From Saturday December 21, to Tuesday December 24, 1805.

St. James's, December 23, 1805.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with a due Sense of the great Mercies of Almighty God to this Nation, to offer our sincere Congratulation to your Majesty on the late important, glorious, and decisive Victory obtained over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, by your Majesty's Fleet, commanded by the ever to be lamented Hero, the late Lord Viscount Nelson.

As Britons, we glory in a Victory that records the proudest Day that ever graced our Naval Fame, but as Men we shed a Tear on the Loss of a Chief, whose Life has been devoted to the Service of his Country, and whose Fame and Memory must claim and receive the Veneration and Gratitude of succeeding Generations.

At the same Time that we deplore the national Loss of this exalted Character, we feel the most confident Hope, that the Courage, Skill, and Ability of the surviving Commanders of your Majesty's Fleets, aided by the uniform Intrepidity of British Seamen, will still add to the Glory of your Majesty's Arms; and that the Pre-eminence of the British Navy may bid Defiance, and at last humble, the combined and inveterate Enemies of your Majesty's Empire, and ultimately secure to your faithful and loyal Subjects a Peace, compatible with the Dignity of your Crown, the Happiness of your People, and the Security of your Dominions.

We ardently pray that the Blessings we enjoy under our free and happy Government may be transmitted to the latest Posterity, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People.

In Testimony of the above, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, this 14th Day of December, 1805.

Francis Perkins, Mayor.

[Transmitted by W. Mills, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Coventry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our warmest Congratulations on the most glorious and decisive Victory obtained over the Combined Naval Force of France and Spain, off Cape Trafalgar, by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of the illustrious and ever to be lamented Hero, the Lord Viscount Nelson. A Victory which, whether we consider the Superiority of the Enemy, or the critical Time it was so decisively achieved, calls for our strongest Feelings of Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Events for this transcendent Mark of his Protection to this favoured Nation.

In Events of this Nature we must inevitably have to lament the Loss of many Lives; and, on this Occasion, our Grief and our Lamentations cannot be suppressed at the Fate of a Man, the sole and laudable Ambition of whose Life it was to maintain and increase the Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Glory of your Majesty's Arms, in all Parts of the World: Not that these melancholy Sensations can deprive the Survivors in that memorable Action of our just Admiration of their Intrepidity, or of their indefatigable and humane Exertions for a considerable Period afterwards.

A further Proof of the Ability of our Commanders, and of the Valour of our Seamen, was displayed, on the 4th Ult. by Sir Richard Strachan, and the Squadron under his Command, sufficient to induce us to expect that these Two Victories will maintain the usual Emulation in the British Character, to preserve their Loyalty to their beloved King, and their Attachment to their Native Country, with renewed Lustre on all Occasions. At a Period so big with Events to surrounding Empires, permit us to repeat our Assurances of that Duty and Reverence to your Majesty's Person, and that unalterable Love for our excellent Constitution, which will not fail to excite the highest Energies of a loyal and an united People whenever the Moment shall arrive that may summon us to their Defence.

In the Name of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset.
John Gould, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by John Gould, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County of Dorset.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your antient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, humbly approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the glorious and most important Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet, under that heroic Commander, Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, over the Combined Fleet of France and Spain, off Cape Trafalgar: A Victory not only transcendentally splendid in its Atchievement, but, from the present State of Europe, of the highest political Consequence to this Nation.

Whilst we, in common with your Majesty's Subjects, most deeply lament the Loss of so great a Naval Character, whose eminent Services every Englishman with Pride admires, yet we cannot refrain from Exultation in knowing, that his glorious Example was maintained and pursued by Vice Admiral Lord Collingwood, and, ultimately, by Sir Richard Strachan, and the brave Officers and Seamen under their respective Commands, which completed the Triumph of the Day.

We most fervently pray for the Success of your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land, in whatever Part of the Globe their Services may be required; and that your Majesty, by their Exertions, and the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, may enjoy that Happiness which, we know, is nearest to your Majesty's Heart, of restoring to your People the Blessings of an honorable, secure, and permanent Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the 17th Day of December, 1805, Hammond, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by George Watson and John Baker, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said City of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, desire to offer to your Majesty our humble and hearty Congratulations on the glorious Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets, under the Auspices of the late Lord Viscount Nelson and Sir Richard Strachan.

While we lament, in unison with your Majesty's gracious Expressions, a Hero, whose Life has been a Series of Glories, atchieved during his Service in your Majesty's Fleets, we cannot but express our humble Confidence, that the gallant Exploits performed by them will inspire your Majesty's Subjects, of all Ranks and Descriptions, with a Spirit to endeavour to emulate their Conduct through any Hazards or Trials to which they may be exposed, and to endure all Hardships, and to make all Sacrifices, which may be requisite for the Maintenance of the Honor and Interests of the British Empire.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name, of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, Edward Lloyd Lloyd, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff of the County of Flint.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the late decisive Victory over the united Armaments of France and Spain, the Importance of which is incalculable.

Impressed as we are, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, with the deepest Grief for the Loss of that illustrious Commander, the Lord Viscount Nelson, under whose Auspices it was obtained; whose Spirit and whose Judgment, under the most arduous Circumstances, long and successfully, served to animate and direct the Exertion of your Fleets, we seek Consolation in the Hope that as in Life, so his great and glorious Example in Death, will be fruitful of future Glory and Advantage to these happy Realms.

Signed in Behalf of the Meeting,

James Blunt, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by George Hollis, Esq; Under Sheriff of Hampshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Alderman, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Town of Wokingham, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Alderman, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Wokingham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Attachment, and, while we offer our pious Thanks to the Almighty Disposer of Events, for all the national Blessings vouchsafed to the British People, allow us to present our heartfelt Congratulations on the glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of Lord Viscount Nelson, on the 21st of October, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, off Cape Trafalgar; a Victory which, while it exalts the numerous Glories of your Majesty's Reign, gives Security to that national Happiness which the paternal Solitude of your Majesty has ever been anxious to perpetuate to your People.

But, while offering to your Majesty our Congratulations, we cannot refrain from expressing our sincere Sorrow and Regret, that this Victory should have been purchased by so great a Price as the Death of the ever to be lamented Lord Nelson, a Hero, whose whole Life was one continued Sacrifice of private Ease at the Altar of his Country, and whose Race has been run in a continued Course of Glory and Fame; who will be remembered by his grateful Country not more for the Splendour of those Actions which dazzle Mankind, than for the Benefits he has heaped upon her.

While we contemplate, with Admiration, the above transcendent Victory, we cannot omit to offer our farther Congratulation on the brilliant Achievement of another Part of your Majesty's Fleet, under Sir Richard Strachan, which confirms the well-founded Expectation of the British Nation, in the uniform Success of its Naval Exertions.

That your Majesty may long live to witness the Prosperity and Happiness of a free and loyal People, is the Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects.

Signed in the Name, and by the Order, of the abovenamed Alderman, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, John Horne, jun. Town Clerk.
4th December, 1805.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, impressed with the warmest Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the late glorious and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of the illustrious and ever to be lamented Lord Nelson, over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

While we most sincerely and deeply lament the Loss of that distinguished Commander, whose transcendent and heroic Services will exist for ever in the grateful Remembrance of his Country, we would pay a just Tribute to the Merits of those who so nobly seconded his Exertions, and completed what his Genius had planned.

Happy in a free Constitution, and in the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Rule, we trust that the united Efforts of a brave Nation will, by the Favour of the Almighty, defend and maintain these inestimable Privileges against the hostile Enterprizes of a haughty Enemy, and convince him that, however he may repine at our Prosperity, he shall never be able to wrest it from us and from our Children.

That the God of Armies, the Arbitrator of Battles, may continue to shield your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and lead them to Victory; and that he may speedily restore to us the Blessings of an honorable, an advantageous, and a lasting Peace, are the fervent Prayers of, Most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment, of the University, this 30th Day of November, 1805, by
Gordon, Chancellor.

Glenbervie, Rector.

Rod. MacLeod, Principal.

[Transmitted by the Right Honorable Lord Glenbervie.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Kirkcudbright, in Presbytery assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the recent unexampled and decisive Victory obtained over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain, by the British Fleet under the Command of the late gallant Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson.

While other Nations are subjected to the Power and Caprice of an aspiring and insolent Foe, and while we contemplate the mighty Preparations made for the Destruction of all that is dear to us, we feel the most lively Emotions of Joy in this Pledge of Security to your Majesty's Throne, to our glorious Constitution, and to that pure and holy Religion we have received from above. We deeply sympathize with our Country on the Loss sustained by the Fall of that illustrious Hero, who, on so many important Occasions, conducted your Majesty's Navy to Conquest and Glory. But we sorrow not as bereft of Hope. We know that the same martial Spirit animates his surviving Companions in Arms, and that the Memory of his unparalleled Achievements will rouse them to emulate his Courage and his Conduct, and nobly to defend their King, their Country, and the Cities of their God. Other Nations, subjected to the Yoke of Bondage, or threatened with Ruin, will, we trust, be excited to similar Exertions in their own Defence. Above all, we look up to Him who rules among the Nations, as the gracious Author of this and of all the seasonable Deliverances which have been vouchsafed to this favoured Land. With your Majesty we sincerely join, in ascribing to the God of our Fathers, the Praise and Glory due to his Name. Convinced that it is Righteousness that exalteth a Nation, we shall not cease to impress upon the Minds of the People committed to our Charge, that, by forsaking their Sins, and doing that which is right, fearing God and honouring the King, they may hope, through our Lord Jesus Christ, to dwell in Safety, and to be prepared, in due Time, for the Enjoyment of returning Peace.

Signed in our Name and Presence by Robert Muter, D. D. Moderator.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Rear-Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq; dated Barbadoes, the 27th of October, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Champain, of His Majesty's Ship Jason, stating the Capture of the Naiad, a very fine French National Corvette, of Sixteen long Twelve-Pounders (pierced for Twenty-two) and One Hundred and Seventy Men.

I am, &c. ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Jason, Carlisle-Bay, Barbadoes, October 15, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, on the 13th Instant, at half-past Three A. M. in Lat. 14 Deg. 5 Min. N. Long. 55 Deg. 48 Min. W., I made all Sail in Pursuit of a strange Brig, which, after a Chase of Nine Hours, close hauled, at the Distance of Five Miles of each other, and a partial Firing of Fifteen Minutes, I succeeded in capturing, and have brought in.

She proves to be the French National Corvette Naiad, commanded by Monsieur Hamon, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, pierced for Twenty-two Guns, mounting Sixteen long Twelve-Pounders, with Four Braß Two-Pound Swivels, and had on board One Hundred and Seventy Men, one of whom was killed in the Action (the only Loss). She was on a Two Month's Cruise from Martinique; of which Time only Fifteen Days had expired, without her making a Capture.

She came from Europe in March last with the Toulon Squadron; and is one of the largest Brigs in the French Service; extremely well fitted, sails very fast, (having escaped from many of our Cruizers,) and appears particularly calculated for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

P. W. CHAMPAIN.

The Honorable Rear-Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, December 24, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Lobb, of His Majesty's Ship Pomone, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Lisbon, December 3, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Boats of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, boarded on the 5th of November, close in with Guardia, the Golondrina Spanish Luger Privateer, of Four Guns and Twenty-nine Men, belonging to Corunna. She had been out Six Weeks, and not made any Captures; the Enemy had Two Men wounded, and the Vessel I set Fire to.

You will be pleased to communicate the enclosed also to their Lordships, and

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. G. LOBB.

His Majesty's Sloop Curieux, Lisbon, December 2, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG to acquaint you, that His Majesty's Sloop, under my Command, captured on the 25th Ult.

Thirteen Leagues West of Cape Selleiro, the Bril-liano, a Spanish Lugger Privateer, with Five Carriage Guns and Thirty-five Men, commanded by Don Joseph Advis. She had been out Five Days from Port Carrel, and Two Days before we fell in with her, she had taken the English Brig Mary, from Lynn, with Coals, bound to Lisbon, and the Nymph Brig from Newfoundland, with Fish for Viana. I am, &c.

J. JOHNSTONE.

W. G. Lobb, Esq; Captain, His Majesty's Ship Pomone.
