesty, and all your Subjects, in deploring the Loss of the ever to be lamented Lord Nelson, and the brave Officers and Men who have fallen with him.

We confidently trust that the Wisdom and Promptitude of your Majesty's Councils, the irresistible Bravery and Perseverance of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the Zeal and Loyalty of your Majesty's Subjects, and the inexhaustible Sources of your Majesty's Revenues, will continue triumphant over the Envy and Malice of France, and procure for your Majesty's Empire the Blessings of an honorable and lasting Peace.

Given under our Hands this 9th Day of December, in the Forty-sixth Year of your most gracious Majesty's auspicious Reign.

John Bedell, Mayor.

[Transmitted by George Johnson and Christopher Savile, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Heldon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the undersigned, the Commander in Chief, the Bailiff, and the Jurats of the Royal Court, and the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Island of Guernsey, as well in our Names, as in the Names of the other Inhabitants of the said Island, humbly beg Leave to approach your sacred Throne with heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God, to offer our most zealous Congratulations to your Majesty on the recent most splendid Victory obtained by your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Lord Viscount Nelson, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain; an Event highly honorable to the Kingdom and Navy at large, but transcendantly glorious to the Memory of the illustrious Commander whose Loss we, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, earnestly regret; and reflecting the greatest Honor on the Officers and Men, who, actuated by, and emulating, his bright Example, are Partakers of the unparalleled Laurels reaped by British Skill and Valour in that ever-memorable Victory, which, in its Consequences, cannot fail of adding to the Security of the United Kingdom, and of its happy Constitution.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of such the Blessings of Providence, is the ardent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commander in Chief. &c. of the Island of Guernsey.

W. Cockell, Brigadier-General, commanding the Forces.

Guernsey, the 3d of December, 1805.
