SIR, Shark, Port Royal, October 23, 1805.
YOU will receive herewith, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Chambers, of the Port Mahon, acquainting me of his having captured His Catholic Majesty's Packet El Galgo. I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Port Mahon, Sept. 30, 1805, Trinidad de Cuba N. E. by N.

SIR, distant Twenty-six Leagues.

HIS Majesty's Sloop Port Mahon, under my Command, this Morning crossed upon a Schooner, laying to; but, on our near Approach, made Sail from us. I have the Honor of informing you she was captured after a Chace of Two Hours, and proves His Catholic Majesty's Packet El Galgo, commanded by Lieutenant Ignacio Guosquez, with Thirty Men; pierced for Fourteen Guns, but only Four Brads Swivels mounted. She is a very fine Vessel, Coppered and Copper-fastened, well found, and sails fast; left Cadiz on the 9th of August, had delivered Dispatches at Camana, and was bound, with others, to Trinidad de Cuba and Vera Cruz, which were thrown overboard.

I have, &c.

(Signed) SAM. CHAMBERS.

James Richard Dacres, Esq; Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Port Royal, October 31, 1805.

I AM to request you to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that I have received a Letter from Captain Macdonnell, of the Franchise, informing me of the Boats of that Ship having captured the General Ferrand Felucca Privateer of One Six-Pounder, Two Four-Pounder Swivels, Mufketry, &c. belonging to Santo Domingo. She had sailed from Saint Jago Four Days, and had taken nothing.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

SIR, Shark, Port Royal, Oct. 31, 1805.

HEREWITH you will receive, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Wright, of the Swift, enclosing a Letter from Lieutenant Smith, of that Sloop, acquainting him with the Success of an Enterprize conducted with great Bravery, which reflects great Credit to the Party engaged in it, particularly to Mr. Bowler, who has not been Two Years at Sea.

I am, &c. (Signed) J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Swift, Port Royal, October 27, 1805.

SIR, IN consequence of Information I received while on my Station at Honduras, that a Schooner Guarda Colla had taken several Vessels trading to that Settlement, and if not captured, was likely to do much more Mischiefe; I was determined to detach Mr. James Smith, Second Lieutenant of the Ship I command, with a Party of Men, to see what could be effected, and I take the Honor to refer you to a Perusal of his Letter to me for an Account of his Success, which, for Execution and Bravery has been acknowledged to bid fair for Protection and Countenance.

La Caridad Perfecta is a very fine new Vessel, and in my Opinion, every way fit for His Majesty's Service. I remain, Sir, &c.

(Signed) J. WRIGHT.

To Rear-Admiral Dacres, &c. &c. &c.
Port Royal.

SIR, Mariamne Schooner, Balize, Sept. 4, 1805.

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that, in pursuance of your Orders, I proceeded with the Schooner you placed under my Command to the Southward; and, while cruising on that Station, and off the Island of Bonacca, received Information from the Caribbean Fishermen, that a Guarda Costa was at Anchor under the Batteries of Truxillo, and that she had lately captured and carried into that Port the Schooner Admiral Duckworth, of Jamaica, with another Vessel, Name unknown, from Honduras; I therefore maturely considered the incalculable Injury such a Vessel might cause to the Settlement, and conceiving it a Duty incumbent on myself to prevent, if possible, further Depredations, summoned the People ast, and, on my stating the Case to them, they very readily volunteered to make an Attempt to cut her out. Accordingly, on the Evening of the 13th Ultimo, I stood over, under Cover of the Night, for the Harbour of Truxillo, and got well into the Bay without being discovered, when I manned Two small Boats, with Six Men in each, under Charge of Mr. Walker, Boatswain, in the one, and Mr. Bowler, Midshipman, in the other, with Directions to pull in close along Shore, and examine if our Information was correct, standing in, at the same Time, with the Schooner to cover the Boats, if Occasion required. Shortly after we got in Sight of the Vessel we were in Pursuit of; which was immediately boarded with great Bravery by the Boat's Crew under Charge of Mr. Bowler, (the other, from pulling heavy, not being able to get up,) and, after some Resistance from the People on Deck, they very gallantly got Possession of her, the Captain and others jumping overboard;—the Noise this Contest occasioned alarmed the Forts, which opened on us a very heavy Fire. The Cables were then cut, and Sail made, the Forts keeping a continual Fire on us till out of Gun-shot, which was returned from both Vessels. She proves to be La Caridad Perfecta, Schooner-rigged, Copper-bottomed, and pierced for Sixteen Guns, but mounted only with Twelve, and had on board but Fifteen Men, the Remainder of her Complement being on Shore at the Time.

I am happy to add, that in performing this Service no Person has been hurt.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JAMES SMITH.

To John Wright, Esq; commanding His Majesty's Ship Swift, Honduras.

SIR, Hercule. November 2, 1805.

I ENCLOSE you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain M'Kenzie, of the Wolf, acquainting me of his having recaptured an American Ship, and run on Shore the Privateer that captured her.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Wolf, at Sea, October 20, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE to acquaint you, that Yesterday Evening in consequence of Information I received from the Shore, I gave chase to Two Sail in the Offing, and soon came up with a Ship, which proved to be an American, captured a few Minutes before by a Spanish Privateer then standing in Shore: I dropt a Boat to take Possession of her, and stood after the Privateer, but it falling calm shortly after, I dispatched Two Boats in chase; they came up with, and boarded her at the very Moment she struck on a Reef near the Shore, and about Ten Miles to Leeward of Falmouth; every Effort proved ineffectual to get her off and she went to Pieces soon after. She proved to be La Piecieusa, a new Cutter, out Six Days from St. Jago Cuba, commanded by Galana Garfa, carrying Three small Guns and Twenty-three Men, Five of whom made their Escape in a Canoe previous to her being boarded, had made no other Captures.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) G. C. M'KENZIE.

To James Richard Dacres, Esq; Rear-Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. Jamaica.

RECEIPT DUTY.

His Majesty's Attorney-General versus William Bell.

Sittings in the Exchequer, after Michaelmas Term, 1805, before the Lord Chief Baron and a special Jury.

MR. PLUMER, the Counsel for the Crown, stated to the Court and Jury, that this was an Information filed in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney-General, by Order of the Commissioners of Stamps, against the Defendant William Bell, a Butcher, at Manchester, for having, in the Month of October, 1804, received from a Person of the Name of Barrowclough, a Sheriff's Officer, also residing at Manchester, the Sum of 11l. 15s. 6d. the Amount of a Bill delivered for Meat sold to him, and refusing, at the Time the Money was paid, to sign a Receipt for the same on a proper Stamp, and to pay the Duty thereon, as directed by the Statute of the 43d of the present King, Cap. 126; which Act, in the 2d Section, directs, that the Stamp Duty on all Receipts shall be paid by the Person receiving the Money. And the 5th Section also enacts, that it shall be lawful for any Person, or any Agent of any Person, from whom any Sum of Money shall be due or payable, and who shall have paid such Sum of Money, to provide a Piece of Paper, duly stamped according to the Amount of the Sum so paid, or some higher Rate of Duty in the said Act contained, and to demand and require of the Person entitled to such Sum of Money a Receipt for the same, and also the Amount of the Duty thereon; and then it provides, if any Person, to whom any Sum of Money shall have been paid, shall refuse to give such Receipt upon Demand thereof, or pay the Amount of the Duty thereof, every such Person shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds.—He then observed that this Act casts the Obligation upon the Person who receives the Money to give a stamped Receipt to the Person paying it, or the Person paying the Money may tender a Receipt Stamp, and may demand of the Person to sign it after he has received the Money; and he has a Right also to demand the Payment of the Amount of the Duty; and if the Person receiving the Money does not sign the Receipt, and pay the Duty, he incurs the Penalty.

The Case was proved agreeable to Mr. Plumer's opening, by Barrowclough, confirmed by James Butler, who proved that the Defendant was paid 11l. 15s. 6d. for his Bill, and then asked to sign a Receipt, which was produced by Barrowclough, and to pay the Sum of 4d. which was the Price of the Stamp. The Defendant refused, and said he should ask Advice of his Friends, and would sign it immediately after. Upon being frequently applied to afterwards, he persevered in his Refusal to sign the Receipt, or pay the 4d.

Mr. Dauncey made a few Observations on Behalf of the Defendant.

When the Lord Chief Baron addressed the Jury as follows:

I think this is an extremely proper Prosecution. I take the Object of it to be to give Publicity to the Law. I entirely agree with what has fallen from the Counsel for the Crown, that the Receipt must be given immediately upon the Payment of the Money, at the Peril of the Party who refuses it.

By your Verdict I hope, therefore, it will be understood, that the Law must be put in Execution; and that a Person withholds a Receipt at the Time of receiving the Money at his Peril. It is impossible that to a Butcher (a Man in considerable Trade I should suppose, by having a Bill of 11l. 15s. 6d. paid by a Customer not of very high Rank), the 4d. should be an Object to him. I take it to be an Experiment on the Part of this Man, and perhaps many others, to try whether the Law can be evaded or not. It is not likely he should squabble merely about 4d.; nor is it likely he could have any Doubt about the Terms of the Receipt. It was extremely proper that it should be published to the World, that a Man must give a Receipt upon receiving out Money, and must do it immediately. That I take to be the true Interpretation of the Law in this Case. Gentlemen, you can have no Doubt in finding a Verdict for the Crown.

The Jury immediately gave a Verdict for the King. Penalty £. 10

Stamp-Office, January 13, 1806.

Whitehall, January 4, 1806.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that between the Hours of Two and Three on the Morning of the 29th December last, a Fire broke out in the Cotton Mills, belonging to Messrs Joseph and John Thackeray, of Manchester, one of which was entirely consumed, together with its Contents, and the other materially damaged; and that there is every Reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Mills,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Directors and Proprietors of the Royal Exchange, Sun, Phoenix, and Imperial Fire Offices, do hereby offer a Reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by

H. Watts, Secretary to the Sun Fire-Office.

And, as a still further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs Joseph and John Thackeray, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid in Manner above-mentioned.
