St. James's, December 20, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of York, assembled in the Guildhall of the said City, on Tuesday the 10th Day of December, 1805.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of York, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our fervent Congratulations to your Majesty on that glorious and decisive Victory, off Cape Trafalgar, over the combined Force of France and Spain, with which Almighty God, whose Arm is Strength, has been pleased to crown the Exertions of your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of the late Lord Viscount Nelson, who, having first rescued the Commerce and Colonies of this Kingdom from the Designs of our Enemies, closed, in the Arms of Victory, the long Series of his splendid Achievements by the Capture, Dispersion, and Destruction of their Ships.

With whatever Regret we behold this Kingdom for ever deprived of the personal Services of this distinguished Commander, we still look forward with Confidence to the Efficacy of that great Example which he has bequeathed to those whom your Majesty may hereafter call to similar Exertions; his Name and Memory, cherished in the Hearts of a gracious King, and of a grateful People, must kindle in the Breast of every Man an Ardour to do his Duty, and consequently operate as a Source of Strength, Security, and Glory to your Majesty's Dominions.

On the Spirit and Talent that yet survive, and continue to be exerted, we have Reason to place the firmest Reliance; and with grateful Joy contemplate the Bravery and Conduct of that great Admiral on whom, when Lord Viscount Nelson fell, the Command devolved, and who brought to a suitable Conclusion a Conflict which, till that afflicting Event, had been so gloriously maintained on the transcendent Merits of all who were engaged, we therefore once more presume to congratulate your Majesty; and still farther, on the Capture of that Part of the Combined Fleet which had fled from the Action off Trafalgar, and which, having been brought to an Engagement off Ferrol by Sir Richard Strachan, became the Prize of British Valour and Skill.

May the Almighty prolong your Majesty's happy Reign, to protect the Religion, the Laws, and the Liberties of your faithful People; and, by granting continual Success to your Majesty's Arms, restore Tranquillity and permanent Peace to Mankind.

Robert Stockton, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir William Milner, Bart. and the Honorable Laurence Dundas, Representatives in Parliament for the said City of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of your Majesty's antient City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations.

We congratulate your Majesty, not only on the glorious and unparalleled Victories recently obtained by your Fleets, but also on the important Moment at which it has pleased Providence to bless the British Arms.

When the Destruction of your Kingdom, your Colonies, your Navy, and your Commerce, was menaced by an inveterate Foe; when, by a perfidious Breach of Neutrality, the Provinces, and even the Capital, of one of your illustrious Allies, were laid open to the Armies of France; then it was that the Victories of Lord Viscount Nelson, Lord Collingwood, and Sir Richard Strachan, confirmed (we trust for Ages) the maritime Superiority of Britons, and will, no doubt, inspire the Nations of Europe with new Hope, new Ardour, and increased Energies, in resisting the Schemes and Progress of a Man who disregards the Privileges of independent States, tramples upon the established Laws of Nations, and hearkens to no Suggestions but those of inordinate and unprincipled Ambition.

That, in the glorious Contest off Trafalgar, we have lost a naval Hero, who has so often and so bravely supported the Honor and Interests of his Country, must be to your Majesty, and to every Class of your Subjects, a Source of the deepest Affliction;—but whilst, under the Auspices of your august Family, the genuine Principles of constitutional Liberty are inculcated and fostered, British Patriotism, British Skill, and British Valour, will, we are confident, never fail to give Victory to the British Arms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of York, the 9th Day of December, in the Forty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of Our Lord 1805.

Robert Stockton, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir William Milner, Bart. and the Honorable Laurence Dundas, Representatives in Parliament for the said City of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with Sentiments of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our most heartfelt Congratulations on the glorious Victories over the Fleets of your Enemies, with which it has recently pleased the Almighty to bless your Majesty's Arms. At the same Time we beg Leave to sympathize with your Majesty on the Loss of that noble Patriot, and highly renowned Officer Admiral Lord Nelson, whose heroic Achievements have added so much Splendour and Glory to the British Navy, as well as incalculable Advantages to the dearest Interests of our Country; the Memory of which will be ever deeply impressed on the Hearts of Englishmen.

If any Thing can palliate the Loss we have sustained in that brave and invaluable Officer, it is only the Conviction that your Majesty's Navy abounds with Heroes of the highest Courage and Talent ambitious to follow his glorious Example.

May Divine Providence be pleased to prosper all your Majesty's Exertions for the good of your faithful People, and to continue his Blessings to your august Person and Family.

Signed by Order of the County Meeting,

Moris Ximenes, Sheriff.

Reading, November 20, 1805.

[Transmitted by Moris Ximenes, Esq; Sheriff of the County of Berks.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient Borough of Doncaster, in the West Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, on the late glorious and decisive Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets, over the Combined Fleets, of France and Spain; and although in these Congratulations, we can neither forget, nor cease to lament the Loss of that skilful and gallant Commander Lord Viscount Nelson, and those other brave Men, who so nobly fell on those memorable Days; yet we hope and trust the Examples of their Courage and Magnanimity, as well as the Zeal, Bravery, and Conduct of those who survived and so gallantly and successfully completed the Defeat of our Enemies, will stimulate every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, thus gloriously to fight, (and nobly fall, if Providence so decrees it,) rather than your Majesty's Person and Government, our Laws, Liberties, and Religion should become the Victims of that unbounded Ambition and unjust Aggression which have already enslaved the greatest Part of Europe.

[Transmitted by John Wright, Esq; Mayor of the said Borough of Doncaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere Congratulations upon the late splendid and glorious Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over those of our Enemy;—Victories which have not only added fresh Lustre to your Majesty's Arms by Sea, but have secured to the Nation, at this important Crisis, incalculable Advantages, and frustrated the hostile Intentions of our most inveterate Foe. And though in common with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, we sincerely lament that these Victories have been purchased at the Expence of the invaluable Life of Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, whose distinguished Valour, Patriotism, and consummate Abilities had rendered him the Idol of his Country, and the Terror of our Enemies; yet we have the Consolation of reflecting; that in your Majesty's Navy there still exists a Host of Heroes panting only for fresh Opportunities of imitating his glorious Example in the Protection of their Country.

We fervently pray that the Almighty may also crown with Victory your Majesty's Arms, and those of your Allies by Land, and restrain the Arrogance and insatiable Ambition of that Scourge of the World, the Tyrant of France, and secure to us the Blessings of an honorable and permanent Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Corporation, the 2d Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1805.

E. R. Travers, Mayor.

[Transmitted by James Allan Park, Esq; one of His Majesty's Counsel, and Recorder of Preston.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty the heartfelt Satisfaction we experience upon a Review of the late Instances wherein it has pleased Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms, by a most complete Victory over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

Many and important are the Advantages which must result to this highly-favoured Country from a Success so splendid. The boasting Threats of an implacable Foe to invade our Land are baffled, our Colonies are secured, our Commerce is protected, and our Merchants flourish. Other Nations also, who have long borne the Insults and Encroachments of an unprincipled Tyrant, will, we hope, hereby be roused to resist, with Effect, this common Enemy, to curb his restless Ambition, and to compel him to cultivate the Arts of Peace.

But, while we exult in this our proud Day of Triumph, we cannot repress a Tear for the Loss of the many brave Men by which this well-earned Glory has been accompanied; and, in particular, of the illustrious Hero who commanded and led the British Fleet to Battle, and who closed a Life of Honor in the very Grasp of Victory. Yet are we consoled with the well-founded Assurance, that there will never be wanting Men to whom your Majesty's Flag may safely be entrusted. And we are happy to observe that the gallant Successor of the much-lamented Chief has well supplied his Loss. By his ardent Zeal and persevering Labour the Work has been completed; and he has crowned it by a Display of Humanity which does Honor to our Country, and which has drawn forth the Applause and Gratitude of a forrowing Enemy.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, to preserve the happy Constitution of these Realms, and to diffuse Blessings over a free, loyal, and united People, is the fervent and constant Prayer of us and all your Majesty's Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal this 2d Day of December, in the Forty sixth Year of your Reign.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Colonel Allan and F. Sitwell, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Attachment and Veneration to your Royal Person and most illustrious House, humbly offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations upon the splendid Victory which it has pleased Almighty God to give to your Majesty's Arms over the Combined-Fleets of France and Spain, off Cape Trafalgar.—A Victory, in its political Consequences most important, inasmuch as it will give new Spirit and Energy to your Allies, afford to your Majesty the Means of a more extended and more vigorous Continental Co-operation, and by augmenting the Security of your Colonial Possessions, enable them, in the full Tide of uninterrupted Commerce, to pour into your Ports the Riches of the whole World: important also, as it will add yet another Proof to the many recorded in the Page of British History, of the Vanity of that Man's Boast, who threatens, by his Fleets, to subjugate, your brave, united, and loyal People.—A Victory that, from the Skill and Gallantry of its Achievement, surpasses even all those great and resplendent Actions that, during your illustrious Reign, have borne the British Name to the Summit of Naval Glory.

If, in the Midst of our Triumph, Britons be allowed to bewail a Death covered with Honor, permit us to condole with your Majesty upon the Loss of the late great and gallant Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, and his brave Brethren in Arms, who fell on that memorable Day.

But, whilst we deeply deplore his Loss, and their's, allow us humbly to offer this Consolation, that there are Thousands (as the late War has most abundantly evinced) whose dauntless Prowess wants but the Occasion to add fresh Laurels to your Crown, to prove to your Majesty and to the World, that, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, a British Fleet will never want a British Hero to lead them to Victory and Renown.

Signed by the Order, and on Behalf of the Meeting,
Geo. Burr, Town Clerk.
