

and, to the End of Time, may its genial Influence excite, in the Sons of Britain, the high Ambition of devoting themselves to the Service of their King and Country. Thus shall the Shade of her departed Warrior form a lasting Bulwark of Defence to his grateful Country.

We expect, Sire, with Confidence, a glorious Termination of the important Contest in which your Majesty is engaged. We confide in the Justice of your Majesty's Cause, the Cause of the civilized World. We confide in the tried Fortitude and Loyalty of our Fellow-Subjects, and in the vast and unexhausted Resources of the British Empire. We confide in the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils. Especially, Sire, we look up with Confidence to your Majesty; and, from the moral and religious Virtues which so entirely possess your Royal Breast, and which, we trust, will find Favour in the Eye of Heaven, we derive a strong Hope of the Continuance of that Protection which it has hitherto pleased the Almighty so signally to extend to these highly-favoured Kingdoms.

Henry William Coulthurst, D. D. Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Honorable Henry Lascelles, one of the Representatives in Parliament for Yorkshire.]

Whitehall, January 3, 1806.

HIS Majesty is pleased to permit all Carriages which are to form the Funeral Procession of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, from the Admiralty to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, on the 9th Instant, to pass through the Gates of St. James's Park, at the Top of Constitution-Hill and the Stable-Yard, on producing Tickets for that Purpose from the College of Arms, until Nine o'Clock on that Morning.

Whitehall, January 3, 1806.

THE Magistrates have been directed to place a sufficient Number of Constables in all the Streets leading into Cockspur-Street, Charing Cross, Whitehall, Parliament-Street, and the Strand, to prevent all Carriages and Horses from passing into those Streets on Thursday next, the 9th Instant, (excepting such as are to form Part of the Funeral Procession of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul,) it is, therefore expected, that no Person whatever will attempt to drive or ride into any of those Streets on that Day, until after the Conclusion of the Ceremony, or interrupt the Constables or Soldiers in the Execution of the Service which they are directed to perform.

All Persons not forming Part of the Procession, who may be entitled to Places in St. Paul's, are desired to pass down Holborn; and the like Orders are given to the Magistrates to provide a free Passage by that Route to and from the Cathedral.

PUBLIC FUNERAL OF LORD VISCOUNT NELSON.

College of Arms, January 4, 1806.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Remains of the late Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson will lie in State at Greenwich Hospital To-morrow, Sunday the 5th Instant, and on Monday and Tuesday next, between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon.

The several Persons who are appointed to attend the Remains from Greenwich to Whitehall-Stairs, on Wednesday next, the 8th Instant, will assemble at the Governor's House in the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning of that Day, in order to proceed in the respective Barges.

The Nobility, Privy Councillors, Judges, Law Officers, Baronets, Knights of the Bath, Knights, Clergy, Esquires, and Gentlemen, who propose to attend, in their Carriages, the Public Funeral Procession from the Admiralty to St. Paul's Cathedral, on Thursday the 9th Instant, are requested to send their Titles, Names, and Address to the College of Arms, St. Bennet's-Hill, St. Paul's, before Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of Monday next, the 6th Instant, in order that they may be ranked in the Proceeding according to their several Degrees, Dignities, and Qualities. And on Monday and Tuesday next, between Ten and Four o'Clock, sealed Tickets, for the Admission of such Persons into the Procession, and into the Cathedral, as shall have transmitted their Names to the said College, will be ready there to be delivered to them, or to their written Order.

Officers of the Navy, bearing Commissions, who may desire to attend the Solemnity, are requested to send their Names and Address as above, before Four o'Clock on Monday, in order that a sufficient Number of Carriages may be provided for their Accommodation.

All Persons who have Tickets of Admission into the Procession on Thursday next, will produce such Tickets at the Gates of St. James's Park, at the Top of Constitution-Hill and the Stable Yard, and proceed into the Park, where the several Ranks will be stationed according to Regulations which will be publicly announced; and, in order to facilitate the due marshalling of the Carriages from the Admiralty, it will be requisite that they be arranged as near together as conveniently may be in their respective Classes.

It is recommended that the Carriages be in the Park early on Thursday Morning; and not later than Nine o'Clock.
